GENEVA, July 28. (AP)—Rupture of the tripartite naval conference threatens tonight as almost a certainty unless developments, which nobody genuinely expects, come to save it.

QUAKE KILLS THOUSANDS

China Dead Put at 100,000

Catastrophe in Interior Declared Most Terrible in World's History

Whole Cities Gulped Down; Mountain Buries One; Details Meager

LONDON, July 28. (AP)—What is considered as without doubt one of the world's most terrible catastrophes occurred May 23, last, in the remote province of Kansu, China, when towns and cities were leveled by a great earthquake, with the casualties placed as high as 100,000.

The Westminster Gazette's Shanghai correspondent sends the first detailed news of the earthquake, which came in the form of a letter from Mgr. Buddenbrock, vicar apostoline of the Steyl Mission at Lanchow, Kansu. No report of the catastrophe previously had reached Shanghai owing to the total destruction of telegraphic and postal services.

Mgr. Buddenbrock describes how the cities of Sisiang, Liangchow and Kulang were wiped out in the twinkling of an eye. At Liangchow alone, he says, at least 10,000 were killed. The city of Tumentse was completely wrecked and buried beneath a moving mountain.

Missionaries' estimates place the casualties as high as 100,000 and the suffering of the survivors is declared to have been indescribable.

Mgr. Buddenbrock tells a stirring story of how the quake at Sisiang occurred during the celebration of mass. Immediately after the consecration, terrible subterranean rumblings were heard. Dozens of worshipers, including the mother superior, were buried when the church suddenly collapsed. Priests worked frantically to rescue the living and administer the sacrament to the dying.

In the town arose one long wail of fright and grief as the magnitude of the disaster was realized. Not one building was left intact and there was not one house which did not contain dead and dying. In places the earth opened, emitting bluish-black water.

AIRPLANES HUNT MEN ON DESERT

Naval Flyers Searching Trackless Waste for Pair Reported Lost Five Days

YUMA (Ariz.) July 28. (AP)—Two United States naval airplanes carrying five men who scanned the dry washes and arroyos with field glasses, skimmed low over the trackless desert of central Yuma county today, searching together with desert men afoot and on horseback, for two men who have been lost for days.

The airplanes which came to Yuma from San Diego this forenoon, delayed long enough to refuel and then started for the desert, made possible a renewal of the hunt for Andrew Arsenault, 30 years of age, Wellton, (Ariz.) mining man, who has been lost in the Castle Dome country, fifty miles northwest of here, since a week today. A five-day search by men afoot and on horseback was abandoned yesterday as hopeless.

Sixty-five miles east of here, at Palomas, a group of mining men, led by Sheriff Jim Chappell, veteran desert tracker, sought for Harry McEanee who has been lost since Monday in the vicinity of the Emgasser mine. McEanee is an old-timer in the Palomas country, having prospected in the region for nearly thirty years and those who know him believe that he either has been a victim of sunstroke or that he fell and injured himself.

MARIE FACES LIFE MINUS READY CASH

Queen May be Compelled to Sell Jewels in Order to Keep Up Her Palaces

BUCHAREST, July 28. (AP)—King Ferdinand's death has left Queen Marie relatively a poor woman. Unless the state comes forward with help for the now Dowager Queen, she may be obliged to convert some of her jewels and other possessions into cash.

As already announced, Ferdinand's 300,000,000 lei fortune (about $1,800,000) will be apportioned among the King's five children, including Prince Carol, who will receive about $400,000. The Queen, however, receives nothing beyond the use for life of certain of the King's properties.

The government now proposes to split up the 30,000,000-lei civil list which Ferdinand received, among Queen Marie, King Michael, the Princess Mother Helen, Prince Nicholas and members of the regency. This would allow the Queen only about $30,000 annually for the upkeep of her palaces, the salaries of her staff, entertainment purposes and other expenditures. This sum is very small compared with the salaries and allowances of other royal figures, King Alexander of Jugo-Slavia, Marie's son-in-law, for instance, receiving more than $1,000,000 annually.

Mexican Flood Wrecks Bridge; Trains Delayed

NOGALES (Ariz.) July 28. (AP)—Reports reaching here state that all traffic, both north and south-bound, on the Southern Pacific of Mexico Railroad, have been delayed due to the washing away by heavy rains last night and early today of seven sections of the Sonora River bridge.

The washouts held up trains at Hermosillo, capital city of Sonora, pending repairs which should be completed tomorrow, the reports said. A special train carrying 130 employees of the railroad from Tucson to the new headquarters at Guadalajara, Jalisco, Mex., was reported to have passed through the storm section safely, as did yesterday's northbound passenger trains.

RAIN BRINGS MANY SKIDS IN BAY AREA

Thunder and Lightning Accompany Tiny Showers; Traffic Crashes Follow

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28. (Exclusive)—The Bay District experienced an unusual thunder-and-lightning storm today. Although the rainfall was only a trace in San Francisco, it was enough to make pavements slippery and was considered responsible for several minor traffic accidents.

In Marin county wet pavements were held responsible for a skid that sent five persons in an automobile over a seventy-five-foot embankment. All were injured.

Rain in slight amounts was reported from Contra Costa and Sonoma counties.

DEATH TOLL OF FLOOD IN INDIA HIGH

Thousand Reported Lost in Native State Swept by Torrent from Reservoir

LONDON, July 28. (AP)—A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from Bombay says that immense damage and serious loss of life are feared to have resulted from a great flood in the native state of Baroda.

An unconfirmed report yesterday said that 1000 deaths had occurred as the result of the bursting of a huge reservoir and the flooding of surrounding villages.

The Exchange Telegraph dispatch says it is not yet possible to confirm the extent of the flood, but it seems to be on an almost unprecedented scale. The message adds that reliable information shows that the city of Baroda, capital, is isolated, being surrounded with water to a depth of ten feet. Railway communication is impossible for probably a fortnight.

FORTY-SIX LOST AS BOAT FOUNDERS IN LAKE SQUALL

Chicago Excursion Craft Packed With Women and Children Turns Over; 26 Bodies Recovered

CHICAGO, July 28. (AP)—A total of sixty-four persons were known to have been aboard the ill-fated Favorite when it sank in Lake Michigan late today. Twenty-six are known to be dead, eighteen rescued, and twenty others missing.

CHICAGO, July 28. (AP)—Upward of two score persons, mostly women and little children, out for a boat ride to escape the city's sweltering heat, which ranged up to 95 degrees, were drowned late today when the Favorite, a small excursion boat, capsized in Lake Michigan a half-mile off shore during a squall. Terrified by the storm, which came up in fifteen minutes and passed in a few seconds, the seventy-five or eighty passengers rushed to one side of the boat and, as it listed, stampeded to the other side. In an instant they were plunged into the water with rough breakers tossing them helplessly about.

The noise of a negro band blaring away at "I'm Looking For a Four-leaf Clover," was transformed into the choking cries of persons clutching at any floating object as the boat turned half over and settled until only its upper deck remained partly out of the water.

BODIES RECOVERED

Early tonight twenty-six bodies had been recovered and Charles Kennedy, deputy Coroner, said he believed there were almost that many more in the vessel itself. He based his statement partly on an investigation made by Eugene F. McDonald, Jr., president of the Zenith Radio Corporation, who went down in a diving suit to explore the vessel.

The Favorite, a two-deck gasoline boat sixty-four feet long with a capacity of 158, left the Lincoln Park pier early in the afternoon for a cruise to the municipal pier three miles distant. The boat was about a mile from the pier and half a mile off shore when the squall came up.

Capt. Arthur Olsen, who was arrested with members of his crew, said the passengers caused the boat to capsize when they became terror-stricken at the storm. Little tots who had never been in the water fought for their lives alongside their mothers and a few men, as the waves, rising with each gust of wind, swept over the listing boat's decks and then partly submerged her.

BOYS USE LIFEBOAT

One small lifeboat was cut loose and three small boys made shore in it. Other children and women clung to life preservers or to the sides of the boat.

One small boy got a good firm grasp on the smokestack of the Favorite and held on tightly for more than an hour, while less fortunate fellow-passengers floundered or were rescued.

The work of rescue was under way almost before the boat had settled. The few men aboard the ship fought hercically to save women and children, while from near by scores of small craft raced to their rescue, removing many women and children from sides of the boat where they hung on for their lives.

By the time the first rescue boats had reached the shore doctors and nurses transformed the entire beach into an emergency hospital, working over some of the bodies for hours in efforts at resuscitation.

Dr. Herman N. Bundesen, City Health Commissioner, rushed hundreds of doctors and nurses to the scene.

The dead were not immediately identified, as there was no list of passengers and hours after the accident persons whose children or women folks had not returned home clamored at morgues seeking knowledge of loved ones, whom they fearfully believed might be dead or missing.

INQUIRIES UNDER WAY

Several investigations of the tragedy are under way tonight, while the search for bodies was in progress.

The police and the Coroner's office started separate inquiries, and it appeared likely that the State's Attorney also might take action.

At first it was reported that several boats had upset. Later, however,

DISTRICTING DEFERRED

Reapportionment Vote in 1928

Referendum Against New Law Qualified With 77,425 Valid Signatures

One-Senator Plan Approved by Legislature Will Go Before People

SACRAMENTO, July 28. (Exclusive) Reapportionment of representation in the California Legislature has been held up until the people can vote in November, 1928, on the redistricting act passed by the last Legislature, as the referendum against the law qualified today with the filing of a sufficient number of signatures with Secretary of State Frank C. Jordan. Jordan announced that 77,425 valid signatures had been filed in his office to refer to the electors the so-called Federal plan of distributing legislative representation, whereas only 57,206 were needed to qualify the referendum.

The signatures were filed from the following counties: San Francisco, 39,118; Los Angeles, 17,364; Alameda, 20,193, and Santa Clara, 750.

As passed by the Legislature, the act provides that no county in California would be entitled to more than one Senator and no Senatorial district could contain more than three counties. The Assembly would be apportioned strictly on the basis of population.

The new policy for allotting Senatorial less representation would cut Los Angeles county's delegation from eight to one member and would cause San Francisco to lose six Senators. The Senators taken away from Los Angeles and San Francisco would be distributed among the rural counties.

REFERENDUM ALSO HALTS TRUCK WEIGHT TAX BILL

SACRAMENTO, July 28. (AP)—The Wagy truck weight tax bill, scheduled to become effective Saturday, today was held up by referendum proceedings initiated by the truck owners of California. Frank C. Jordan, Secretary of State, with whom the petitions were filed, announced signatures totaling 66,601 against the bill have been received by him. Only 57,206 names were required.

The referendum proceedings, if allowed to stand, will prevent the bill from going into operation until after the 1928 election, and then only if

ATLANTIC AIR RACES LIKELY

Ten Planes May Attempt Sea Hop at Same Time if Weather Causes Further Delays

NEW YORK, July 28. (AP)—Continuation of the present unfavorable weather for long-distance flying increases the possibility that during the next six weeks a score of aviators may all be flying over the Atlantic at the same time, more than half of them westward bound from Europe.

At the present time plans are well under way for trans-Atlantic crossings in ten planes, each carrying from one to four men. The only woman aviator who has announced intention of attempting the Atlantic flight, Fraulein Thea Rascha, does not plan to embark on her adventure until next year.

FLIGHTS LISTED

The flights which might conceivably all begin at the same time should the weather cause further delays, are as follows:

Capt. Frank T. Courtney, British ace, only awaits favorable weather at Calshot, Eng., to attempt the perilous western passage, never yet accomplished, in a Dornier Whale flying boat with two companions.

Maurice Drouhin, French flyer, will be ready in ten days to pilot Charles Levine back along the course flown in the eastward direction in the same plane by Levine and Clarence Chamberlin.

Leon Givon, another Frenchman, has completed preliminary tests of the Farman plane Blue Bird, in which he hopes to beat Drouhin to New York and the plane was taken to Le Bourget flying field today.

THREE GERMAN HOPS

Three German planes are expected to attempt hops to America within the next few weeks. Otto Koennecke and Count George Solmslaubach expect to fly a Caspar biplane over the ocean and it was indicated today that two Junker monoplanes will try the crossing together, piloted by Friederich Loose and Johann Ristics, who have been making endurance tests.

Besides these six planes which conceivably might compose a great race over the westward course, two planes are completing preparations for flights from this country to Europe and two others from Canada to the continent.

The planes to leave from here are Rene Fonck's Sikorsky and the Fokker to be flown by Lloyd Bertaud and James D. Hill, air-mail pilots. Fonck's plane probably will hold a crew of four, as did last year's ship, which overturned and burned at the take-off, killing two men. Fonck's destination will be Paris and Bertaud's Rome. Both planes will be taken to Roosevelt Field within the next few days.

CANADIAN HOP CALLED OFF

In Canada what seemed for a time the most promising proposed flight has been called off, the government not feeling that it could at this time spare the services from forest patrol work of Capt. Maxwell and Tully who had planned to fly from London, Ont., to London, Eng.

PEACH WAR AT CRISIS

Crop May Rot in Price Deadlock

Canners Offer $20 a Ton for Firsts and Growers Ask $30 as Pickers Stand Idle

Many Destitute and Sabotage Reported With Harvesting Due to Begin Wednesday

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28. (Exclusive)—Serious conditions impend in the price war deadlock between Central California peach growers and canners of that fruit, it was admitted here tonight.

The harvesting of the crop is scheduled to begin next Wednesday, but unless some agreement is reached between growers and canners before that time, it is generally conceded by all parties concerned that the great bulk of the crop will be allowed to rot on the trees.

The war has resulted from the price which canners say they will pay and the price growers are asking.

CANNERS STAND PAT

The canners, through the Canners' League of California, have issued an ultimatum that they will pay only $20 per ton for firsts. Their reason, as officially given to the public, is that they wish to avoid overproduction. They also have let it be known that they wish to discourage further planting until the market has adjusted itself to a crop way above normal.

Growers are holding out for a price of $30 per ton for firsts and $15 per ton for seconds.

The deadlock has existed for more than a month.

Frank E. Schmitt, secretary of the California Canning Peach Growers' Association, announced tonight that it was possible a mediation meeting might be arranged for tomorrow or Saturday, but said it has not been settled as yet.

In the meantime, from 10,000 to 15,000 pickers are reported out of work. Some of them, it is declared, are destitute.

SABOTAGE REPORTED

Charges came from Oroville today that sabotage has been threatened in the Gridley orchards. Sheriff Toland immediately launched an investigation. Unrest among laborers is increasing, he said, but to date he declared he has been unable to determine any actual basis for substantiation of the reports.

In the Gridley district, however, several families who declare they are destitute because of lack of work have taken possession of the city camping grounds and are looking to the city for support.

Will Martin, director of the growers' association, estimates that from 30,000 to 40,000 tons of Tuscans have rotted on the ground. Preston McKinney, vice-president of the Canners' League, in commenting upon Martin's figures, declared:

"The $30-per-ton figure fixed by the growers is impracticable due to the 2,000,000 cases carried over from 1926."

With this year's crop, he said, the total pack will aggregate about 14,000,000 cases.

Rescuers Search Fatal Wreck of Lake Steamer

After Squall Had Passed

BOAT CAPSIZES; 46 LOST

it was found that the only other casualty was a small speed boat and the occupants swam to shore.

A boy 16 years of age rescued his father and tried in vain to save his mother who was already dead of shock, it developed when George Holmes, of Berwyn, Ill., recovered from exhaustion at a hospital.

The mother, Mrs. Fannie Holmes, was dead and his father, Charles Holmes, an insurance broker in Chicago, is expected to live.

"We were all standing on the lower deck when the terrific rainstorm started," the boy said. "Everybody rushed to the east side of the boat to get out of the rain. I saw the boat listing so I ran to the west side.

"Just as I shouted to my parents the boat went over. I grabbed a life preserver and threw it to my father who was the first to come up. Then I threw another to my mother but she did not see it. I believe she was dead then. My father stayed in the water and I remained on the boat and we pulled my mother onto the side of the boat."

MOTHER DIES IN HIS ARMS

E. A. Berntt, a Chicagoan, managed to save his wife and child 6 years of age, as his mother died in his arms. He clung to a rail of the overturned boat holding his mother while his wife and daughter clung to his other arm. His wife succeeded in keeping herself and child above the water. His mother was dead when a relief boat carried them ashore.

After seeing his wife and two children depart for the cooling trip up the lake, L. B. Hendricks of Sterling, Ill., sat down on the shore and watched the craft as it got under way, and was still watching when the squall struck, turning it over.

When the first relief boat came ashore, Hendricks rushed aboard and collapsed when he saw the bodies of his wife and children lying on the deck. Hendricks had brought his family to Chicago especially to make a lake trip.

Although the forefinger of his right hand had been cut off when he was pitched through the glass window of a cabin as the Favorite went down, Leo Soboth, 45 years of age, skipper of the motor launch The U.S.A., rescued four children from drowning. Soboth was having a joy ride on the Favorite and his own launch was moored at the pier. As he was thrown into the water he saw close to him the struggling forms of the children. The two smallest ones he told to take hold of his shirt. He swam to a boat near by and placed them in it. Then swam over to the two other children, put them in it also and climbed into it himself. It was too small to hold any more, so he paddled it to a motor boat which was approaching. When they arrived at the municipal pier he carried the youngsters to the pulmotors and after they had been revived went to a nurse and had his hand bandaged.

RESCUERS' STORY

It was the motor boat Doris that contributed largely to the rescue. It is owned by William A. Hofnauer, wealthy president of a Chicago waste company. With his secretary, Gilbert O'Brien, and Warren Corning, president of the Warren Corning Company, he was en route to Wilmette, a north shore suburb.

Mr. Hofnauer and O'Brien sped their launch to the scene of disaster, stripped and plunged into the lake.

"We took the children first," Mr. Hofnauer said. "There seemed to be scores in the water. It was ghastly. some of the babies were corpses by the time we got there. Mothers were struggling frantically to reach their youngsters, many of them dead.

"We seized the living ones and swam to our launch, where Mr. Corning pulled them aboard. We dived to liberate those imprisoned below deck.

"We loaded the launch until it seemed it would sink. We must have had fifty aboard. Then we headed for the municipal pier. It was there that mothers missed their children and parentless babies cried in panic and sorrow."

Johnny Weismueller, swimming star, dived for many of the bodies, being attracted to the scene from a near-by beach, where he had been bathing.

Capt. Olsen said the accident occurred so suddenly he barely had time to escape from the wheel house.

CAPTAIN'S STORY

"The squall came up so quickly that all the passengers ran over to one side of the boat, causing it to turn completely over," he said. "I left the wheel as fast as I could, grabbed my knife and cut the cords holding the life preservers. Then I cut the cords of the lifeboat and threw the life preservers into the water where the struggling passengers could reach them.

"The squall that hit us was the fiercest that I have encountered in my twenty years on Lake Michigan."

The accident today is similar to that of the ill-fated Eastland, which turned over in the Chicago River twelve years ago this month and cost more than 800 lives. This accident also was caused, it was decided, because several hundred passengers rushed to one side of the vessel to observe some object in the water.

As the boat listed the musicians of the band left their posts, tossed away their instruments and jumped overboard. All were saved.

Opal Hilton, 18, visiting here from Hugo, Okla., was the heroine of the disaster. The girl managed to save four small children, including the daughter, 10 years of age, of Capt. Olsen, before becoming exhausted herself.

SURVIVOR WAS IN WRECK OF EASTLAND

CHICAGO, July 28. (AP)—A mother of five, who was one of the few survivors of the Eastland excursion boat disaster of twelve years and four days ago, was again saved from drowning as the Favorite, also an excursion boat, met its tragic fate with scores aboard today.

The scenes of both her escapes are within signaling distance of each other.

But while the mother, Mrs. Gertrude Berndt, Chicago, saved herself today, four of her family were drowned in the dashing waves that pushed the Favorite to the bottom.

By some strange premonition of impending disaster, Mrs. Berndt said she balked before boarding the boat.

"When we started to get on board the Favorite, I said to my husband, 'I don't like the looks of this boat—it has a tendency to lean to one side.'"

"He said: 'Oh, don't spoil the party.' They all laughed at me and my mother-in-law said: 'Oh, you're tired and cranky.' But I know a good deal about boats as the result of a trip on the Pacific and one thing and another, and I didn't like the looks of the Favorite, so I said before we got on: 'Why not wait until that larger boat comes and take it?' They all laughed again and called me a crepehanger, so I went aboard.

"When the storm struck the boat, she was tipping so badly that I called out to some of the people to go to the other side."

But instead, she related, they all rushed to one side and the boat keeled over.

"Some man," she said, "told me to mind my own business. The words were hardly out of his mouth before the boat went over."

Before she plunged from the Favorite into Lake Michigan, Mrs. Berndt tossed her 5-year-old daughter, Lois, into the water, knowing she could swim and desiring not to hinder her safety.

"We were both towed to a beautiful yacht by a rope from a rowboat," she said, "and placed aboard."

Damage Heavy Over Inundated Colorado Area

GRAND JUNCTION (Colo.) July 28. (AP)—Property damage estimated at more than $50,000 was caused last night by flood waters which rushed through Ouray, south of here, and inundated the valley toward Ridgeway. More than a mile of the Denver and Rio Grande Western Railroad track was washed out, and most of the highways are reported impassable.

Two women were forced to spend the night in trees when they were caught by the flood waters. Many others are reported to have been caught in the flood, but none was believed to have been injured or drowned. The flood was the worst since 1908.

NEWLYWED STILLMANS HIDE AWAY

NEW YORK, July 28. (Exclusive)—Mr. and Mrs. Bud Stillman, successfully playing hide and seek with reporters, arrived at the Grand Central Station today, leaped into a taxicab and disappeared.

Where the two, who were married amid a shower of plates hurled by the bridegroom's mother in Grande Anse will hide until they sail at midnight Sunday on the Olympic, remained a mystery which James A. Stillman, father of the young man, refused to clear. He said, however, they were not at his apartment.

Mr. Stillman defended the disposal made by his wife of various plates at the Grande Anse ceremony. She threw them at photographers.

"My wife asked the photographers to forget their cameras during the ceremony but they broke their promise and that's why they got theirs," he said.

The Olympic, upon which the young Stillmans will sail, is the same vessel upon which Mr. and Mrs. James A. Stillman sailed on their reconciliation trip.

In the meantime, however, the State Highway Commission, which has been attacking the petition on the ground that it was irregular and invalid, plans to continue the fight and ultimately take it into court for a complete review of the proceedings attendant upon its circulation. The nature of the court proceedings now are uncertain, but Harry Encell, highway commission attorney, said today they were certain to follow.

Efforts were made late last night and today to have Jordan refuse to certify the petitions, thus forcing the court action on to the proponents of the referendum to compel Jordan to receive the documents. Jordan, however, on the advice of Atty.-Gen. Webb, today accepted the petitions and announced the signatures on them to be sufficient to delay the effectiveness of the bill. Jordan announced 24,149 names were certified from Los Angeles county, 18,355 from Alameda county and 24,097 from San Francisco county.

Local Attorney Files Cash Bond and Leaves Cell

SAN JOSE, July 28. (AP)—George L. Sanders, Los Angeles attorney, whose efforts to avoid penalty for asserted traffic law violations at Morgan Hill last December have engaged local and Morgan Hill authorities at various times since then, today deposited $225 bail to effect his release from County Jail here.

When arrested at Morgan Hill last December he contested the case in the local Superior Court against the town authorities, but failed. He deposited his check for $150 for bail at the time. When it was subsequently forfeited it was found Sanders had stopped payment on it. His arrest at Los Angeles yesterday followed. He deposited currency as bail today.

BRITAIN'S ARMS PLAN REJECTED

Failure Believed Certain in Geneva Conference

America Spurns Limit for Smaller Craft

Crash Foreseen in Plenary Session Monday

ican delegation, asked whether this plan was Great Britain's last word. Mr. Bridgeman said it was.

A plenary session has been convoked for Monday next. A Japanese delegate expressed the opinion to the correspondent that this undoubtedly will be the last meeting of the conference, as there seems no reasonable chance that the divergencies between the British and the Americans can be reconciled.

Mr. Gibson and every member of the American delegation absolutely refused to discuss the new British proposals, with one exception, and that was Rear-Admiral Hilary P. Jones, who remarked: "At today's meeting of the delegates I informed my fellow-conferees that I would say only this to the newspaper men —'You can draw your own conclusions.'"

WASHINGTON SEES NO CHANCE OF SUCCESS

WASHINGTON, July 28. (AP)—Decision of the chief delegates to the Geneva naval conference to hold a plenary session next Monday was regarded in official circles here as indicating that the conference will terminate without an agreement on naval limitation.

The text of the British proposals submitted at today's conversation in Geneva had not reached Washington officially at a late hour today. Officials pointed out, however, that the communique issued after the meeting in Geneva referred to these proposals as in line with previous suggestions "subject to certain modifications."

The form of that statement was regarded as indicating that the new British proposals failed to change in any respect the fundamental differences in opinion on the cruiser strength problem of the conference. In the absence of some new plan and not simply a minor modification of old proposals, it appeared here that the conference must conclude its labors and adjourn with little further delay.

FORM SPECULATED ON

In view of this interpretation of the formal announcement in Geneva, considerable interest attached tonight to speculation as to the form in which a resolution of adjournment might express the inability of the delegates to arrive at an agreement. It was taken for granted that each of the chief spokesmen would find it expedient to state the attitude of his government.

Despite the absence of an official text of the modified British proposals, it has been clear in Washington all along that administration officials did not look with favor on any plan for partial agreements at Geneva which did not include limiting formulae to cover all classes of auxiliary combat ships. It has been apparent that the American delegation did not favor a temporary arrangement to deal with large cruisers alone or any other plan which did not clearly accomplish reduction of naval expenditures and the maintenance of the naval ratio between the three powers established by the Washington conference—the 5-5-3 agreement stated in terms of gross tonnage by class of ships.

CHAMBERLAIN ABHORS IDEA OF QUARREL

LONDON, July 28. (AP)—With perhaps a prophetic eye to what was passing today at Geneva, Sir Austen Chamberlain, Secretary for Foreign Affairs, took advantage of the general debate on foreign affairs in the House of Commons to renew his protestations of abhorence at the mere idea of any quarrel between the United States and Great Britain.

Charles Trevelyan, Laborite, had opened the debate with advocacy of all-round arbitration to precede disarmament, declaring that the government was beginning at the wrong end. The conference the world wanted, he said, was one between M. Briand, Ambassador Houghton and Lord Cecil, representing respectively France, United States and Great Britain, and Britain should make a great gesture of disarmament by boldly offering to abolish all capital ships if the other nations were ready to follow.

WAR'S LESSON UNHEEDED

Commander Kenworthy, Liberal, was of the opinion that the nation had not learned the lesson of the great war.

"We may be at the beginning of a situation with the United States similar to that begun with Germany in 1902," he said. "It took twelve years for the seed then sown to germinate. Seed may be in the process of sowing at this moment in Switzerland. I hope not, but there is need for great patience on all sides."

The Foreign Secretary, in the course of his reply, which ranged over many topics, including China and Russia, dealt chiefly with disarmament, with particular reference to the relations between the United States and Great Britain.

"The last thing I am willing to contemplate is that failure (at Geneva) should lead to anything like a quarrel," he said. "Let us agree as friends if we can; let us differ as friends if agreement is impossible. The friendliest attitude throughout has been preserved.

CONTRACTS LET FOR FOUR CRUISERS

WASHINGTON, July 28. (Exclusive)—Contracts for the construction of four of the 10,000-ton cruisers appropriated for by the last Congress have been awarded by Secretary of the Navy Wilbur, it was announced here today. The average cost of each cruiser will be about $10,658,000 and total contract cost is $42,624,000.

Two of the cruisers will be built by the Neyport News Shipbuilding and Drydock Company while the others will be built by the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation and the American Brown Boveri Electrical Corporation. Four other 10,000-ton cruisers are now building and when all these ships are completed the United States fleet will have 155,000 tons of modern cruisers as compared with more than 350,000 tons owned by Great Britain. Eight of the American cruisers will be of 10,000 tons and seven 7500 tons.

Because of the decline in shipbuilding since the war, and the consequent shortage of skilled technical personnel the four contractors have organized a corporation known as the Marine Engineering Corporation to prepare the working plans for the three shipyards and to purchase similar material for the three builders.

RELATIONS NOT TO SUFFER IN ARMS CLASH

WILLIAMSTOWN (Mass.) July 28. (AP)—Because the ideals of both powers in world affairs are similar, diplomatic relations between England and America would not suffer from possible failure of the disarmament conference in Geneva, Sir Arthur Willert of the British Foreign Office, speaking in an unofficial capacity, told the Institute of Politics convening here today.

Both countries are out for all the disarmament possible, he said, but England's naval requirements must necessarily differ from America's because of Britain's reliance on foreign and colonial markets. The British foreign policy, conditioned and motivated by the world markets on which England subsists, he said, is at one with the American policy in seeking to maintain world peace and understanding.

LAUDER HONOR PROTESTED

EDINBURGH (Scotland) July 28. (AP)—Sir Harry Lauder was honored the comedian today with the freedom of the city, but the Town Council gave the little Scot a sharp dig in the ribs.

The freedom of the city was proposed in recognition of Sir Harry's war services, his efforts in raising funds for war charities, his labors to cement the ties of kinship between the mother country and the dominions, and his pre-eminence as an exponent of Scottish song and humor.

The opposition was voiced by Councilman Gilsean, Laborite, who said that Lauder presented to audiences a type of Scotsman not found in the heavens above, on the earth beneath, or in the waters under the earth.

"If that type of Scotsman is in their midst in the flesh, we should at once pack the fellow off to the lunatic asylum," declared Mr. Gilsean.

Councilman Crawford said the man had done more to bring songs into contempt than any man. Mr. Crawford asserted that he was a Tory proposition but announced trade unions and acterized the "meanness" of shys." Further, said the Lauder has degraded and folk lore in the eyes of

HOTEL'S BAN ON SMOKING IRKS WOMEN

CHICAGO, July 28. (Exclusive)—"In England it is etiquette for women to smoke anywhere. We will smoke in the lobby or go to another hotel."

This was the dictum of fifteen English tourists, department buyers for Harrod's, Ltd., of London, to the manager of the Congress Hotel today. The women were smoking in the lobby and had been advised it was against the rule, as smoking rooms were available for women and they also were permitted to smoke in the cafes. But they insisted upon mingling with the throngs of men in the lobby, puffing their cigarettes.

Evidently Americans wish their women to smoke in private but not in public," said Gertrude Heaton, one of the party. "Never before have we run into anything like this. You would think we had bad reputations —to be stopped like this from smoking in the lobby."

Later on the party toured the big stores and found fault with the time permitted the employees for recreation. In Harrod's, Ltd., they said, the clerks are given coffee and opportunity to smoke and relax at 10:30 in the forenoon and again in the afternoon, at 4 o'clock, a half-hour for tea and cigarettes.

The possibility that all these planes might get into the air at the same time is, of course, slight, but because of their number and the natural spirit of rivalry among them it is believed likely that at least several of them may begin their flights almost simultaneously and that spirited races across the sea will result.

PNEUMATIC TELECOMPASS WILL BE USED BY GERMANS

BERLIN, July 28. (AP)—A new pneumatic telecompass, which is said to enable an airman to keep his course mechanically, will be used for the first time in the history of trans-Atlantic aviation by the three German pilots who are planning to attempt flights to America.

Profiting by the mishaps which occurred to the compasses used by the American transocean flyers, Clarence Chamberlin and Commander Richard Byrd, the German aviators will not employ the induction compasses.

The pneumatic compasses have been constructed by the Askania works of Friedenau, a suburb of Berlin. They will be installed in the Caspar biplane, in which Otto Koennecke and Count Solmslaubach hope to reach the United States, and in the two Junkers monoplanes which, it was indicated today, will be piloted by Johann Ristics and Friederich Loose.

Widow Sends Plea on Sacco and Vanzetti

BOSTON, July 28. (AP)—The widow of one of the victims of the South Braintree pay-roll shooting in 1920, the crime for which Nicola Sacco and Bartolomeo Vanzetti, internationally known radicals, were condemned to death, tonight telegraphed Gov. Fuller, asking that the men be set free.

The request was made by Mrs. Sarah Berardelli, widow of Allessandro Berardelli, who was shot and killed when an armed band held up a shoe company paymaster. Berardelli was acting as guard for Frederick Parmenter, the paymaster, who also was killed.

WETTEST DISTRICT LAUGHS AT LAWS

Ex-Dry Chief Tells How 8000 Speak-Easies Operate

They Had Protection

No attempt was ever made to take an accurate census, but it was estimated that there were 7000 or 8000 saloons and speak-easies operating in New Jersey at that time, says Col. Ira L. Reeves.

(Col. Reeves resigned as New Jersey Prohibition Administrator May 24. His experiences, the difficulties of enforcement, why he quit, he is disclosing in a series of articles he is writing for the North American Newspaper Alliance. This is the fourth article.)

BY IRA L. REEVES

When I became Prohibition Administrator of New Jersey in September, 1926, the State had long been known as "the wettest spot in the Union."

No attempt was ever made to take an accurate census, but it was estimated that there were 7000 or 8000 saloons and speak-easies operating in New Jersey at that time.

The work of the enforcement division of an administrator's office is to put these places out of business. During my term I seized approximately 400 large commercial stills, cutting plants, wildcat breweries, etc. I am informed this is the best record made to date.

I also set another precedent by leading raids myself, and in some cases making them single-handed. Most administrators do not consider this a part of their duty, but I followed the army rule that an officer always leads his men in an attack.

Now the present-day saloon in my former district differs little from the old-fashioned one. The matter of locating them does not require any investigation and we never lacked information in this respect. Indeed we probably had information about several hundred more places than our personnel could raid.

HANDICAPS TO ENFORCEMENT

One of the handicaps to enforcement work is the public's misconception of a prohibition unit's function. The administrator and his men have absolutely no punitive or judicial powers. They can only obtain evidence and place it before the United States District Attorney, who alone can prosecute the violators.

Thus that portion of the citizenry who favored prohibition could not see why we did not summarily smash up places where we were morally certain the law was being violated. On the other hand, there were many times when the law violators received all sorts of encouragement and assistance from men who had no pecuniary interest in the result of the raid.

On one occasion I visited a railroad yard in Hoboken, having received information that four carloads of beer were being unloaded there. When I entered the yard with three agents we found a truck backed up against a freight car, and five men as busy as beavers loading the beer onto the truck. A crowd of railroad employees stood around, laughing and joking about the law violation.

We seized freight car and truck and arrested the five men. Then we tried to locate the three other cars which had been reported as filled with similar merchandise, but failed to find them. I am convinced that while we were seizing the first car the railroad men transferred the others to other yards.

There was another occasion on which I received threats first and then a bribe offer. We had raided a still of considerable size in Garfield, and captured several persons and a quantity of liquor. While waiting for trucks and workmen to dismantle the place, I started on a scouting expedition with two of my men.

A crowd had gathered outside the place and as we emerged, a small boy said to me: "If you want a big one, I will tell you where to find it. Go down Midland Road." He added that I would recognize the place when I smelled it.

We located it, and found it contained a factory-size building surrounded by a high iron fence, in which there was a double iron gate. A short stocky man tried to stop us as we entered, but we swept past him and on to the building, in which all lights went out as we arrived. Charlie Cariffe, one of my best raiders, entered through a window and opened a door for us.

We quickly saw we had found an enormous still occupying two floors. The operators had fled when the lights went out, but the still was in full blast. The vats were full of denatured alcohol and we also found a large number of five-gallon cans filled with the redistilled product.

TRIED TO STOP DEPARTURE

I sent for trucks and workmen to destroy the plant and then started to leave, as there was nothing further we could do. The man who had tried to bar our entrance, now reinforced by several comrades, tried to prevent our exit. I at once arrested them.

The largest man in the crowd tried to strike Cariffe, who is of moderate stature, but I drew my pistol and told them I would shoot the first man who made a hostile move. Cariffe and Maj. Lyon, the third member of our group, also drew their pistols.

As we waited for reinforcements, the short stocky man, later identified as the owner of the still, sidled over to me and tried to persuade me to accept his $10,000 car, "to forget the still is here."

I didn't get the car and I didn't have the real estate confiscated and the man prosecuted criminally as I had hoped to do, but we managed to padlock that part of the building used as a still.

WICHITA PROUD OF RACE PLANES

Travelairs Being Rushed for Dole Flight

B. H. Griffin Voted Funds for Endurance Test

Attempt to Break Bellanca Record Scheduled

WICHITA (Kan.) July 28. (Exclusive)—Just why a city separated from the Pacific Coast by half the width of the North American continent should be wildly excited over the forthcoming flight from the Coast to Hawaii is difficult to understand without a visit to the Travelair Aircraft Factory of this city, where two planes for the Dole flight contest are being rushed to completion.

Making the situation doubly odd is the fact that both planes will have to divide honors between Kansas and other States, for one of them will be flown by B. H. Griffin of Oklahoma and bears the name of the pilot's native State in gigantic letters on its side, and the other is being built for Art Goebel, leading Southern California entry in the flight.

ARE SISTER SHIPS

Griffin's plane, which will take the air on its initial flight tomorrow, and Goebel's are sister ships. Each is a monoplane with a fifty-four-foot wing spread, and the famous Wright whirlwind 200-horsepower engine and each will have tanks to carry the enormous total of 425 gallons of fuel which is estimated to be capable of sustaining the plane in the air for somewhere between fifty-five and sixty hours.

So confident is the Wichita citizenry of the plane's ability that today the Chamber of Commerce voted sufficient funds to enable Griffin to attempt to break the present world record for endurance of slightly over fifty hours—held by Clarence Chamberlain and Bert Acosta with the Bellanca. The assault on the record will take place within the next forty-eight hours unless plans go wrong.

PLANE DETAILS

The only difference between the two trans-Pacific planes is in the minor detail of arrangements for taking observations. Griffin, who will carry a navigator with him, has a regular conservatory hothouse arrangement on top of his plane which consists of an overhead window six feet long covering the entire space between his pilot's seat just behind the engine and the observer's cockpit, located back of the enormous gas tank. This arrangement permits communication between the two. Goebel is to do his own navigating and only has the overhead windows over the pilot's cockpit.

Both Griffin and Goebel are planning nonstop flights from this city to the Pacific Coast on the completion of their planes and each will get a rousing send-off from the Wichita citizens. Walter H. Beech, general manager of the Travelair factory, will go to California to see the start of the race.

OVATIONS GREET FLYERS' RETURN

Transsea Conqueror of Air Wants Mail Job

Civilian Aviators Forced Down by Leaky Tank

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28. (Exclusive)—If there are any more aerial worlds to conquer in the immediate future Ernest L. Smith and Emory Bronte, the first civilians to fly to the Hawaiian Islands from San Francisco Bay, are not particularly interested.

The two flyers came back to the mainland today after a round of pleasure at Honolulu, to be greeted with a tumultuous ovation both here and in Oakland.

Smith, questioned about his future plans, declared they are indefinite as yet, but immediately added:

PLANS STUDY OF LAW

The same question put to Bronte, who navigated the Traveler monoplane, brought the reply:

"I've enrolled in St. Ignatius and am going to study law."

For the first time the explanation of the flyers themselves for their shortage of gasoline was revealed. They were forced to land on the Island of Molokai with dry fuel tanks.

"There must have been a leak in one of the tanks," Smith stated. "There is no other way to account for it. We started out with 369 gallons of gasoline. Bronte's timing shows we were in the air just twenty-four hours. No Wright J-5 motor, such as we had, will consume more than fourteen gallons an hour under the most adverse conditions. I don't think our engine would use more than nine gallons.

THREE HOURS SHORT

"At the very worst, if there hadn't been a leak, we should have had enough fuel for three hours more flying."

Marjorie Brown, Smith's fiancee, was one of the first to greet the flyers as they returned aboard the President Jefferson of the Dollar Line. Throwing her arms around his neck, she cried:

"Oh, Ernie, darling."

There was no indication when the marriage will take place, although both have admitted it is going to.

Empress Given Sacred Girdle to Await Heir

[Copyright, 1927, New York Times.]

TOKIO, July 28. (Exclusive.)—The Empress yesterday donned the sacred girdle, which she will wear until a certain happy event takes place, which is expected about a month hence. Yesterday was a lucky day, according to an old Japanese calendar, and it was made doubly fortunate by a crane which flew over the imperial palace this morning circling several times. The crane's visit is in the eyes of the populace a most fortunate omen presaging the birth of a son.

Owing to imperial mourning the rejoicings which customarily accompany the presentation of the sacred girdle were omitted, but ancient rituals associated with the event were solemnly conducted by Shinto priests. The girdle, which is of finest silk and twelve feet long, was presented to the Empress by Prince Mannin in a magnificent lacquer box. Her Majesty immediately sent it to the imperial shrine, where it was ceremoniously purified by prayer.

Twelve Million Teeth Lost

IT is estimated that twelve million decayed teeth are pulled out every year by dentists in the United States.

Every one of the twelve million teeth had to be taken out because of neglect. If the people who lost these teeth had gone to a dentist soon enough, all could have been saved.

Think how many kinds of aches there must have been in these twelve million teeth! Think how much suffering and sickness were caused by neglect!

DRY BUREAU TO CLEAN RANKS

Unfit Agents to be Dropped from Federal Pay Roll

Increased Salaries Planned for Men Retaind

Lowman to Replace Andrews Monday as Chief

WASHINGTON, July 28. (AP)—In "cleaning out" enforcement agents unfitted for their duties, the prohibition bureau will be partially reorganised through a reduction in the number of agents, Commissioner Doran announced today, and the probable granting of increased compensation to the men selected to be retained.

The administrators throughout the country have been instructed by Commissioner Doran to immediately dispatch reports on their personnel's qualifications including both deputies and enforcement agents.

The general scheme is to clean out the "unfit agents and build a strong efficient organization from the bottom up" according to the bureau's officials in charge of the reorganization.

In so far as is possible under the Civil Service requirements the bureau plans to leave the selection of agents in the hands of the administrators, and the officials believe under the new plan "it will be better to have a few highly paid capable men than a greater number at a low wage."

In some districts, however, it was pointed out good agents can be obtained at comparatively low wages while in others "all one could get for the same salary would be a truck driver or a laborer who would in no sense be qualified for the work."

Asst. Secy. Lowman, who will be sworn in Monday as successor to Gen. Lincoln C. Andrews, who controlled the dry forces for the last two and one-half years, has declared against use of third-degree methods, entrapment of violators, and unnecessary destruction of property or use of firearms.

Regulations governing the conduct of the agents will be completed soon and sent to the field forces, he said.

LEPERS QUIT COLONY AND INVADE TOWN

FREIGHT HAULED ON RAINY DAYS

Railroad Idle When Sun Shines Because Forest Fire Hazard Too High

KANE (Pa.) July 28. (AP)—Kane's "rainy day" railroad has decided to stop hauling freight except when it rains.

The road operates over a distance of twenty miles, through dense forest lands. Some time ago it was found that locomotives, throwing off sparks, caused forest fires and the road posted a passenger schedule containing the sentence: "These trains will operate only on rainy days." The system proved unsatisfactory to patrons and the passenger problem was solved by the use of a gasoline car.

Freight shipments, however, required a steam locomotive. In a notice posted today, the road, known as the Kushequa Railroad, announced freight would be handled on rainy days only.

BOY HUNT IN CANYON TO BE GIVEN UP

Arizona Officials Now Think Child Kidnaped by Tourists in Auto Camp

GRAND CANYON (Ariz.) July 28. (AP)—Exploration of the Grand Canyon of the Colorado for a three-year-old boy who is believed to have fallen into its depths was abandoned today by 100 men and women who had been searching under the direction of the Sheriff and the County Attorney.

The boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milo Jaycox, disappeared from his home Saturday. Today County Attorney Frank Gold practically abandoned hope of immediately finding the child when he announced uncovering of evidence that the boy had been kidnaped by persons in a near-by tourist camp. He said a Grand Canyon ranchman had reported seeing the child wandering toward the camp Saturday morning.

A Mexican youth in the camp was taken into custody but released after being questioned.

SOVIET WARNED OF WAR THREAT

New Attacks Expected, Says Communist Leader

Military Bloc Declared to be Organizing

Russians Urged to Sound Alarm in Europe

MOSCOW, July 28. (AP)—Renewed warning of the threat of war was given today by Joseph Stalin, Communist party leader, in a lengthy declaration. After reviewing what he termed attacks on the soviet union, M. Stalin declared the union must expect new attacks in which conservatives may succeed in organizing a military bloc against the union.

"In preparation for this," he declared, "our aim must be to sound the alarm in all European capitalistic countries to arouse the workers and soldiers so that the latter may be prepared to meet attempts at provoking war with revolutionary weapons.

"We must stir up those who do not believe in the reality of the war threat and must stand fast by a policy of peace, despite the taunts and provocation of our enemies.

"We must clear the rear of high-born counter-revolutionaries and unhesitatingly employ the most drastic measures to that end."

In connection with the latter declaration M. Stalin referred to the protests by members of the British labor party against the recent execution of twenty persons by the soviet authorities as counter-revolutionaries.

He asserted that those who protested were worse than enemies because their action, although taken by professed sympathisers with the soviets, operated to strengthen the hands of the enemies of the union.

"Enemies must know by the shooting of these twenty princes and nobles that the Proletarian dictatorship is alive and its hand firm."

RATE LOW IN TYPHOID MORTALITY

California Ranks Seventh, According to Health Board Statistics

SACRAMENTO, July 28. (AP)—California with a typhoid mortality rate of 2.9 per 100,000 population during 1926 ranked seventh among the States in the Union reporting typhoid deaths, according to statistics gathered by the State Board of Health.

Preceding California in the honor list were Minnesota, 1.7; Massachusetts, 1.8; Wisconsin, 2; Connecticut, 2.5, Nebraska, and Vermont, with 2.8 each. Rhode Island was tied with California.

The highest rate reported, that of Louisiana with 94.2, compared with the death rate in California of 32.2 in 1906 when campaigns for elimination of serious typhoid epidemics were started.

The State Board of Health holds California's low mortality rate to be a remarkable accomplishment when consideration is given to the fact that this State depends largely upon surface streams for its public water supply. Surface streams and wells are easily contaminated and once contaminated are important factors in spreading epidemics.

TARDIEU DENIES DEBT INTERVIEW

PARIS, July 28. (AP)—Andre Tardieu, French High Commissioner to the United States during the World War, has categorically denied ever having given an interview which appeared in the Nation's Business and was widely published throughout the United States on the 26th inst., in which he was represented as saying that the Mellon-Berenger debt agreement was as good as "dead."

The denial was made through Havas, the French news agency, and other official sources.

"I oppose in a most formal denial the declarations attributed to me," M. Tardieu said.

(M. Tardieu in the interview in question was represented as having predicted that a new settlement would have to be negotiated if the French debt to the United States was to be finally liquidated and to have said that "no French government will ever take the responsibility of binding France for sixty-two years" of debt payments.)

STEAM ENGINE LOSING OUT

NEW YORK, July 28. (Exclusive) With electrification of the country's railways gaining steadily, the steam engine now is making its last stand, according to A. H. Armstrong, of General Electric Company's engineering staff.

He paints a startling picture of present railway inefficiency and points to the successful growth of lines which have been electrified, particularly in congested vicinities and suburban service.

"The railroads in the United States today," he says, "are wasting enough fuel on steam engines to pay interest charges on the cost of completely electrifying all the railroads in the United States.

"With operating expenses mounting to 63 per cent of revenue, inadequate equipment and congestion of trucks, what we need in addition to constructive legislation and real co-operation on the part of the government in the matter of rates and safeguarding invested capital, is wise direction in the expenditure of the large sums that must speedily be found and used to bring our railroads abreast of the times.

"Award full honor to the steam engine for the great part it has played in the development of our railways and industries, but complete the work by replacing it with the electric motor and enter upon a new era of real railroading, not restricted steam engine railroading."

Discussing motor truck competition for short hauls, he declared the steam railroads already have found it impossible to cut down the inroads on their business and that railroads must reckon with this business in the future to an extent not yet clearly defined.

At the same time the Secretary of State published an increase in the fee to become effective as to corporations filing papers to do business in this state. The fee is raised from $5 to $10 and the annual license tax increased from $2 to $3 for each $1,000,000 of capital stock.

DOEG DEFEATS DAVIS PLAYER

Watson Washburn Falls Before Santa Monica Star

Enters Semifinal Round of Metropolitan Play

Stanford Player Defeated by New Jersey Player

NEW YORK, July 28. (AP)—Tennis experience failed before the youth and power of 18-year-old John Doeg today and Watson Washburn bowed to the stalwart youngster from Santa Monica, Cal., in straight sets in the quarter-finals of the Metropolitan turf court tennis championships.

Doeg's sizzling serve and masterly court craft allowed the New York veteran only six games in the two sets which went to him at 6-4, 6-2. Again and again, especially in the second set, the lad who holds a place in the United States Davis Cup defense squad, scored clean service aces and sweeping overhand kills at the net over the skilled campaigner who helped defend the famous trophy against Japan in 1921.

Careless at first as he was in his previous matches here, Doeg steadied to mix the cautious with the spectacular. His bullet serves, bounding high, caught Washburn off balance time and time again. By winning, Doeg qualified for an acid test of his ability which will come in his semifinal match with Dr. George King of New York, tenth ranking player in the country, which is down on the program for Saturday.

Two others today fought their way into the semifinal round. Francis Hunter, New Rochelle, N. Y., was hard pressed to win from Clifford B. Marsh, Jr., of Buffalo, 4-6, 6-2, 6-1. Gregory Mangin, 19-year-old player from Newark, N. J., beat down the bid of Ralph McElvenny of Tacoma, Wash., Leland Stanford University player, and won the coveted bracket by 7-5, 6-3.

GAELIC GRID TEAMS CLASH

CHICAGO, July 28. (AP)—The Gaelic football championship will be decided in the United States for the first time when the all-star squad of New York meets the pick of the West here next Sunday. In addition to the title and trophies, the winning squad will be awarded a trip to the next tail-team games at Dublin next year.

DONALD SIGNS BATTLERS FOR WRIGLEY FIELD GO

Local Boy to Defend Junior Welter Title August 29; Promoter Plans Second Card

BY PAUL LOWRY

Mushy Callahan will defend his junior welterweight title against Sergt. Sammy Baker at Wrigley Field August 29. The match was signed yesterday by Promoter Dick Donald and culminates a two-day conference between the principals and their managers.

Callahan was technically stopped by Baker in nine rounds at Chicago just as Hudkins lost to Baker at New York in seven rounds, but the junior welter king believes he can reverse the verdict at Wrigley Field just as Hudkins did last Monday night.

Although Baker weighed 145 1-4 pounds for the Hudkins match the former's manager, Steve Webber, says he can make 140 pounds without difficulty and with this end in view he will take his charge to the Ojai camp where Dempsey trained, this morning.

LOOK FOR MOB

Donald considers the Baker-Callahan match another fistic natural, and while he doesn't expect to play as large a "gate" as the Hudkins-Baker match drew he confidently expects the match will draw in the neighborhood of $40,000 to $50,000.

In the meantime Donald may stage a program two weeks hence, putting on three ten-round main events, he said yesterday.

These would feature Stanislaus

SACRAMENTO, July 28. (Exclusive) Passing Johnny Frederick to get at Mickey Heath proved disastrous for Ed Keating and Sacramento today, for Heath swatted out a double that scored Frederick and Twombly with two runs that gave Hollywood a 4-to-2 victory.

The triumph gave the Stars a 3-to-1 game lead in the long series, and established their grasp on sixth place in the league.

LE STARTS OVERTURES FOR "OPEN" TITLE TENNIS TOURNEY

(Miami), July 28. (AP)—The first step in a ring of peace by amateur and professional tennis interests were discerned today in the announcement that Charles C. Pyle, versatile promoter, was negotiating for the use of the West Side Club's stadium at Forest Hills, famous amateur stronghold, for a world's professional tennis championship tournament late in September.

Pyle also disclosed plans of somewhat nebulous character for an "open tennis tournament," to which amateurs and "pros," alike would be invited. This, he said would be handled by Vincent Richards, former Davis Cup star persuaded to join Pyle's traveling professional troupe last winter. It probably would be staged, Pyle said, at the Crescent Athletic Club, Brooklyn, where the metropolitan amateur tournament now is being held.

Negotiations for the use of the West Side stadium have progressed to such a stage that a committee of club members has been appointed to take up the matter with Pyle. The proposal is to conduct the event the third or fourth week in September, after the national amateur singles championship there. It is Pyle's idea to bring the foremost European professionals and James O.

TEX RICKARD HAS BIG CONFAB WITH BIG REPRESENTATIVE OF BIG MEN OVER BIG BOUT SITE

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER

CHICAGO, July 28.—The big plum of the prize-fight profession still hovers, as you might say, like a pendulum, torn between conflicting fires. The famous committee of big men of Chicago today sent George F. Getz, a representative big man, to meet Tex Rickard on his arrival from New York and he spent the rest of the day conferring diligently on the proposition of holding the Dempsey-Tunney fight here on September 15.

MEMORIES OF OLD

Yet, even as he conferred, Rickard was receiving telegrams from New York reminding him of his duty toward the metropolis and intimating that if the Messrs. Dempsey and Tunney should fight anywhere else, New York would become extinct. This sort of appeal touched Rickard very deeply, you may be sure, because it reminds him of the helpful co-operation that he received from the city of New York when he went there to promote his first show, the Willard-Moran match, back in 1915, when the prize-fighting commission and the big men did everything but burn down his arean on him. It also revives tender memories of last fall, when the New York prize-fight commission co-operated with such loving sincerity that he was compelled to go to Philadelphia to hold his performance.

But there seems to be no sentiment in the prize-fight profession and if

SERAPHS SCALPED TWICE

BY BOB RAY

"Radiant Red" Killefer's rampant Seattle Indians scalped the lowly Angels twice in the same place yesterday at Wrigley Field, the Tribe carrying off both games of the bargain bill by scores of 10 to 2 and 2 to 0.

The Indians made a massacre out of the opener, pounding Bruce Cunningham and Al Smith for sixteen hits while Kyle Graham was holding the Seraph sluggers in check, but Ed Brandt had to pitch his best to get the Tribe a decision over Tex Weathersby's in the seven-inning nightcap. Both Brandt and Weathersby allowed seven hits, but the Indians were a bit more fortunate in making theirs count.

Puzzy Hufft, the Suds' slugging right-fielder, made six successive hits in the two contests, but the hit he made with the kids in the right-field bleachers was a bigger one. Puzzy caught flies for the third out in both games and then heaved the balls into the bleachers among the kids, which was something new and different for them this season. Hufft's six hits in a row started on his first time at bat in the opener when he hit a home run. Four singles followed in the first game and then Puzzy doubled in his first time at bat in the nightcap, but Jahn caught his loft to left to end Hufft's streak on the seventh attempt.

By winning both of yesterday's contests, the Indians gained a full game on the league-leading Oaks, cutting the space between them to two and a half games.

Seattle got off to a two-run start in the opener when Purdy doubled and Hufft homed into the right-field stands in the first inning.

Cunningham was given another blasting in the fourth when four hits were bunched with a couple of walks to give the Indians five more runs and sew up the struggle. Sheriock led off with a double to center and

FIND FREDDY WELSH DEAD

Former Lightweight Champion Expires in Hotel; Colorful Boxer Dies Destitute

NEW YORK, July 28. (AP)—Freddy Welsh, former lightweight champion of the world, died today in a West Side Hotel, his once splendid body a flabby wreck and his once fat purse quite empty.

A maid venturing into his room to tidy it, found the body of one of the prize ring's greatest stylists lying on the floor clad in flowered pajamas. Near an outstretched hand that once shot through space in his opponents' jowls lay Freddy's sole companion in death, the book, "Elbert Hubbard of East Aurora." On an opened page, well thumbed, was the apopothem: "Get your happiness out of your work, or you will never know what happiness is."

GRANTS ANNEX

CHICAGO, July 28. (AP)—The Giants forced the Cubs to yield again today by 6 to 5 before 20,000 fans, thereby blasting temporarily Chicago's hopes to go into a tie for first place as the Pirates went under to the Robins. The Bruins remain a full game behind the pace makers.

Rogers Hornsby, acting manager of New York in the absence of John McGraw who is hunting ivory, whacked a triple to start off a three-run rally in the sixth and then put the game away with his seventeenth homer of the season, scoring behind Ott in the seventh.

The Cubs threatened in the eighth but Leslie Mann made a fine throw to the plate which nailed Hartnett with what would have been the tying run. Score:

RABBIT PUNCHES

By PAUL LOWRY

THE return of Mister Robert Tyre Jones to these, his native, shores from England this week brings to mind the fact that he has settled one question and made a complete job of it. While there may have been better fighters and better football players in the old days than there are in the present era, the subject at least leaving room for dispute, there never was anybody within nibblick shot and two American miles of the Atlanta lad.

At the age of 25 he has established a record that no golfer in history has even approached. His score of 285 at St. Andrews set a record for both British and United States open championships. He was ten strokes better than any previous winner over the historic St. Andrews course. He was the first player, amateur or professional, to win the British open two years in a row since James Braid performed the same feat back in 1905 and 1906. He is the only American amateur ever to win the British open, and he has won it twice in succession. And he is the only man in the history of golf who held, as Jones did, a year ago, the United States amateur, and the United States open and the British open titles at one and the same time.

Instead of a second Helen Wills the tennis experts may soon be calling her just Helen Jacobs and letting it go at that. For the second Helen reared in Berkeley swept through our national woman's champion, Molla Mallory, the other day with as much gusto as did Helen Wills at Beckenham, Eng., earlier in the year.

The clash of the Helens in the finals of the Manchester (N. H.) tourney today will indicate whether the 18-year-old high school girl has developed to a point where she can cope successfully with the university girl who won national honors in 1925 and international honors at Wimbledon this year. Helen Wills beat Molla Mallory, 6-0, 6-1, in England. Helen Jacobs beat Mrs. Mallory, 6-0, -0-3, the other day. Whatever the outcome of the Wills-Jacobs match the indications are clear that the Berkeley Helens will retrieve and guard well the national honors worn by other California girls in the past—May Sutton, Hazel Hotchkiss and Mary Browne. This State has turned out more outstanding women players than any other in the Union and between them the two Helens should keep the leading titles where they belong.

The indications are pretty strong that Tex Rickard is considering no other place in the world than Chicago as the site of the Tunney-Dempsey battle for the heavyweight title next September. In all probability Tex feels that he needs some new scenery for his next grand ballyhoo act, and when he turned down Prexy Stoneham with his offer of the Polo Grounds for the arena he tipped his mitt.

Tex is always looking for new grounds to conquer. He doesn't believe in milking any one locality dry. A big "shot" in New York is going to spoil his fall program at Madison Square Garden. That's why he went to Philadelphia last summer, why he will go to Chicago this summer and maybe he'll come to Los Angeles next year. Don't kid yourself this city isn't ripe for a heavyweight gigantic. When a Hudkins-Baker fight with no title of any kind attached and at a five-buck top can draw over $93,000 you can make your own guesses as to what a heavyweight title match will draw.

SEALS RALLY TO WIN OVER PORTLAND, 5-3

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28. (AP)—A timely rally in the second inning gave the Seals three runs off four hits and they shoved across two more in the seventh to defeat Portland today, 5 to 3. Prothro, third baseman, accounted for two of the visiting team's runs when he hit a home run in the second frame. Earl Kuns pitched the entire game for the San Francisco club, making two hits and scoring one run. The score:

STRONG IS READY FOR COLIMA GO

Omaha Battler All Set for Bout With Mexican at Olympic Tuesday

Everett Strong has probably changed as much as a fighter in the last year as Jack Dempsey did during the eight years he held the heavyweight title. Strong has pulled uphill, while Dempsey has gone the other way some distance.

When Strong came here from Omaha he was a shy young fellow. He let Billy Uvick do most or all of the talking.

"Why, I'll knock this fellow Colima out inside seven rounds," said Strong in his dressing-room yesterday. "I wanted to get a return match with Colima more than with anybody on the coast. Colima is the type of fighter who makes me look good."

Dutch Meyers says that Strong is all wrong in his prediction.

"The fight won't go seven rounds, because Colima will knock Strong out in four rounds as sure as he's the father of a seven-pound girl," says the Dutchman.

"Strong is a good boy, but he's made to order for Bert. He moves just fast enough to get in the way of punches."

Strong and Colima headline a double main event at the Olympic Tuesday night. Paul DeHate and Herman Auersbach clash in the second ten.

Spring-street critics say that DeHate and Auerbach will stage another Hudkins-Baker battle. Both are right-hand punchers and neither cares much about protection. They give and take until their strength gives out.

Auerbach and DeHate will be required to post weight forfeits to do 150 pounds. This poundage is easy for DeHate, but Auerbach is heavier.

Danny Kramer will probably go in the ring the favorite over Bobby Fernandez, the Mexican featherweight champion, because Fernandez has never showed here. But if Fernandez can be judged by his scrapbook he may stop the clever Philadelphian.

Dempsey will be a guest of Promoter Jack Doyle at the show and will be introduced.

CALLAHAN BAKER GO ARRANGED

Fields and his manager, Gig Rooney, returned home Thursday night after a three-months stay in New York.

The Fields-McLarnin match has always been hot since McLarnin knocked out Fields two years ago, and Donald considers this a tid-bit in addition to the other two bouts mentioned.

The date for the trio of main shots Donald has outlined was announced as August 15.

SETTLE TERMS

The matter holding up the signing of the Baker-Callahan match for a couple of days was an argument over terms. Callahan, as the junior welter champ, wanted more money than Baker while the latter insisted his knockout of Callahan entitled him to a greater percentage.

Donald settled the dispute by giving each 27 1-2 per cent of the gate receipts.

Baker weighed 143 pounds two days before his bout with Hudkins, and built up before the match, so it is believed he will have no difficulty in making the 140-pound limit. However, the Callahan adherents believe the weight-making will give their favorite an edge.

OAKS SPLIT TWIN BILL WITH BELLS

OAKLAND, July 28. (AP)—Oakland and the San Francisco Missions split a double-header here today, the Oaks winning the first game, 4 to 2, when Lefty Sparks held the visitors to six hits. He was assisted by brilliant fielding on the part of Reese, second base, and Lary, shortstop. Reese took part in five double plays. Lary drove in two runs with a single and triple. Ed Rose, outfielder, was the hero of the second game which the Missions won, 3 to 2. His team was trailing, 2 to 0, in the sixth inning when he hit a home run over the right-field fence with two men on bases. The score:

SELL MOVIES OF BIG BOUT

NEW YORK, July 28. (AP)—Motion pictures of the Dempsey-Sharkey fight are being sold by mail for home projection for the first time. Advertisements disclosing this today also aroused question as to whether they were being shipped to out-of-the-State buyers in violation of the Federal statute prohibiting shipment of movies of prize fights from one State to another. But it is all very simple.

To buyers outside New York State, films are shipped which show everything but the actual fight action. They show training scenes and carry the fighters into the ring, then a close-up of Dempsey's hand raised in token of victory, thus avoiding technical violation of the law. To purchasers in New York, the complete action of the battle is shown.

TRIBE SCALPS ANGELS TWICE

Kimmick walked after Ellsworth had been retired, Sherlock stealing third on the fourth ball. Schmidt fouled to Krug, but Graham aided his own cause with a single to center that scored Sherlock and sent Kimmick to third. Purdy walked and then Brady's double and Huff's single followed to make it five runs for the round.

Smith was hurling when the fifth started and the Tribe nicked the Gnu Yawk governor's namesake for runs in the sixth, seventh and eighth innings to run their total to ten.

ONE BAD INNING

Graham had only one bad inning, the Angels getting to the lanky Tribe twirler for their two scores in the sixth. Singles by Sandberg, Krug and Staley, followed by Art Jahn's double with the sacks full, accounted for the Cherub run-making for the day. The double was Jahn's thirty-ninth of the season and further increased his league lead in the art of banging two-baggers.

The Indians got to Weathersby for their first run of the night-cap in the third inning, which Cliff Brady opened by slapping a single to left. A passed ball advanced Brady to second and Eldred's infield out put the Sud second-sacker on third. Whereupon, Jack Sherlock dribbled a hit over second and Brady bounced over the plate.

Pid Purdy scored the other Seattle marker in the fifth when he tripled against the right-field screen and came home on Brady's Texas leaguer double to short right.

The Angels got a runner as far as third in the seventh when Cox walked and Hannah singled to right after Norgren had fanned, but Brandt retired Pinch-Hitter Sandberg on a foul fly to Sherlock and got rid of Brazill on a loft to Huff that ended the contest.

Brandt struck out six Seraphs, while Weathersby whiffed four, the Seattle hurler fanning three times at Tex's southpaw slants. One more today and then there'll be double-headers tomorrow and Sunday. Score:

Hughes Stars at Brentwood

DEFEATS JUNIOR CHAMPION, 1 UP

Bachelder Trims Coleman in Sensational Match

Bourne Drops Cornes After Perfect Play

Consolation Round to Draw Contestants Today

BY BILL WISE

Howard Hughes, slender Rancho ace, who merited the warmest rays coast by fame's spotlight over invitational golfers at Brentwood Wednesday, literally bathed in the flittering calcium yesterday when he defeated Lesley Hensley, California junior champ, in one of the feature second-round title flight matches of the tournament, being sponsored by the Santa Monica institution.

HOWARD HUGHES.

Hughes traveled twenty holes to win from A. T. Jergins in a first round match and again finished within a stroke or two of par to defeat one of the most promising youngsters in Southern California golf. H. K. Bachelder (Golfing Wild Kitten) from La Cumbre, likewise clawed his way to a 1-up decision in a sensational eighteen-hole clash with Lester Coleman of California, second representative junior to drop out of the Brentwood play yesterday.

"Batch" finished with an approximate 73—and a 73 over the lengthy Brentwood layout should win just about any form of golfing competition. Chuck Ward of Brentwood won from Herman (Laddie) Hellman, 4 and 3, in one of the real upsets of the week. The rangy Hillcrest youngster could not get going fast enough to crash through the home club golfer, who excelled on the greens.

Russell (Buddy) Thompson and Warren Newmark staged a real golfing battle royal before the former, planting the Oakmont executheson one notch higher in the invitational dropped a screaming birdie 3 on eighteen to win the match, 2 up. Newmark is another local youth who will bear watching.

Youth, while losing several major tilts yesterday, continued to enliven the current competition as exemplified by Warren Johnson of the Los Angeles club, who defeated Henry W. Kirby, Brentwood veteran, 4 and 3. Ray Stockberger of Oakmont has cut a fourteen handicap to six during the past three months and was just good enough yesterday to defeat Ralph Dold of Lakeside, 1 up, after twenty hectic holes.

The greatest thrill of the day came with the A. K. Bourne-George Cornes match. The distinguished Pasadena veteran, stroking Brentwood in near-perfect fashion, defeated Cornes, 2 and 1, but not before the good-looking Lakeside druggist had searched vainly in his bag for birdies necessary to change the final result of the worth-while exhibition.

Second-round matches in seven lower brackets developed some of the best competition of the season, and while the golfing drive for invitational silverware tightened up yesterday, the third-round clashes scheduled for today will be the best ever.

Contestants defeated in first-round matches and nonqualifiers, will be eligible to play in the eighteen-hole medal consolation round today. Enough representative amateurs dropped out of the first-match competition to insure record scoring in the added feature today and the affair will also afford scores for their last competitive glimpse of the Brentwood layout, before the two-ball mixed foursome affair Sunday.

Second-round results yesterday were as follows:

BRENTWOOD FLIGHT

Les Pendergrass defeated Julian Hayward, 6 and 5.
H. K. Bachelder defeated Lester Coleman, 1 up.
Chuck Ward defeated Herman Hellman, 4 and 3.
H. K. Bachelder defeated Les Pendergrass, 1 up.
Buddy Thompson defeated Warren Newmark, 2 up.
Warren Johnson defeated Henry Kirby, 6 and 5.
Ray Stockberger defeated Ralph Dold, 1 up 20th.

Dempsey Feted by Friends at Breakfast Club

A group of about 600 sportsmen and local celebrities gathered at the Breakfast Club last night to pay homage to Jack Dempsey, ex-heavyweight champion of the world, who recently successfully started a comeback by knocking out Jack Sharkey in New York.

Dempsey was presented with a set of golf clubs by the Breakfast Club, of which Maurice De Mond is president, and was also given the colors worn by John L. Sullivan in his fight with Charley Mitchell at Chantilly, France, back in 1888. W. R. Bingham, an admirer of Dempsey's from Pasadena, gave Jack the colors.

Among the prominent speakers were Jack Doyle, John D. Mott, Jim Woods, O. O. McIntyre and Francis Patrick Shanley.

Dempsey, in a short talk, thanked those present for their welcoming reception and said that he hoped he would be successful in bringing back the championship after his bout with Gene Tunney next September.

VON ELM GOES EAST TOMORROW

George Von Elm, national amateur golf champ, leaves for the East tomorrow and will go into intensive training for the defense of his golf crown in the thirty-first renewal of the annual classic, scheduled for the Minikahda (Minneapolis) Club, August 22, next. It should interest Mr. R. Tyre (Bobby) Jones — and other representative challengers, to know that during his last twelve rounds over the north course of the Los Angeles Country Club, Mr. George (Jix) Von Elm has scored better than 70—which is record golf over any layout in the country.

FREDDY WELSH DIES IN HOTEL

death to heart failure. The fighter's widow, Grahna Welsh, left her work as housekeeper at another hotel near by and between sobs told the story of Freddy's last days.

"It was his heart that killed him, all right," Mrs. Welsh said. "It was broken. When Freddy had money any friend could get it from him. When he was strapped they did not know him. He died without a cent to his name. He recently hocked two of his belts, valued at $1000."

"Only last week," the widow went on, grimly drying her eyes, "Jack Dempsey, whom Freddy defended when he was called a slacker, was in town, and he wouldn't even come to see Freddy. Freddy was sick, and he wrote Dempsey a letter asking Jack to just stop in and say hello. Freddy never even got an answer to that letter."

Although Freddy retired from the ring some years ago, he fought his last fight about ten days ago, when, in the semidarkness of a West Side street near the hotel where he died, the former champion "took on" an acquaintance. Nothing was known of the fight until Freddy showed up in a police court the next morning to answer a disorderly conduct charge. The "little dancing master," as he was called, had a black eye, but he gamely explained to the magistrate that he had just been in a friendly bout with a friend and was discharged.

Welsh, whose real name was Fred Hall Thomas, was born in Pontypridd, Wales, March 6, 1886. He came to the United States before the war and made this country his home. He won the lightweight crown from Willie Ritchie July 7, 1914, in a furious twenty-round battle in London. He lost his title to Benny Leonard in New York May 24, 1917, being stopped in the ninth round. The battering he took from Leonard was conceded to have started Welsh on a downward path.

During the war Freddy was a camp boxing instructor, and after the war he did reconstruction work at Walter Reed Hospital, Washington. He was a reserve corps captain. For some time after his retirement from the ring Welsh operated a conditioning farm at Summit, N. J., but his wife explained that he had neglected this while doing army work, with the result that he lost it. He is survived by his widow and two children, Betty, 13 years of age, and Freddy, Jr., 11.

PYLE PLANNING COURT TOURNEY

Anderson, Australian ace, who turned "pro" recently, here to compete with Richards, Harvey Snodgrass, Howard Kinsey, Walter Wesbrook and other Americans.

The United States Lawn Tennis Association, ruling amateur body, is understood to consider Pyle's move to obtain the Forest Hills stadium as a club affair and not a matter involving any tennis policies.

Nevertheless, due to the presence of influential association officials in the club membership, favorable action toward Pyle would be interpreted as a move for peace between rival interests.

In so far as the "open" tournament is concerned the U.S.L.T.A. has adopted an attitude of "crossing that bridge when we come to it."

"If a sufficient number of amateurs enter the tournament, I do not see how the association can avoid sanctioning the event," Pyle said today.

NEIL CLISBY KNOCKS OUT HOUSE IN FIRST

Neil Clisby knocked out Mack House in the first round of their rematch main event at the Pasadena Armory last night, the end coming after a minute and eleven seconds when Clisby landed his right on House's chin. Clisby took three rounds to stop House in their first go but made it even more decisive last night. The pair are colored heavyweights.

In the other bouts Jimmy Black defeated Ralph Lincoln in six rounds; Tete Saddaveria defeated Walter Beck in four rounds; Jimmy Harrison knocked out Bradley St. Charles in the fourth, and Red Atkinson won a four-round verdict over Willie O'Connor.

COTTRELL WILL TACKLE ADAMS

Welterweights Top Legion Bout Program Tonight

Winner of Semi-Wind-up to Meet Willie Ritchie

JOHNNY ADAMS.

When it comes to giving the fight fan a run for his money there isn't any better than Johnny Adams. The king of all the drawing cards in the fight racket is here in Jack Dempsey. None ever lived who can be compared to Dempsey. The best drawing card in local fight circles is Ace Hudkins and next to him comes Adams.

The Hollywood fans always turn out to see Johnny fight because he makes his opponents battle or jump out of the ring. The best fight Paul DeHate ever made in his life was against Adams and it was Johnny who forced the fighting all the way. Though he beat DeHate, the fast pace set by the San Berdoo boy was the reason for the sensational fight.

Sergt. Sammy Baker isn't as good a drawing card in New York as he is right here in this city. The biggest money he ever made in his life was for fighting Ace Hudkins. Baker knows where the pickings is good and wants to do all of his fighting right here in this burg. Adams wants to fight Baker and should he win tonight it is hard to see how he can be kept from meeting the Sergeant.

There isn't any great reason why Adams should beat Cottrell. Jimmy is the better boxer and will surely win the first few rounds of the bout. He may tire after the sixth and that is where Adams has his big chance to cop. If Cottrell's strength holds up he can hardly get worse than a draw.

Two more fights on the card make it one of those Hollywood specials where the house is lacked and everyone goes home declaring they saw a wonderful show. Willie Ritchie fights the winner of the semi-wind-up. Bobby La Salle should beat Georgie Gordon here. Ritchie meets the winner next week. Young Carreon, a Filipino has been made a favorite over Young Magdaleno.

Reception for Jones Planned by Atlantans

NEW YORK, July 28. (AP)—New York's reception to "Bobby" Jones, returning to America on the Aquitania tomorrow after winning the British open golf championship for the second consecutive time, will be primarily an Atlantan affair.

At the request of a committee of Jones's "home towners" from Atlanta, Ga., Mayor Walker today cancelled New York's plan to have him officially met at quarantine by Commissioner of Public Works Joseph Johnson, also a native Atlantan, aboard the Mayor's tug, Macom. Instead, Johnson will join the "home town" delegation at the pier, when the Aquitania docks in the North River.

Jones will be taken from the pier to the headquarters of the delegation at the Vanderbilt Hotel, where he will be the guest of honor at a dinner in the evening. Under the original plan, the Macom was to bring him to the Battery, thence he was to be driven up Broadway to City Hall to be greeted by the Mayor.

HELP FOR FLOOD SCHOOLS URGED

Education Association Asks Aid of Congress

Twenty-four Demolished in Missouri Alone

Data Urged to Give Data Showing Needs

WASHINGTON, July 28. (AP)—The National Education Association today launched a movement to urge Congress to grant Federal aid in the reconstruction of schools destroyed by the Mississippi flood.

In an appeal to secretaries of the state associations affiliated with the national organization, J. W. Crabtree, national secretary, advocated that the representatives in Congress of the United States be asked to support the plan. In the letter Mr. Crabtree pointed out that in eight Missouri counties alone in the flood-stricken area damage to school buildings was more than $168,500, and twenty-four school houses have been totally destroyed.

The association's secretary said the reconstruction of the schools was important so that the children in the stricken areas may return to their studies as soon as possible. He requested the State secretaries in the flood region to compile similar data in every inundated county of the valley. Mississippi Valley States. This data, he added, so the damage total can be presented in complete form to the next session of Congress.

Certain London hospitals have found that patients confined in rooms decorated in green, yellow or blue recover several days quicker than those in rooms of other colors.

PACIFIC PARLEY SPECTER RISES

Immigration of Japanese Features Debate

Orientals Resent Methods Used in Exclusion

Let Sleeping Dogs Slumber, Says One Speaker

HONOLULU, July 28. (AP)—The immigration specter arose between the East and West again yesterday as delegates to the Institute of Pacific Relations here discussed the problem of disposing of surplus populations.

Discussing the question of whether international machinery has any place in the regulation of immigration, Akira Ishii of Japan insisted in a statement that "Japan does not demand the privilege of sending its surplus population to America but resents openly the offensive manner in which the 'gentlemen's agreement' was abrogated by the United States."

"Some such friendly gesture as a 'system' would go a long way toward making Japan feel comfortable," he said.

Bunji Suzuki declared organized labor of Japan shared the feeling expressed by Ishii. He emphasized that labor does not believe in the inferiority of the Japanese.

SUGGESTS COMMISSION

Jerome Green, United States delegate, urged that the situation between Japan and the United States be dealt with in conference. Galen M. Fisher, another American delegate, suggested an international immigration commission was feasible.

James D. Dole, Hawaii representative, issued the following statement:

"As far as the American-Japanese difference goes it is best to let the matter sleep for the time being. Agitation now by a commission would only involve trouble. More can be done by unofficial meetings."

"Diplomats have filled the Pacific Slope with Asiatics," said Paul Scharrenberg, San Francisco labor leader. "In the early days of the United States they should have taken steps to prevent the influx of orientals. Why this unfortunate law against the Japanese? Because the citizens of the United States told the diplomats that the gentlemen's agreement was no good. I wish there was a way out. I wish the missionaries had not worked so hard to aggravate the situation. We have documentary proof that Japanese members of Christian congregations have been asked by missionaries if they did not resent the exclusion law.

LOPSIDED BROTHERHOOD

"I believe the brotherhood of man here in Hawaii is lopsided. The average wage of oriental mechanics is $3 to $5 a day and for whites $5 to $10. We are working hard to prevent a duplication of that on the Coast. I am sorry we have had to be unpleasant at times to do it."

T. Surumi of Japan declared no Japanese questioned the right of the United States to pass the exclusion law, and the issue was not that of sending immigrants to America, but the manner in which the gentlemen's agreement was abolished.

"I do not believe in waking sleeping dogs," he said. "The heart of Japan is right and we understand the United States' difficulties. We are not asking the United States to act at once. We have patience. We can wait with dignity for the culmination of the American spirit of fair play."

Webb Decides on Balances in School Funds

SACRAMENTO, July 28. (AP)—Virtually all balances in school funds, except that in the building funds, are subject to reapportionment by the county superintendents at the end of a school year which has run less than eight months. This in brief is the opinion forwarded to the District Attorney of Imperial county on points raised by officials there.

The school building funds are raised for special purposes Atty.-Gen. Webb holds, an dca nbe used for no others. If a balance exists at the end of one year it is to be carried over to the next.

Support funds carried over for schools not maintained eight months are subject to reapportionment, while for those schools in session more than eight months the balances may be used to pay any outstanding claims. Provision, however, is made that all of the State and 60 per cent of the county money given to the schools must be retained to pay the salary of teachers.

"Times" Daily Short Story

FATHERS - - By FANNIE HURST

A STRANGE and AWKWARD term is FATHER LOVE!
Yet fathers do love. Passionately and deeply. But they don't talk about it. IT ISN'T DONE.
So they gain the reputation of brusqueness.
While mother jovingly agrees to give the children what they want, father sits grimly by, unable to say no gracefully. But he COMES ACROSS. He pays the bills. And he glories in providing for his children the best that he can.
Fathers who say no through a yearning to say yes. Fathers who TOIL THAT THEIR CHILDREN MAY REAP. Fathers who must never weep, who must never weaken.
Fathers who must always be HE-FATHERS!
Whose history is one of SACRIFICE, LOVE, PRIDE, SILENCE.

...this tale is of you, for you that is true.

...do you wear your heart on your sleeves. You are much silent lot, you fathers. We have a great deal about mothers. ...ve. It is a warm, voluptuous thing that warms the world like a sun. But what a strange, awkward term is father-love. One feels self-subduing at just the saying of it. Father-love.

...course, fathers do love. We all know that. Deeply. Hurtingly. Even achingly. But one just doesn't talk about it. Who ever heard of a he-man letting his grown son's head rest on his shirt-front for a heart-to-heart talk? It just isn't done.

Fathers and sons. Man to man. There are certain things, and too often they are the close, real vital things that matter, that a father can not bring himself to discuss with his son. Why? Oh, hang it all, there's no reason, except that it just isn't done!

Father and daughter. Bless her, his heart crowds up close to his tonsils as he regards her, his Helen, singing there in the glow of the piano-lamp. He wants to know her, closely, deeply. The way her mother seems to. It hurts to feel her life so close to his and yet so strangely, so remotely away from his. Her secret hopes. Desires. Pains. Sorrows. Heartaches. The long, whispered, after-the-party conferences with her mother. What is in his girl Helen's heart? He wants to take her in his arms the way mother does and feel her warm bright head beneath his chin and know the secrets of this flesh of his flesh.

But he doesn't. He reads his evening paper and says brusque, man-to-man things to his son and acts offish when his daughter's escort calls to take her to the theater and absolutely puts his foot down on those callow-faced college youngsters twanging the ukulele down in the parlor with Luella, aged seventeen, when she should be doing her algebra.

Poor father. He hasn't a very popular way with him about the house. He is all don'ts. Bills, stacks of them, from rump-roasts to steel shoe-buckles, have managed to dig a furrow as deep as a trench between his eyes. Not one member of the family has any conception of what it means to keep three, up-to-the-minute youngsters and a doting, indulgent mother going in the style to which they have been accustomed.

Father isn't always a silent martyr about it, but in the end he comes across. Handsomely. Frank had the first chummy roadster in town. Helen wanted Vassar and Vassar it was. And now Luella, with her adorable, little girl eyes fastened on a fashionable finishing school in Switzerland! Switzerland it will be, but father somehow can not be anything but brusque and reluctant about it. It is mother, whose eyes seem always a little moist with wanting things for her children, who has to manipulate father into conceding. Father, whose heart is twisting with his love of Luella, and her wide little-girl eyes, somehow just can not say yes gracefully. So it is mother who must wind her arms about him and kiss the thinning top of his head, and Luella, with her lovely young lips trembling, sits angry and ready to cry in the corner of the room that is farthest from father.

The fathers who haven't ever quite dared tell their sons their hurting, bursting pity for their shortcomings.

The fathers who have wanted so secretly and so ashamedly to creep into their daughter's hearts and know what is there.

The fathers who toil that their children may reap. Who toil and are a little brusque with toil. Who are rough with toil and ashamed of being rough. The fathers who must never weep and who must never weaken. Who must always be he-fathers.

The grief of a father. The love, the hurt, the pride of a father. All of these emotions must be muted.

Mother-love is open and unashamed. The early Italians caught and glorified it in the eyes of their Madonnas. A mother can love brazenly and with her bursting heart shamelessly on her sleeve.

It is a world phenomenon. Mother-love. In its name women have bared their breasts to die. Bartered. Sacrificed. Bled. It is the golden emotion upon which rests the purest of human relations. Mother and child.

Who shall say this is not true of father-love? Granted, the mother is the chalice which carries the child up to the hour of its birth. It has rested literally under her heart beat. There are aspects of maternity, ligament-twisting agony, about which, mercifully, a father can know little. But deeply and fundamentally the major emotions of parenthood are his.

Fathers as fathers can not be said to have been found wanting.

It is a silence that has been created by the inhibition of the male.

To sentimentalize is womanish.

Thou shalt not love, pity, or exalt thy children, except in the innermost recesses of the heart.

That is the he-man way of doing it.

That is to be a father.

Fathers, hurting with these repressions, this is to salute you!

In all your rather mute history you have not been found wanting. You have only been found silent and a little brusque.

The brusqueness, bless you, of love, swelling against the walls of your heart, hurting there, and wanting to come out.

United States Releases Mexico Arms Shipment

MEXICO CITY, July 28. (AP)—A shipment of arms bought in Germany by Mexico and detained at New York while in transit under orders of the American government has been released, says Excelsior. The newspaper adds that hereafter unrestricted transit through the United States will be allowed merchandise shipped to Mexico provided there is a permit stating the nature of the goods.

The belief was expressed here today that President Calles will cancel his recent decree instructing governmental departments to purchase goods, where possible in Mexico, rather than in the United States.

At the time President Calles's decree was issued, it was explained by the Foreign Office in an official statement that it was not a boycott against American goods, the departments being ordered merely to buy in Mexico without considering whether the goods were American or not.

NEW TAX SLASH PLAN OUTLINED

Corporation Levy to Receive Main Reduction

Cuts of 1 to 2 Per Cent Loom in Next Session

Assessment on Autos Also May be Lowered

RAPID CITY (S. D.) July 28. (AP)—A slash of 1 or 2 per cent in the corporation tax seems destined to form the keystone of the prospective tax-reduction program.

Administration leaders who have conferred here with President Coolidge have put this move down as one of the first to be considered in the tax-cutting planned for next session. Some Democratic leaders favored such a reduction last session and so concerted action on this point, at least, appears probable.

AUTO TAX CUT FAVORED

Other points which seem likely to gain administration favor include repeal of the remaining war "nuisance" levies, including those on theater admissions and club dues. However, a row is impending on elimination of the automobile passenger car tax. Republicans who have come here have indorsed a cut in this tax now amounting to 3 per cent, but none has gone on record for its repeal.

The drum fire of politics sounded almost within earshot of the President here today when his friend, Sam McKelvie, former Governor of Nebraska, assailed some of the farm relief policies of Frank O. Lowden, who has been mentioned as a candidate for the Republican Presidential nomination.

Mr. McKelvie, who is publisher of a farm paper and who has supported the President in his veto of the McNary-Haugen farm bill, declared the policies of Mr. Lowden on agricultural relief embodied the ideas of "political farmers." He spoke before the Rapid City Rotary Club.

WILL REVIEW INDIANS

"What the farmer wants and all he wants," Mr. McKelvie declared, "is such assistance and encouragement as the government can give him to help himself. I can see the possibility, aye, the probability, of a system of co-operative commodity marketing fostered by the government under which the farmer may retain his independence and initiative while working out his problems to best advantage of all."

Mr. McKelvie had been a guest at the summer White House and last Saturday Mr. Coolidge visited him at his summer home near here on one of the few trips he has made since entering the White House to the home of an individual.

Mr. Coolidge added another engagement to his summer calendar today in accepting the invitation of Representative Williamson of this district to visit the Pine Ridge Indian Reservation directly south of here, near the State line, August 17, next.

The day has been set aside by the Sioux tribes and about 10,000 Indians from the five reservations hereabouts are expected to take part in the parade which the President will review in his two-hour visit.

LIFE UNBEARABLE FOR MAN WITH SORE ITCHING HANDS

Healed at last easily and quickly

Brooklyn, N. Y., July 28:—"For months all my fingers on both hands were covered with red, itching sores. They frequently gave out a watery fluid, and that, together with the terrible itching, made life almost unbearable. As my business necessitated having my hands in water a great deal, the suffering was made even worse. Doctors diagnosed my case as chronic eczema, but none of the prescribed salves helped me. Finally I began to use Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap. Now, after using two jars of this Ointment I am glad to say I am rid of my skin trouble and my hands are perfectly clear."—(Signed) J. El Doctor Garfield Preconiza el Sistema de Conferencias

WILLIAMSTOWN (Massachusetts) Julio 28.—La amistad internacional y la buena inteligencia son cosas que pueden promover los ciudadanos ilustrados, sin recurrir a reformas gubernativas, según ha declarado esta tarde el doctor Harry A. Garfield, rector del Instituto de Política, en un discurso de convocación pronunciado en la séptima asamblea anual de dicha institución.

Y, por lo tanto, "¿por qué no abandonar la práctica de meter mano a cada momento en la maquinaria del gobierno? ¿por qué no dejarla tal como está?" preguntó el orador. "¿Para qué hemos de crear más y más comisiones, y más y más cargos, cuando, por el sencillo medio de las conferencias entre ciudadanos podemos alcanzar cuanto valga la pena de ser alcanzado?"

"La conferencia, que es el método educativo, es también el más poderoso que puede emplear el ciudadano, porque despeja la oscuridad y destierra el temor," agregó el rector. "Se logra más con el método de conferencias, con el recíproco cambio de ideas, la presentación de pruebas, la investigación de hechos y el estudio de las grandes cuestiones que tienen hoy que resolver las naciones del mundo, que con el sistema de desmoralizar a los parlamentos o congresos, o de tratar por medios cualesquiera de influir sobre aquellos que tienen la responsabilidad de gobernar."

LONDRES, Julio 28.—Scotland Yard ha visto con malos ojos la idea que tiene Lady Ossulston de eliminar las marcas de la ropa en un lavadero que va a abrir pronto en Londres.

Dicen las autoridades que muchos criminales han sido descubiertos con la ayuda de dichas marcas. El criminalista Edgar Wallace, escritor de historietas de detectives, ha publicado una larga lista de criminales célebres que han sido cogidos merced a las marcas de los lavaderos.

El Presunto Matador de Howell Fue Muerto Antier

WASHINGTON, Julio 28.—Notificóse hoy al ministerio de Estado que el chino a quien tenían preso las autoridades mejicanas como presunto responsable del asesinato de Robert Howell, ciudadano norteamericano asesinado el 24 de Junio en Los Mochis (Sinaloa) fue muerto ayer al tratar de escaparse de la cárcel.

MOSCU, Julio 28.—Joseph Stalin, líder del partido comunista, ha vuelto a advertirle al país que se precava contra la guerra. En la larga declaración pasa en revista lo que llama ataques a la unión soviética, y le advierte a esta que esté prevenida para nuevos ataques, con los que pudieran los conservadores llegar a organizar un bloque militar contra la unión.

"Para prevenir esto," declaró, "debemos tocar alarma en todos los países capitalistas europeos y despertar a los obreros y soldados, a fin de que estos últimos respondan, con las armas revolucionarias en la mano, a las tentativas de provocar la guerra.

"Debemos convencer a los que no crean en la realidad de la amenaza de guerra, y defender a todo trance un programa de paz, a pesar de los improperios y provocaciones de nuestros enemigos.

RIPON STUDENT TEAM TO REPRESENT STATE

SACRAMENTO, July 28. (AP)—Designation of the Ripon High School dairy cattle judging team as California's representative at the National Dairy Show at Memphis, Tenn., in October, has just been announced at the vocational education offices of the State Department of Education. The Ripon students won the right to make the trip east by their victory in the dairy cattle judging contests at the recent Pacific Slope Dairy Show at Oakland, where they competed against forty-three high-school groups.

RED CROWN GASOLINE

"Use the Air Mail"

Twice across the Atlantic—twice across the Pacific—this great motor fuel carried America's gallant air men on four of the world's greatest achievements in aviation.

From various parts of the United States each of these men came to the Standard Oil Company of California and purchased the fuel so vital to success. With no inducement whatever save merit, these experts chose Red Crown Aviation Gasoline and relied upon it for its dependability and unfailing power in their perilous exploits.

There could be no greater tribute to quality than the faith and reliance these aviators placed in this gasoline.

Like Lindbergh, Byrd, Maitland and Smith, hundreds of thousands of motorists on the Pacific Coast rely upon the dependability and unfailing power of gasoline made by the Standard Oil Company of California.

AUTO DEATHS OF EIGHT YEARS MORE THAN WAR CASUALTIES

WASHINGTON, July 28. (AP)—More people have been killed by automobiles in the United States during the past eight years than the American soldier dead in the World War, the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce said.

From January 1, 1919, to December 31, 1926, 137,017 persons were killed by automobiles while the total casualties of the war in the American army forces was 120,050. The injured in automobile accidents, however, was 3,500,000 since the Armistice.

Twenty-six per cent of the killed and injured were children under the age of 15 years, according to the figures. Last year it was estimated 23,000 persons were killed, an increase of 1000 over 1925, and the largest death toll ever recorded by automobiles for a year.

CHILDREN DISOWNED BY PURNELL WITNESS

ST. JOSEPH (Mich.) July 28. (AP) A 69-year-old white-haired Swedish sailor publicly disowned his own son and daughter at today's session of the State's dissolution suit against the House of David because they had declared Benjamin Purnell, the cult leader, had wronged them.

The witness was Edward Johnson, whose daughter, Mrs. Esther Hansel, the State's star witness, has made charges of immorality against Purnell.

Federal Funds Announced for School Districts

SACRAMENTO, July 28. (AP)—Reimbursement of eighty-eight high school districts in the State to the extent of $127,827.74 as the Federal aid to the Smith-Hughes vocational agricultural instruction during the last school term, was announced today by Julian A. McPhee, vocational agricultural supervisor in the State educational department.

The payments just going forward represent an annual payment of $1150 toward the salary of every teacher engaged in the full-time instruction of agriculture in those schools having Smith-Hughes work. Reimbursements are sent forward at the close of the school year after the local districts have carried the teachers through the session.

NEGRO PLAYS TRICK ON DAWES

Colored Houdini Ruins New Handkerchief for Vice-President by Blowing Breath and Setting Cloth Afire

MEMPHIS (Tenn.) July 28. (AP)—Vice-President Dawes, during a short stopover in Memphis, today witnessed a "divine" trick performed by a negro car repairer for the benefit of the Vice-President and at the expense to him of a new hand-embroidered handkerchief.

William Watson, the negro "magician," asserts that when he was a boy, he had a vision from heaven and that he became endowed with the power to blow his breath on any object and set it afire. The party was taken to the office of Clyde Mays, general superintendent of the Illinois Central Railroad, and Watson came forward.

He asked for a handkerchief and Mr. Dawes let him have one with the remark, "Well, I'll never see it again."

Watson, true to his promise, blew his breath on it and after a few mysterious puffs the handkerchief caught fire. Watson repeated the trick several times while the Vice-President puffed away at his underslung pipe.

The trick, however, went unexplained.

New Hollywood Security Bank Branch to Open

The opening tomorrow of the Melrose and Highland branch of the Security Trust and Savings Bank in temporary quarters at 6602 Melrose avenue marks the establishment of the seventh Security branch in the Hollywood business district.

The Security recently purchased the southeast corner of Melrose and Citrus avenues from Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Freutel and plans are now being drawn for the construction of a handsome one-story banking building on this site, to house the branch in its permanent location.

Announcement has also been made of the appointment of Everette T. Sink as manager of the new branch. For the past four years he has been connected with the Sixth and Oxford branch of the Security. Previous to coming to California he was assistant cashier of the First National Bank of Winner, N. D., and was for a time connected with the Nebraska State Banking Department.

With the opening of this new branch the Security now has fifty-five locations in the Los Angeles Metropolitan area.

Trade in Local Territory Held at Fair Level

Business continues but fair with retail stores reporting volume equal to a year ago, with profits about the same, states Bradstreet's weekly review of conditions in Los Angeles territory. Furniture business is still very slow, with manufacturers, jobbers and retailers all reporting business quiet with collections slow.

A nationally known mail-order house now has two retail and one wholesale store in operation in Los Angeles and states that first month's business was very satisfactory.

Gasoline sales of large companies show a gross increase of about 20 per cent for the first six months, compared with a year ago. One cent a gallon raise in the retail price of gasoline is effective today. Crops and weather conditions are very favorable. Liberal shipments are being made by ranchers with prices steadier.

London Daily Radio

BY ARTHUR W. KIDDY

LONDON, July 28. (By wireless)—Stock-market interest again centered today chiefly in American and Canadian Celanese shares, but oil stocks were in better demand. Industrials were generally steady. English railways were firm, the London Midland and Scottish dividend increase fulfilling expectations.

Steadiness of the markets was aided by improvement in sterling and the fact that proceedings at the conference of the miners' federation show that the power of the Communist extremists is weakening.

Because the rally in American exchange happened to coincide with the return of Gov. Montague Norman of the Bank of England, there was a disposition in some quarters to see a connection between the two events and there was a revival of the absurd reports that the bank had arranged for further American credits.

The money market was easier at the end. Private deposits in the bank return showed considerable increase, while the expansion in currency notes for home circulation was less than expected.

Stocks finished goodish, especially rails, on the Midland and Scottish dividend statement. Celanese was buoyant. Oils closed better. Sterling was steady, also the franc. Some interest was shown in the announcement that Sir Josias Stamp would succeed Sir Guy Granet as chairman of the Midland and Scottish.

NEW NAME ADOPTED

California Cattlemen's Association Changes Title

Announcement is made by the California Cattlemen's Association that on August 1 the cattlemen's co-operative marketing organization will be known as the Western Cattle Marketing Association. This change is in name only and has been instituted because of the rapid expansion of the co-operative and the fact that it is now serving five western States.

Since its organization in 1923, the association has grown rapidly until at present its volume of business exceeds $1,000,000 a month. A large portion of the 3000 members of the association is located outside of California, although California has the largest percentage of membership of any State served. Arizona, Nevada, New Mexico and Southern Oregon cattlemen are now affiliated with the co-operative, and it is expected that cattlemen in Idaho and Utah will join before long.

EDISON REFUNDING PLANNED

Utility's Outstanding Mortgage 6's Called for Redemption; New $35,000,000 Issue of 5's Sought

BY CARL P. MILLER

Again the Southern California Edison Company proposes to avail itself of the opportunity of obtaining cheaper money with which to finance new construction operations and to provide an additional saving in interest charges through the refunding of its remaining 6 per cent gold bonds with liens bearing 5 per cent interest.

The board of directors of the company has called for redemption on October 1, at $105 and accrued interest, all of the company's refunding mortgage gold bonds, series of 6's, due in 1943, and aggregating $26,500,000 in par value, according to a statement made yesterday by R. H. Ballard, vice-president and general manager.

An application will shortly be made to the California Railroad Commission for authority to issue and sell approximately $35,000,000 of the company's 5 per cent refunding mortgage gold bonds, the proceeds of which will be used to retire the 6's and to provide funds for the company's new construction program, as outlined in the budget for this year, amounting to $42,881,000.

Based on the present market price of Edison 5's, the new liens, which are expected to be sold to net the company close to par, will save the company in excess of $150,000 annually in interest charges for the next sixteen years. A similar saving was effected August 1, 1926, when the company retired $33,919,000 of its general and refunding mortgage 6's, due in 1944, with part of the proceeds of an issue of $40,000,000 of refunding mortgage gold bonds, series of 5's, due in 1951. Still another step to obtain cheaper money was taken early in the current month, when the company was authorized to issue and sell 400,000 shares of its series "C" 5½ per cent preferred stock.

NEW SET UP

Upon completion of this refunding operation, the funded debt of the Southern California Edison Company will consist of $75,000,000 refunding mortgage gold bonds, series of 5's; $10,000,000 general and refunding mortgage 5 per cent gold bonds; $10,225,000 general and refunding mortgage 5½ per cent gold bonds; $13,350,000 general mortgage 5 per cent thirty-year gold bonds; $15,846,700 underlying bonds, and $1,965,000 of 7 per cent gold debenture bonds, due in 1928.

It will be noted that, of the approximate total of $126,400,000 of funded debt to be outstanding presently, all but $12,190,000 are 5 per cent securities. Approximately $60,600,000 of 6 per cent liens have been called during the past fourteen months.

In following the tremendous growth of the Southern California Edison Company during the past few years, which has continued until the company is now in the group of largest producers and distributors of electric energy in the United States, one of the best indices to Edison's strengthened position is its greatly enhanced borrowing facilities. In 1921 the company's general and refunding mortgage 6's of 1944 were offered at 87 to yield over 7 per cent, which is in considerable contrast to the offering last year of 5's at 98½.

DISTRIBUTION WIDE

During the period since the war, the company, through the agency of its bankers, the Harris Trust and Savings Bank and E. H. Rollins & Sons, has likewise widened the market for the absorption of its bonds and junior securities to include the principal markets of the world.

The 1927 budget for new expenditures, amounting to $42,881,000, is the largest in the history of the Edison Company, being one-third more than in 1926, and is a fair index of the prosperous condition of the Southern and Central California territory. The budget provides for the new steam installation at Long Beach, adding 125,000 horsepower of generating capacity, a new hydroelectric powerhouse in the Big Creek territory of 112,000 horsepower capacity, and general extensions and additions. In the first six months of this year the company expended approximately $20,000,000 in this connection.

HARVEST OF TURLOCK MELONS UNDER WAY

By the end of this week, a daily shipment of ninety cars will be reached and maintained during the next three weeks. Greens were bringing the grower $1.50 a crate early this week while ripe "cants" were bringing $1.60. An advance is expected before the end of the week.

PERMIT SOUGHT FOR POWER BONDS SALE

The Board of Water and Power Commissioners has asked the City Council to offer for sale $1,000,000 municipal power bonds, "in order that the work of extending the electric system may be continued without interruption." The bonds to be sold are $500,000 of the 1924 issue and $500,000 of the 1926 issue. The Council will set a date for receiving bids for the bonds.

The regular dividend of $1.75 a share on the preferred stock was authorized.

MEXICO PLANNING TO PAY DEBT WARRANTS

NEW YORK, July 28. P. Morgan & Co. The statement added that no announcement could be made regarding payment of cash warrants representing interest on the railway bonds.

BANCITALY NEW STOCK ON BOARD

Opens at 89 1-4, Closing at 89 1-2; Richfield Advances Fraction; Mines Off

Bancitaly Corporation was the leading trader on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange yesterday with the new stock coming on the board for the first time at 89 1-4 and advancing to a close at 89½, which is equivalent to 125.3 on the old stock. The old shares were traded for cash between 124½ and 125. First National Bank added 1½ points to 434.

Richfield opened 3-8 of a point higher on the strength of the earnings statement for six months' operations at 19 3-4, but failed to hold, receding to a close at 19½, a fractional net gain. Union Oil of California closed off a fraction to 42 1-4, while Standard Oil of California added that amount to 53 3-4. California Petroleum held at 24½.

Southern California Edison common closed off fractionally to 35 1-4, and the 6 per cent and 7 per cent issues held firm at 26 and 28 5-8, respectively. Los Angeles Gas and Electric preferred again sold at the record high of 104. Los Angeles Investment was off ½ of a cent to 2.83½. Globe Grain held at 63½ and Broadway Department Store preferred at 100.

There was little activity in the mines. Boundary Cone held firm at 4½. Western Apex lost a cent to 12 and United Eastern a cent to 45. North Star was active at 2.

United States Wool Clip in Sharp Gain

The amount of wool shorn in the United States in 1927 is 11,477,000 pounds greater than the amount shorn in 1926, according to the preliminary estimate of the Department of Agriculture. The total production is estimated at 272,453,000 pounds, compared with 260,976,000 in 1926 and is the largest since 1911.

The increased production this year over last is due to the increase in the number of sheep shorn, which more than offset the decrease in the average weight per fleece. The number shorn is reported as 35,642,000 in 1927 and 33,548,000 in 1926. The average weight per fleece was 7.6 in 1927 and 7.8 last year.

The increase in the number of sheep shorn is general throughout the country, all the important sheep States, except Montana, showing more this year than last.

English of the Los Angeles office of the latter company, yesterday emphatically denied that any such combination was contemplated.

DROPS BOSTON PORT

Munson-McCormick Line for West Cancels Call Schedule

Information was given out through the traffic department of the McCormick Steamship Company yesterday that the Munson-McCormick Line is announcing the discontinuance of Boston as a westbound port of call. The steamer Sidney M. Hauptman is the last vessel of that line to call at the port of Boston. She sailed from there on the 24th inst.

The discontinuance of Boston as a port of call will allow the Munson-McCormick Line to favorably compete in offering rapid transit from Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York to ports on the Pacific Coast.

DEMAND GAINS IN IRON TRADE

Slowly Broadening Activity Noted in Survey

Improvement from Low Mark of July Continues

Farm Implement and Motor Makers on Market

CLEVELAND, July 28. (Exclusive) Demand for iron and steel in the aggregate is broadening slowly despite the heavy handicap of midsummer inertia. Improvement is spotted both as to products and to districts, but on the whole the rising tendency manifest since the low point in July continues. Harbingers of further betterment are appearing. Material for the first run of the new Ford cars estimated at 8000 units is being placed and one uncertainty in this direction is dissipated. The needs of the automotive industry should flow more freely.

Farm implement makers are more optimistic concerning fall business and have contributed liberally to 35,000 tons of bars now on inquiry at Chicago. While railroads continue indifferent to their equipment needs they are ordering track material generously, having placed over 100,000 tons of rails in the past week.

There is a tendency to look to the last half of August for development of the customary fall pick-up in iron and steel demand. Meanwhile mill operations are paralleling bookings in their moderate recovery from the recent midsummer low point. Steel making for the industry as a whole is averaging 75 per cent with the Steel Corporation subsidiaries in a more comfortable position than the independents.

Quotations on steel, especially sheets, have resisted pressure and seem firmer. While pig-iron prices are no weaker in the main, the overhang of considerable third-quarter business makes the situation uncertain. Beehive furnace coke surplus, resulting from some recent cancellations, has been absorbed and the minimum of the spot market now is $3, an advance of 15 cents.

Inquiry for pig-iron continues negligible. Norfolk and Western has distributed 60,000 tons of rails, 40,000 tons going to the Steel Corporation subsidiaries, and 20,000 tons to the Bethlehem Steel Company, which also has booked 18,000 tons for the Lehigh Valley. Great Northern has placed 25,000 tons of rails, and the Canadian Pacific 15,000 tons, the latter going entirely to Algoma Steel Corporation. Pennsylvania Railroad has placed considerable track-fastening business in the East.

Pittsburgh district mills have received some attractive orders for sheets, the majority being marked for rush delivery. Tonnage placed for late August delivery, especially in the automotive industry, is growing.

Iron Trade Review composite of fourteen leading iron and steel products has dropped 6 cents to $36.35, from $36.41 in the preceding week.

Net Earnings of Chrysler Auto Sharply Higher

NEW YORK, July 28. (AP)—Net profit of the Chrysler Corporation for the first half of 1927 rose to $10,116,729, from $7,846,744 in the corresponding six months of 1926, it was announced today. This is the equivalent of $4.41 a share on the common stock, and compared with $2.58 in the first half of 1926. Second-quarter net profit amounted to $5,724,180, against $4,392,569 in the first three months, and $4,287,055 in the second quarter of 1926.

Walter P. Chrysler, president, said that sales during the first six months were over 100,000 cars, an increase of 30 per cent in unit and about 12 per cent in dollar value over the same period of 1926.

The regular quarterly dividend of 75 cents a share on the common stock was declared payable September 30 to stock of record September 15.

BUILDING INREASES

Straus Company Reports New High Mark for Canada Cities

Prosperous business conditions throughout Canada were yesterday indicated in the announcement by S. W. Straus & Co., that building activities for the first six months of this year established a new high record, the volume in the sixty-three leading cities being $81,373,619, a gain of 3.3 per cent over 1926 and 23.5 per cent over 1925.

Wholesale costs of building materials averaged less than in any other similar period for eight years. Ontario reported 44.2 per cent of the total value of building authorized. Toronto was the leading building city of Canada for the period with a record of $13,038,265, a gain of 9 per cent over 1926. Reports from other large cities were—Montreal, $11,589,052; Vancouver, $6,023,951; Winnipeg, $4,579,300. Notwithstanding the great amount of building throughout Canada, complete stagnation was reported in the Province of Prince Edward Island.

TRADE OUTLOOK GOOD

Electrical World Optimistic on Second Half Year Prospects

General activities in the electrical industry continue on a steady basis throughout the country and the outlook for business in the second half of the year is regarded as favorable, Electrical World reports. Central station companies have been placing business in line with their budgets which showed a substantial increase over 1926.

On the Pacific Coast a large order for motors was placed by a pulp and paper company as the initial purchase of electrical equipment for a $4,000,000 plant. Buying of equipment on the part of the railroad companies also was in evidence.

MONEY RATE DROP UNUSUAL

Decline in Charge for Call Loans on Approach of Autumn Viewed as Favorable Omen

BY PAUL WILLARD GARRETT

NEW YORK, July 28. (Exclusive)—With the season of year at hand when money rates usually harden, the outstanding force now visible, is one of softening rates.

A pronounced advance in call loans during the last few days of July and early August usually precedes the autumnal rise and the severity of this late summer change always is studied for what it may reveal of the future movement. What makes 1927 differ from other years is that the approach of August has brought no sign whatsoever of dearer money. Instead of rising the rate on call funds has decreased for the fourth time this year to 3½ per cent, its lowest 1927 level. Already the influences for ease have spread to the other departments of the money market, which ordinarily do not follow so quickly the path taken by the call rate.

Not the least interesting phase of the present money position is that some of the most pronounced evidences of ease have been seen in the rate for bankers' acceptances, or, to use a name more common, bills. Through their reluctance to adjust rates, dealers doubtless were responsible in part for the shrinkage in the size of their portfolios from about $100,000,000 in May to $28,000,000 ten days or so ago, when the volume of bills got down to its lowest total since the war.

Naturally more bills have come out since rates were lowered, but they have not been made as rapidly as might have been expected. Probably the total volume, even yet, has not reached $40,000,000. With the further fall in bill rates this week and the pretty plain evidence that those for the more distant date will come down further, the size of portfolios in the hands of dealers should slightly increase.

What interests Wall street at the moment more than anything else so far as the money market goes, is, of course, the trend of time funds. The present softening tendency in the rates for money of distant securities give the financial district the sign it wants of comfortable money for the remainder of this year.

More and more the prophets in Wall street are coming to the conclusion that 1927 will, during its remaining months, bring not only an abundance of money at reasonable rates, but corporate profits larger than anybody had estimated six months ago.

It may be that the financial district still clings too closely to the idea that wide swings from high to low during the course of the year in money rates and in business are normal. If 1927 history to date has taught anything, it is that both money and business for the time are stabilized to a degree not known in previous history.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, July 28. (Exclusive) Trading in cotton today was on a much smaller scale than recently, with fluctuations confined to a comparatively narrow range. The trend seemed to be down on the belief that the market to a considerable extent had discounted the weevil damage to date and was entitled to at least a technical reaction. The weather was of a more favorable character and offerings were on a heavier scale on the bulges than for the last week.

Prices opened about 5 to 12 points lower on less favorable Liverpool cables than expected and gradually declined by the end of the forenoon to the basis of 18.63 cents for October; December, 18.89; January, 19.00; March, 19.17, and May, 19.34, with the heaviest selling by Liverpool spot houses and the South. On this decline considerable trade buying appeared, which rallied prices. There was not much change after that, about 5 to 10 points by 2 o'clock.

Southern spot markets yesterday were unchanged to 25 points lower with sales only 6342 bales, showing a disposition to await further reaction. A substantial inquiry is being reported in the local market for print cloths, but most of the business is being turned down by mills on account of buyers' ideas of value. Manchester cables report demand more active but buyers are still resisting higher rates. Production of yarns spun from American cotton are only 60 per cent of total capacity and the Master Cotton Spinners' Association recommends one week's stoppage before September 1.

Some rains were reported at scattered points in Texas, Florida, Mississippi and Louisiana, but nothing of importance in the Eastern States, where weevil damage has been admitted to be heaviest. This and more favorable official forecasts tended to check any renewed bullish activity.

Liverpool futures closed with a net decline of 13 to 15 points on the day against 5 to 7 due. This market was influenced by the better weather news from our side and the continued readjustment in the Egyptian futures market.

ROCK ISLAND RAIL EARNINGS IMPROVE

NEW YORK, July 28. (AP)—The Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific earned $2.07 a share on the common stock, after preferred dividends, in the first half of 1927, compared with $1.86 a share on the 7 per cent preferred in the first half of 1926. Surplus after charges was $3,328,591, in contrast to $548,853 a year ago. Net operating income for the half year was $6,620,898 against $5,958,085 in the first half of 1926.

Mexico Makes Arrangements to Meet Debt

MEXICO CITY, July 28. (Exclusive)—An arrangement has been completed between international committee bankers of Mexico and the Mexican government, whereunder forfeiture on the part of Mexico of this year's semiannual interest assessment on the nation's foreign obligations, which fell due July 1, has been avoided by means of a 4,000,000-peso loan which bankers have agreed to advance in order to facilitate compliance with the agreement.

An official statement is expected either from the finance ministry or international committee between now and August 1, on which date the committee has arranged to publish both here and in New York formal announcement advising holders of bonds, notes and other securities, included in Mexico's direct debt obligations, to present their unpaid cash warrants for these issues for collection of any of the agencies representing the committee.

While financiers would have seen with greater favor the inclusion of interest payment on the National Railways of Mexico obligations, it is argued that under the existing conditions the treasury's meeting the committments contained only in the direct debt is a favorable sign for Mexican credit and indicative of Calles's efforts to comply with the modified agreement entered into with the committee in June, 1922, and which has been complied with, although payment as in this case has been met after the date due.

Ten School and Municipal Bond Issues Slated

Ten municipal improvement and school district bond issues, aggregating more than $3,750,000 in par value, are scheduled to be awarded in the State of California during the next thirty days, according to a compilation completed yesterday by R. H. Moulton & Co.

On August 1 four issues will be sold as follows: $250,000 Alameda county tube 5s, $75,000 Soledad Union School district, Monterey county, 5s, $30,000 Lompoc Union High School district 5½s and $65,000 Lancaster school district 5s.

Los Angeles county Board of Supervisors on August 8 will award an issue of $1,400,000 Glendale Union High School district 5s, $123,000 Pasadena city school district 4 3-4s, $625,000 Monrovia High School district 5s and $35,000 Arteria school district 5s. On August 22 an issue of $700,000 Long Beach Harbor improvement 5s will be sold, and at an early date $450,000 City of Santa Barbara securities will be awarded.

NET EARNINGS OF CASH REGISTER UP

NEW YORK, July 28. (AP)—Net profit of National Cash Register Company for the half-year was $3,302,166, equal to $3 a share on the common "A" stock, double the dividend requirement for the period. Compared with $3,167,560 in the first half of 1926.

STEEL COMMON LEADS ADVANCE

Five-Point Upturn Registered on Heavy Turnover

Selling Pressure Handicap to Motors' Progress

Bullish News and Cut in Call Rate Aids Trading

NEW YORK, July 28. (AP)—The bull movement in stock prices made further headway today despite increased selling resistence. United States Steel common was the leader, moving up more than 5 points to 134½, the highest price since the declaration of the 40 per cent stock dividend, on buying presumably influenced by the official announcement that Du Pont interests had accumulated 114,000 shares of stock at slightly less than $123 a share, and by the reported improvement in the steel trade.

Easy money was again a potent influence, call loans dropping to 3½ per cent, after renewing at 3 3-4, with outside loans reported as low as 3 1-4. There was a plentiful supply of funds available in view of the increasing demands for currency in connection with month-end settlements.

The Bethlehem Steel Corporation reported half-yearly earnings of $4.04 a share on the common stock, as against $4.36 in the first half of 1926. No action was taken toward a resumption of dividends on the common stock, but barring an unexpected sharp decline in business it is generally believed that payments will be resumed by the first quarter of next year. Bethlehem common crossed 56 to within a fraction of the year's high and then settled back to 54 1-4, off 3-4 net. Colorado Fuel advanced more than a point, but the other independent steels were heavy.

Motor shares failed to make much headway because of the large volume of profit-taking and short selling in that group. General Motors, after fluctuating between 221½ and 227, closed 3-4 net higher at 225 5-8. Nash moved up 2 points to a new peak at 76 1-8 and then lost half its gain. Chrysler closed a point lower at 58 1-4, presumably in reflection of speculative disappointment over the failure of the directors to declare an extra dividend. Chrysler's net profits for the first six months totaled $10,116,729, as against $7,846,744 for the same period last year. Timken Roller Bearing attained a new top at 119. Heavy offerings checked a promising rally in the rubbers, al-

WALL STREET PARAGRAPHS

(Copyright, 1927, New York Evening Post, Inc.)

NEW YORK, July 28.—Strength in United States Steel common which lifted this favorite into new high ground in one of the sharpest advances in many months, was accompanied by talk of additional buying for Dupont interests. Extraordinarily heavy demand for the shares in the last several days was attributed to buying orders from Wilmington interests and associates. Weakness of Loree shares in the railroad group was another feature. Lehigh Valley stock was again freely offered at concessions.

Prospect for Dupont Holders

With the prospect of a two-for-one split in General Motors common stock ahead, doubling the 1,996,244 shares held by E. I. Dupont, De Nemours & Co., stockholders in the Dupont company, were wondering today what steps would be pursued by directors in passing along the distribution. It was assumed directors would continue the policy of distributing the bonus to stockholders. Some observers thought another capital readjustment might be effected that would result in a substantial stock dividend. It was pointed out the General Motors shares were still carried at $60 a share in the balance sheet, whereas the market value had soared to above $225. Another upward revision on these shares is possible in line with the increase last March to $60 from $46.88 which increased surplus by $26,184,371.

Seminole Restriction Awaited

With crude oil production in the Seminole area again pointing to new high records—it rose yesterday to within seventy barrels of the previous peak above 514,500 barrels—financial circles are awaiting anxiously signs of success in the restriction measure under consideration by producers. Success of the proposal to pro-rate production depends, of course, on 100 per cent co-operation. So far such steps have met with little success. In trade circles it is said some companies are still opposed to restrictions and will not vote in favor of the pro-rating scheme. Unless they can be persuaded to change their position, therefore, it may be assumed the latest plan was doomed to failure and the field will continue to fill storage tanks to overflowing.

High Compression Motors

The introduction of high compression motors in 1928 models of several large automobile manufacturers should develop a wider market for high-compression gasoline and several big oil-marketing companies have met or are preparing to meet this demand. Some large companies have been marketing high-test gasoline suitable for high-compression motors for more than a year. The latest preparing to join the ranks is Standard of New York, which soon will announce distribution of high-compression gasoline. With distribution of high-compression gasoline becoming more widespread, the number of automobile manufacturers featuring high-compression types of motors is increasing.

DECISION RESERVED IN LEATHER SUIT

PASADENAN AMONG PROTESTERS AGAINST MERGERS AFFECTING DIVIDEND PAYMENTS

JERSEY CITY (N. J.) July 28. (AP) Vice-Chancellor Bentley today reserved decision after hearing arguments upon the motion of the Central Leather Company and the United States Leather Company for a modification of the order made a few days ago to restrain them from paying a dividend on preferred stock August 1 as contemplated.

Charges of manipulations through merger processes to benefit common stockholders at the expense of preferred stockholders were made by John Windhurst of Union City, N. J., holder of 600 shares of preferred stock in the Central Leather Company. He asks the court to prevent a merger of the corporations and to restrain payment of the proposed dividend as planned and announced.

When the matter was presented for hearing Windhurst was joined in his protest by Mabel E. Ingraham of Pasadena, Cal., and Francis T. Ingraham of Brooklyn, N. Y., holders of 2725 shares of Central Leather preferred.

They charged that by the system of merger being executed the preferred stockholders of the Central Leather Company will lose about $43 per share accumulated dividends and that a debt of $19,000,000 will be wiped off the books at the expense of the preferred stockholders and for the ultimate benefit of the common stockholders.

Safety of Realty Security Investment Trust Issue Guaranteed by Insurance.

BY WILLIAM RUSSELL WHITE

NEW YORK, July 28.—The investing public's interest in investment trusts, stimulated in recent years by the introduction of the British idea in our security markets, will be heightened probably by the State Attorney General's promised investigation, which, incidentally, is welcomed by all interests associated with legitimate organizations of this type.

Various examples of the investment trust idea have been discussed from time to time in this column, but one of the most interesting is that introduced by Realty Foundation, Inc., several months ago known as Realty-Securities investment trust participating 6 per cent certificates.

This security offers a combination of insured safety of principal and 6 per cent interest with a moderate element of speculation and prospect of appreciation. It is the first investment trust, according to its sponsors, the National American Securities Company, based on the sound security of New York City real estate.

It is the first investment trust, moreover, to be insured unconditionally against loss to the investor. This unique arrangement is effected through the Metropolitan Casualty Insurance Company of New York, with resources of more than $12,000,000. Each certificate carries the following indorsement:

"This is to certify that for value received the Metropolitan Casualty Insurance Company of New York has unconditionally and irrevocably insured for the benefit of the holders of the within certificate that the trust fund created under the indenture within described will at all times equal 100 per cent of the outstanding certificates and will produce in cash an amount sufficient to pay the interest hereon and principal hereof at their respective maturities; and that by the terms of such indenture it is obliged to pay any deficit within sixty days after its occurrence."

The insurance company, because it assumes this risk, takes the precaution to examine and approve all securities and mortgages accepted for the trust. If defaults occur, the mortgages in question must be removed from the trust at the request of the insurer. Other provisions are contained in the indenture to assure safety of principal.

The element of speculation is provided by readily marketable common stocks, high-grade railroad and industrial securities listed on the New York Stock Exchange. The trust indenture provides:

"Securities and mortgages with an aggregate value at all times equal to at least 125 per cent of the principal amount of outstanding certificates shall be assigned to the trustee for the benefit of the certificate holders; at least 25 per cent of the principal amount of outstanding certificates shall be invested in securities other than real estate mortgages."

Profits and income from the 25 per cent invested in nonmortgage securities are to be distributed pro rata to certificate holders after 6 per cent on its capital investment in the securities has been deducted by Realty Foundation. The accumulated profits are payable at the maturity of the certificates, April 1, 1937, or on their earlier redemption.

84—WHAT IT MEANS TO SPECULATE

Consider sugar. It's a good point on which to start a discussion of that much abused and misunderstood activity called speculation. Early in November, 1926, a little informal dinner in New York happened to chance on sugar as a topic of conversation. Most of the men present were bond dealers, but there were several who also dealt in stocks. Said one of the stock men:

"Yes, I believe there may be a chance to make money in sugar stocks. The sugar business has been dragging bottom several years. I believe it is about time for it to turn. A number of the companies have their affairs pretty well in order."

The foregoing was not given as a market tip. The man who uttered it is a capable, dependable individual. Many men would have rushed to "speculate" by buying sugar stocks if they had heard him express that opinion. But let's see how these shrewd men of Wall and La Salle streets acted on this unintentional tip. We'll take one of the shrewdest of the group, a wealthy individual who is a large bond buyer, but who occasionally speculates in stocks. His experienced activity shows exactly what speculation means. Six weeks later the writer was in this man's office. His desk was covered with a mass of reports on sugar companies and the sugar industry. He was speculating in the true sense; that is, he was looking into sugar before putting in a penny, turning a deaf ear to rumors, steadily piling up information from reliable sources. Some sugar stocks had advanced since that New York dinner, but at Christmas this man had bought nothing.

"I know very little about sugar," he explained. "I can't afford to gamble. Certainly, I'd take our friend's word, if he advised specifically to buy or sell. But he said only that he believed sugar stocks would go up, and his advice meant simply to investigate sugar stocks, not gamble in them on rumor. Looking into anything thoroughly or getting the counsel of reliable persons who have looked into it thoroughly, and then buying or selling, that's speculating. To do otherwise is gambling, usually very silly gambling."

The writer does not know whether the above-mentioned man has yet bought sugar or sugar stocks. He knows nothing about sugar or sugar stocks but he does know the difference between gambling and speculating. Anyone who has the money available has a right to speculate, but he should realize that speculating means studying the thing carefully and obtaining reliable information. It doesn't mean accepting hot tips. That's usually a losing gamble.

Cragsmen of wide experience declare that climbers run greater risks in the Scafell area than in the Alps.

Among the score or so specialties to reach new high ground were Allied Chemical, Case Threshing Machine, City Stores B, Continental Insurance, Fidelity-Phenix Insurance, General Cananea Copper, International Harvester, Phoenix Hosiery, Simmons Company and Woolworth.

In the railroad group the establishment of new peak prices by such issues as Atchison, Southern Pacific and Union Pacific was offset by the recessions of Lehigh Valley, Colorado and Southern, Chicago and Alton preferred and Western Pacific common.

Commodity markets were mixed. Active wheat futures fell back a cent or more a bushel on more favorable weather reports from the Northwest. Cotton closed 8 to 10 points net higher. Raw sugar futures were firmer on reports that next year's supply would not exceed 4,000,000 tons. Coffee prices eased slightly. Foreign exchanges showed little change, with demand sterling quoted at around $4.85 9-32 and French francs around 3.91 1-4 cents.

NEW YORK BOND PRICES

NEW YORK, July 28. (AP)—Easing tendencies in the money market had a stimulating effect on bond prices in the late dealings today, after a morning of hesitancy. Trading was again in relatively small volume, but somewhat heavier than the average of the past few sessions, and rather widely distributed.

Some quickening of new offerings during the current week, with the probability that the aggregate will exceed $100,000,000 again, has carried an optimistic flavor, as a fair proportion of the fresh issues were promptly absorbed, indicating a satisfactory reduction in the recent heavy surplus of new issues. The over-the-counter movement of investment securities continued at a brisk rate.

The afternoon march into firmer ground was led by several high grade railway and industrial mortgages, including such issues as Chesapeake Corporation 5's, Missouri Pacific 5's, Western Maryland 4's and Goodyear Tire 5's. Erie-Pennsylvania Collateral Trust 4's sold at 102, the highest of the year, after gaining more than a point.

Local traction issues again featured the utility group, Interborough Rets and Third Avenue Adjustment 5's being accumulated in fair volume.

Several soft spots cropped out, in the main among bonds of companies whose stocks have recently been weak. Seaboard Adjustment 5's and Gold 4's sustained losses of more than a point each and Pierce-Arrow 8's broke 2 1-4 points to 95½.

Foreign securities were firm, with principal attention centering in the French and Polish groups. United Steel Works 6½'s, with warrants, sold at a new low for the year following the sale yesterday of the new $30,000,000 issue, but German General Electric 7's displayed strength.

United States government obligations brought slightly better prices. More than $400,000 of Liberty Fourth 4 1-4's changed hands above 103 3-4 and Treasury 4 1-4's were in fair demand.

The quotations represent sales of bonds (in thousands of dollars) and the high, low and closing prices in the order given. To expedite translation, close is entered when same as low, and both low and close when same as high.

OIL NEWS

BY HOWARD C. KEGLEY

The California-Eastern Production from Union Avenue well in the outskirts of the city of Bakersfield, which has been causing considerable excitement in that district during the past couple of days, continues to flow mud, oil, sand, and gas, according to reports from the field, despite any varying estimates of the amount of production.

They plan to rigging a gas trap on the well, and it probably will be piped into the tanks some time today, when an authentic gauge of the flow can be taken. One report has the production at 1000 barrels an hour, but this is generally considered a wild guess, inasmuch as the well is flowing by heads for only a few minutes at a time, and in varying amounts.

The gas production is said to be about 4,000,000 cubic feet a day, and it seems that the officials of the C.C.M.O. Operation, the parent organization of the Pacific Eastern, do not intend to drill the well any deeper, apparently figuring that it will make enough rubber at its present depth.

Well is Oil Sand

The Chanslor-Canfield Midway Oil Well is down about 4850 feet, in Robert B. No. 1 well in the Midway district six miles west of Ventura and is still in oil formation, according to official reports. The well has penetrated about 640 feet of sand and shale, and is considered to have sufficient penetration apparently to guarantee a producer. It is probable that the C.C.M.O. will drill to about 5000 feet, or perhaps above that point, and make a determination test, according to officials.

In the meantime the crew of the Well No. 1 is running a liner to the hole, and will try to make cement out of the well, although there is considerable string of drill pipe in the hole, which may prevent getting much of a well. Bottom is still to be 6500 feet.

Well Completion

The Crudeoil Company, which at present is one of the most active companies in the townlot field in West Huntington Beach, is all set to add a few more new wells to its string of producers in that area. Tanks are being built at Crudeoil No. 10 on the lot which is located between Walnut and Olive avenues, and at No. 16 on the lot between Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets.

Well Drilling

Well No. 2 Outlaw is preparing to enter the field at Huntington Beach, the started work on a derrick on the lot between Ocean avenue and Walnut, according to reports in the field.

Production Higher

The production of the townlot field at Huntington Beach picked up a few hundred barrels last week, and is now averaging about 25,000 barrels a day. The increase is principally due to improved production from the 10 new wells have been completed in the field recently.

Well Ahead

The Northwest Petroleum Company well is about 1800 feet in its wildcat test in Watts, according to field reports.

Well Going Up

The Watts-Behr Syndicate is building a derrick for its new well near Watts, according to field reports. The location is in strictly restricted territory which many geologists have reported favorably, but which has not shown much in the way of gushings in spite of several wells that have been drilled in that area.

Well Steady

Production at Seal Beach is still fairly steady, the decrease during the past week being only a few barrels, in spite of the fact that no new wells of any commercial importance were completed. The total output of the field yesterday indicated an output of about 58,000 barrels for the whole field, with 31,000 barrels credited to the original well, and about 27,000 barrels to the Gladiola Heights townlot district.

Well Wildcat

Frank C. O'Donnell, discoverer of the Compton field, and noted California wildcatter, is preparing to drill a test of the Springdale area, just north of the Huntington Beach field, according to unofficial reports. O'Donnell has leased about 40 acres of several property owners in the district, and material for the derrick is already on the ground. The test is to be drilled on the Ruoff lease, it is said. The terms of the lease for a well to be started within many days, it is said.

Well Tools

The California-Eastern Oil Company is preparing to abandon its Cypress No. 1 well in the Poso district definitely, it was discovered Saturday when crews began removing the machinery and equipment from the derrick.

FUTURE IN CATALINA TILE WORK

Beautiful Color Effects Obtained With Clays Native to Island

AVALON, July 28. (Exclusive)—Experiments with ornamental tile, both for building and as novelties, promise to open a wide field of industry for the Catalina plant at Pebbly Beach, William Wrigley stated after inspecting some of the initial product today. The high fusing point of the Catalina clays permits burning at various temperatures, by mixing several clays many singularly beautiful color effects are obtained.

All units of the plant are now in operation and many thousands of commercial tile and bricks are drying preparatory to use in building a huge continuous kiln 300 feet from the plant to the pier from which the product is shipped. The daily production capacity of the plant is 25,000 tile a day. A unique feature of the Catalina tile factory is that it is building itself of material found native to the island.

Ornamental clay plaques being turned out at the plant carry motifs of flying fish, glass-bottom boats, three wise monkeys, goats, Lincoln, Washington and Wrigley busts. These will be sold as novelties in an initial campaign to market "Made in Catalina" products.

Famous Hunter Dies at Home in Oakland Museum

OAKLAND, July 28. (AP)—H. A. Snow, 57 years of age, widely known big-game hunter and explorer, died unexpectedly at his home here today after an illness of a year and a half which followed his return from Africa several years ago.

The last fifteen years of Snow's life up to the time he was taken ill were spent in hunting and exploring all over the world. He brought back to this country during his hunting career animals and specimens valued at more than $1,000,000, which he presented to the city of Oakland. They are housed in the Oakland Museum Annex, which also was Snow's home.

The explorer was born in Santa Cruz, Cal., and received only a grammar-school education. He "picked up" his scientific education. He is survived by his widow and four children. One son, Sidney, was his companion on his hunting trips.

British Princes Enjoying Voyage to Visit Canada

STEAMSHIP EMPRESS OF AUSTRALIA, July 28. (AP)—The Prince of Wales, Prince George and Premier Stanley Baldwin and their parties bound for Canada on the Empress of Australia are approaching Belle Isle, N. F.

Wales and his brother George have become "regulars" at the ship's dances. They attended a masquerade ball last night and the previous night they danced until midnight, their partners including a number of Canadian passengers.

They have also spent much time in the gymnasium, using the mechanical horse, rowing machine and other apparatus. Yesterday they had a good session with the medicine ball.

Premier Baldwin gives evidence of the physical good his days at sea have done him. He engaged in a lively game of deck tennis yesterday afternoon and attended last night's masquerade ball with Mrs. Baldwin.

REHEARING GIVEN ON LIQUOR SMUGGLING

BAIL REDUCED FOR WANGENHEIM HELD IN BAY CITY ON CONSPIRACY CHARGE

SAN FRANCISCO, July 28. (AP)—Gus Wangenheim, formerly of Los Angeles, and Emil Burger, chef aboard the liner Matsonia, were taken before United States Commissioner Francis Krull today for a second hearing on the charge of conspiring to smuggle liquor aboard the Matsonia for shipment to Honolulu.

A new witness was introduced. He was Ernest Lang, a petty officer of the Matsonia. He testified that he saw Wangenheim aboard the vessel in San Francisco Bay on the 6th inst., the date Wangenheim declared he was in Los Angeles.

Wangenheim's bail was reduced from $10,000 to $5000 and Burger was released on his own recognizance. Wangenheim was trying to raise cash with which to obtain his release.

Blast-Set Blaze Destroys Fire Works Factory

NORTH BERGEN (N. J.) July 28. (AP)—An explosion of undetermined origin today caused destruction by fire of the three one-story wooden buildings composing the Santore Company fireworks factory.

Check-up aftre the explosion accounted for all employees, none of whom was injured. A boy in the neighborhood was reported missing, but police did not believe this had any connection with the fire.

A fireworks bomb landed on a stable adjoining the factory and set it on fire. Two horses were burned to death. The fire was quickly brought under control.

TENT CHURCH BURNED BY MOB IN SAN JOSE

SAN JOSE, July 28. (AP)—Police are seeking a band of men who last night climaxed a series of persecutions by burning the tent church of the Church of the Nazarene here. The tent had previously been stoned and its ropes cut, but its pastor, Rev. E. M. Graves, engaged two armed guards to be stationed at the tent. They were absent a few minutes last night. A piano and several hundred dollars' worth of seats were destroyed.

HARBOR TRAFFIC DATA RELEASED

Report on Commerce Volume for Fiscal Year Out

Total Value of Shipments in and Out Near Billion

Figures Represent Gain Over 1925-26 of $108,000,000

Commerce totaling 25,182,567 tons and attaining a value of $912,319,598 passed through Los Angeles Harbor during the fiscal year ending with June, last, according to tabulations including June figures just released by the Harbor Department.

Two million tons and $108,000,000 is the gain over the previous fiscal year, which, in turn, excelled 1924-25 by 1,000,000 tons and $133,000,000.

June's figures, while establishing no records, are regarded as flattering for the between-season period. Commerce during the month totaled 2,134,187 tons valued at $72,444,676, comparable with 1,767,716 tons and $70,144,181 for the corresponding month last year.

Six hundred and four commercial vessels transited the port's channels during the thirty-day period, representing a net tonnage of 1,631,617. The number is one of the greatest since the boom days of 1923-24, when the port's greatest cargo tonnage was handled, 26,553,066. The latter's value, however, has been exceeded greatly every year since.

From foreign shores came 141 vessels, intercoastal 133, coastwise 326 and from Hawaii, four. The American flag floated from 501, followed by British forty-three, Japanese fifteen, Norwegian sixteen, Mexican, German, French and Swedish four each, German six, Italian three, Danzig two and Danish and Panaman one each.

The different trades are shown in weight and dollars as follows:

Trade—	Tons.	Value.
Intercoastal, inbound	131,509	$23,977,434
Intercoastal, outbound	409,531	7,360,753

OLD CITY HALL AT SAN PEDRO PASSES SOON

The old San Pedro branch City Hall was being vacated yesterday, preparatory to demolition, whence will rise a new six-story branch building at a cost of $600,000. It marks the end of the old heritage, passed on to Los Angeles when the latter absorbed San Pedro nearly a score years ago. An object of community pride when built back in 1907, the structure even with additions has been outgrown for years, and lately developed cracks and faults, making a new building imperative.

The new branch building will house several offices more than the old one, including those of the Harbor Department, which will transfer everything but its secretary's office and board room to the port.

During construction the police division and fire division offices and several others will be housed in the Lasgard Lippman Building at 239 West Seventh street. The Board of Public Works, electrical and building inspectors, will take over rooms of the statistical division of the Harbor Department on First street. The latter is shifted to the Harbor Commission's board room, and the commission will discontinue monthly sessions at the port until the new structure is completed.

The tanker Cape Henlopen, in yesterday from Japan, will be given a two weeks' respite in port, during which she will change her name to Winifred O'Donnell, in honor of the wife of a director in the California Petroleum Corporation. She also will change her home port from Philadelphia to Los Angeles. Incidentally, she will undergo overhauling at the yards of the Los Angeles Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Corporation. The tanker is one of a fleet of five now operating from here for the California Petroleum Steamship Corporation, a holding subsidiary for the other. She and the Cape Ann and Cape Cod were purchased from the Cape Steamship Company and brought to this Coast six months ago, along with the Agwismith.

Otto Stoltz of San Pedro, James T. Parkinson of Los Angeles and E. R. Brown of San Ysidro, left yesterday to represent the Twenty-seventh Customs District employees at the national convention at Galveston. Salary and retirement issues and service betterments will be taken up. They will be gone two weeks.

One hundred and forty passengers will embark on the Nippon Yusen Kaisha liner Korea Maru, when the latter departs today on her return to the Orient via San Francisco. The liner also picked up 1400 tons of Southland cargo. Capt. J. Tsuji, master, reports delayed construction on four new liners, due to the financial debacle in Japan.

W. H. Wickersham will have four tankers in port over the week-end three of them belonging to the Chile Steamship Company. The Chiloil and the Chilsco are due tomorrow, and will undergo bottom painting and cleaning at the Los Angeles shipyards. The Chucky will follow Sunday, as will the Hadnt of the Cities Service Transportation Company, from Boston to load fuel at Associated docks for New York.

Customs books disclose the sale of the barkentine Thomas P. Emigh from the Charles Nelson Company, Inc., and others of San Francisco to Daisy H. Monstad of Redondo. The craft is being dismantled at the Consolidated Lumber Company's local yards, and will be towed to Redondo tomorrow to join Monstad's fleet of fishing barges anchored offshore. She is of 923 net tons, and was built at Tacoma in 1902.

Three hundred members of the Woman's City Club of Los Angeles will tour the harbor the morning of August 3, and have picnic lunch at Point Fermin as guests of the San Pedro Woman's Club and the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce. Members of the Council also will feat at the port the same week, details of which are still in the making.

It was announced that Borodin was returning to Russia by way of Chengchow, in the Province of Honan, then to the Province of Shensi and through Mongolia.

Michael Markovitch Borodin, a Russian, was appointed adviser to the Chinese Nationalist government at Hankow in 1925. His arrival at Hankow was celebrated by the labor unions with mass meetings.

Various reports early this year said Borodin had become one of the most influential men in the radical wing of the Hankow organization. But the radical and moderate wings of the Nationalist government split after the capture of Shanghai. Gen. Chiang Kai-Shek establishing a moderate government at Nanking.

Considerable dissatisfaction arose in Chinese quarters over Borodin's activities in the Hankow government and various demands for his withdrawal were made, the Nanking government joining the demand last month. Preparations for his departure followed.

Mme. Borodin also figured in the Chinese situation. She was captured by northern Chinese troops in March while traveling on a soviet steamer to join her husband. After remaining in prison until July she was released in Peking.

New Marriage and Adoption Laws Go in Effect Today

Los Angeles County Distinction Won

Unique Honors and New Homes Given Them

They Capture Last Local License Sold Under Old Statute

JUST under the wire, 18-year-old Evelyn Carpito and West Jeffcoat as the clock struck 5 yesterday afternoon, obtained the last marriage license to be issued in Los Angeles county under the old law "without notice."

Today the new law, requiring three days' notice of intention to wed before the issuance of a license, will go into effect. It means that Cupid will have a three-day rest, for no more licenses can be issued until Monday, when the period of notice on registration of intent taken today, will have expired.

Miss Carpito and her swain very nearly got no license at all. Rosamund Rice, marriage license deputy who took their application, was even more punctilious than usual yesterday, surmising that numerous youthful aspirants to matrimony might try to get licenses without notice on the last day possible.

"Where did you go to high school?" she demanded when she noted that the bride-elect admitted being only 18 years of age and looked a year or so younger.

"P-f-fremont High," the blushing girl stammered.

Miss Rice strode to her telephone forthwith and called the office of the Fremont High School. A hasty search of the card index failed to disclose any record of Miss Carpito. The bride-elect was faced with this. Followed involved explanations that since attending high school she had enrolled in a private school. The presence of an elder sister who supported the statement that she was in fact 18, saved the situation.

It was a busy day at the marriage license bureau. One hundred and thirty licenses were issued, not a record by far, but a great day's business. The record was established the day before Christmas, 1923, when the approach of Leap Year stimulated sensitive couples to hurry the event along a little.

Final Day of Old State Regulations Lucky to Infant Pair

BABIES Patsy Ann Thayer, 2 years of age, and William Charles Carleton, 4, yesterday enjoyed the distinction of being the last youngsters to be adopted in the local Juvenile Court under the old State adoption law, which at midnight was superseded by the new statute passed by the last Legislature.

Sounding the death knell of the old law brought a last-minute rush of babies with prospective new parents into the court of Judge C. P. Vicini of Amador county, who is here sitting for Judge Archbald while the latter is on his vacation.

Among those for whom a new vista of life opened with the signing of judicial decrees were Baby Patsy Ann, who became Patsy Ann Thayer, and Baby William Charles, who was adopted by Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Carleton of 1720 Phillips Way. Patsy Ann from now on will call Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Thayer of 845 West Sixty-second street papa and mamma. Patsy was the last girl and William the last boy in the long lines of babies who were officially given new homes and parents.

The new adoption law provides for several changes in the old statute. Principal among the provisions of the new law are those doing away with private relinquishments of children and sealing all papers in adoption cases from the eyes of the public.

The new law also provides that the State Welfare Commission will conduct an investigation of homes desiring babies for adoption and will file a report with Juvenile Court before any adoption is granted. The commission will have ninety days for reports.

Attorney George A. Hooper appeared yesterday for Mr. and Mrs. Carleton, while the adoption proceedings for Mr. and Mrs. Thayer were prepared by Attorney Walter T. Casey.

Great Legion Wreath Seen by Hundreds

With uncovered heads, hundreds of persons yesterday passed in review before the great memorial wreath of magnolia leaves which will be laid in loving tribute on the graves of the Unknown American Soldier in Arlington Cemetery and that of the Unknown French Soldier in Paris by members of the American Legion Auxiliary, which is on display at the California Hut, 1026 South Figueroa street.

Exhibition of the wreath will continue today, according to Mrs. Boyle Workman, founder of the Hut.

Honor of making the wreath, which will be cut in half and divided for the two graves, was accorded the disabled veterans of the California Hut, a Community Chest agency, by the national organization of the American Legion Auxiliary with headquarters in Indianapolis.

WIDER STREET ASKED

Property owners have petitioned the City Council to widen Yosemite Drive from Townsend avenue to Glacier Drive, to seventy feet.

OFFICIALS DUE MONDAY FOR SURVEY

Immigraeion Probems on Coast Will Be Studied by Federal Visitors

To make a survey of immigration and naturalization problems on the Pacific Coast, three members of a Congressional committee accompanied by Assistant Secretary of Labor Jones, will arrive here on the Chief Monday morning. They are Milton W. Shreve of Pennsylvania, chairman of the Sub-Appropriation Committee of the House of Representatives; W. B. Oliver of Alabama, and Anthony A. Griffin of New York City. Paul Malone, secretary of the Sub-Appropriation Committee, and Maj. Melvin Jones of Washington, chairman of the Budget Bureau, also are in the party.

They will be entertained Monday noon at a Chamber of Commerce luncheon. In the evening they will be dinner guests of District Director of Immigration Carr of Los Angeles. In the evening Sid Grauman is presenting an Indian chiefs' festival at the Chinese Theater in their honor. Collector of the Port Schwaebe, Judge Keating, Federal Judge Henning and District Director of Naturalization Jones will be associated with Carr on the reception committee.

Speaker Spends Day Swimming and at Studios

Yesterday afternoon the speaker made a trip to the Sawtelle Soldiers' Home to acquaint himself with conditions there, at the request of Representative Crail and with the Representative as guide.

Mr. Longworth inspected the barracks at the home, to replace which Congressman Crail hopes to obtain an appropriation for five modern fireproof buildings at the next session of Congress. The speaker's attention also was drawn to the various fires that have destroyed parts of the home during the past year.

The day was one of pleasure and entertainment for Mr. Longworth, who welcomed a rest after his rather strenuous program of the past week or so on the Coast. After lunching with Louis B. Mayer, he visited the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer and Fairbanks studios.

After spending the week-end in San Francisco, Mr. Longworth will begin his trip back to Cincinnati.

BOY SCOUT NEAR DEATH FROM BURN

Youths Find Can of Powder and Decide to Test It; Victim's Recovery Doubted

A can of black powder found by two Boy Scouts near the scene of blasting operations came near to causing the death of one of them yesterday. If he survives serious burns he will owe his life to the other Scout. The burned lad is Robert Brostrup, 12 years of age, 6456½ Lexington avenue. His recovery is not expected.

Brostrup and William Harris, 12, 2241½ South Hill street, have been in a Boy Scout camp in the Hollywood hills. Yesterday while wandering about they found the powder and decided to test it out by laying a train of it along the ground and setting it off with a match. The can of powder caught fire in Brostrup's hands, however, and he was enveloped in a burst of flame which burned his clothing from his body.

Harris threw him on the ground, rolled him till the fire was out, and then administered first-aid treatment. The burned boy was taken to Receiving Hospital, where the burns were dressed by Police Surgeon Kerry. The boys were absent from camp without leave, according to the scoutmaster, R. P. Rawley.

DAYS OF OLD WERE NOT SO COLD, TORRID TABLES TELL US

All and sundry who are inclined to the belief that the present run of high temperatures constituted the longest run of hot weather experienced in many a year in Los Angeles were referred yesterday to the records of some real hot spells by Col. H. B. Hersey, in charge of the local office of the United States Weather Bureau.

The present run of daily high temperature, dates back to the 17th inst., the maximum temperatures from that date until yesterday being, in degrees: 85, 92, 86, 83, 91, 88, 85, 87, 86, 86, 87 and 85. Throughout this period there has been practically no fog, as the weather man rates fog.

In July, 1926, there were thirteen consecutive days where the temperature ran above normal. The average normal temperature for July in Los Angeles is 71 deg. In July, 1925, there was a hot wave which, while not of so great duration as the present one, included five consecutive days of more than 90 deg. The record then reads from the 12th to the 19th of that month: 83, 88, 90, 96, 93, 92, 97, 88 and 84 deg.

In October of 1926 there were five consecutive days that ran 90, 97, 94 and 85 deg. and in August of that same year there was a stretch that ran 94, 96, 90, 102, 87 and 88 deg.

However, Col. Hersey continued, for a real torrid spell one need go back only to the year 1922 to get really warmed up. Beginning with August 19 of that year the thermometer went to 80 deg. and stayed there for three days in a row, meaning only maximum daily temperatures. Mr. Mercury became ambitious then and started to climb, the record showing for the days following: 81, 82, 86, 92, 90, 95, 90, 88, 85, 88, 88, with September 1 lugging along another 88, and then 85, 83, 80, 79, 83, 87, 86, 81, 77, 79, 80, 82, 84, 97, 102, 91, 81, 86, 87, 85, 85, 85, 95, 87 deg. At that point apparently the ball was passed and Old Sol scored a touchdown.

Then again in 1920 from July 25 to August 16 there was a stretch in which the thermometer never went down below 80 deg. for its daily maximum and there were plenty of 90's scattered about. In 1913, from September 9 to September 21, inclusive, there was not a day in which the daily maximum was below 80 deg., with some 90's and one day of 108 deg.

All of which shows, according to Col. Hersey, that there is much still to look forward to and that there need be no great rush in declaring the present mildly warm weather at an end. With yesterday's maximum of 85 deg., and a minimum of 64 deg., the forecast issued last night calls for "fair and warmer tonight and Friday."

MRS. M'PHERSON TO RESIGN FROM ANGELUS TEMPLE

Will Leave City for Evangelical Field as Soon as Successor Can be Chosen

Aimee Semple McPherson will abdicate her throne at Angelus Temple. She will submit her resignation to the church committee, now engaged in reorganizing business affairs within the temple, to become effective as soon as her position as pastor of the temple can be filled and the present difficulties in the church ironed out.

This announcement was made by Mrs. McPherson last night in an exclusive interview with representatives of The Times.

The founder of the Four Square Gospel declared that she would go permanently into the evangelical field and would not return to Los Angeles in the capacity of leader of Angelus Temple.

WILL LEAVE LOS ANGELES

Torn between the desire to continue her work here or spread her message to the world, the evangelist last night declared she had made her choice and would leave Los Angeles.

"I am going to resign," Mrs. McPherson said.

"My resignation will be placed in the hands of the committee shortly to take effect just as soon as we are able to find some one fitted to fill the pulpit at Angelus Temple, and to lead the congregation on to even greater success than the remarkable and substantial growth it has shown during the past six years.

"Also, it will be necessary for me to remain in charge until such time as the unfortunate difficulties between the church and my mother have been amicably settled.

"I do not know at this time just how long it will require to solve these main problems, but I am hoping that a new leader can be found and the church difficulties can be straightened out during the next three weeks."

IOWAN MAY SUCCEED HER

Rev. Marvin Craig of Des Moines, Iowa, may be the choice of the retiring evangelist as the pastor to take her place, members of Mrs. McPherson's family intimated last night.

Continuing her explanation of her intention to give up her permanent position at Angelus Temple, Mrs. McPherson said:

"It seems that ever since I escaped from those who kidnaped me I have been the center of a storm created by outside influences, who through heckling me have imperiled the wonderful institution we have builded through years of devotion and effort.

"With this in mind after a great deal of thought and much prayer I now feel that the best thing for the church and for myself is the course which I am now announcing.

"Although my personal inclination is to submit my resignation effective immediately, I feel it necessary to remain long enough to place the temple back on the even keel it enjoyed until our present trouble started a week ago. By doing so, I can leave the temple behind me representing a successful example of the Lord's work in the West, and always point to it as a model for the rest of the world to copy. If I leave at once I can only point to a near-failure."

SOBS OUT STORY

Mrs. McPherson, in announcing her decision to leave Los Angeles, broke down and wept, sobbing out a story of years of struggle and effort to achieve Angelus Temple, and its affiliated churches.

In announcing her plans to again enter the field of evangelism, Mrs. McPherson related her experience on the two recent tours of the East and Middle West, and which she said convinced her there was an opportunity to establish the principle of the creed she founded, The Four Square Gospel, throughout America and even in foreign countries.

She named Denver, Chicago and New York as the three principal cities from which the eastern and middle-western work would emanate.

Denver, she said, has started a movement to found a temple similar to Angelus Temple, where she would appear periodically, a resident pastor filling the permanent pulpit. The same plan would be carried out in the other two cities, she said.

In Canada, Mrs. McPherson's native country, at least three cities, including Toronto and Montreal, would

Mrs. Barrymore Improves Daily After Illness

Following an illness of two weeks' during which time two trained nurses were in constant attendance, Mrs. Lionel Barrymore, wife of the actor, yesterday was reported to be improving daily. One nurse has been dismissed and the patient is able to sit up. Her complete recovery is a matter of only a short time, it was said.

Mrs. Barrymore's illness was explained as a general worn-out condition attendant upon nervous disorders and it was said she had undergone several such attacks before.

Woman Hit by Street Car and Seriously Hurt

While attempting to cross Fifth street near Olive yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Ruth P. Purington, 23 years of age, of 728 Bedford Drive, Beverly Hills, was struck by a yellow street car and seriously injured.

According to witnesses Mrs. Purington stepped from behind an automobile into the path of the car. She was knocked to the pavement and dragged for several yards. Police Surgeon Blanchar at the Receiving Hospital, where she was taken, said that she had received internal injuries and body bruises.

BAIL-BOND ARRESTS MADE

Negro Broker and Detective Accused as Vagrants; Further Exposures Anticipated

Marking the first action by police in the war on bail bond runners and cappers, two men were arrested yesterday in the corridors of the Hall of Justice and lodged in jail on charges of vagrancy. At the same time efforts were being made by Attorney Tom O'Brien to locate Charles Mallaby, arrested Wednesday on charges of extortion and obtaining money under false pretense, who is scheduled to be arraigned this morning.

The men arrested yesterday were Gordón Wellington, 35 years of age, a former employee of a local private detective agency, and George S. Brown, colored bondsman with offices at 1314 Newton street. Both men were booked at Central Station on charges of vagrancy and will be arraigned today and that he still is in Judge Bush. Brown immediately posted $100 bail and was released.

Wellington was arrested yesterday morning by Officers Fogarty, Rathbun and Johnson of the police vagrancy squad detailed to the Hall of Justice when Municipal Judge Turney revealed conditions existing in the courts as a result of the asserted activities of bail-bond runners and cappers. They arrested Brown late yesterday afternoon.

STILL IN CUSTODY

Dep. Dist.-Atty. Thoms, who ordered the arrest of Mallaby, taken after a spectacular leap for liberty from a downtown office building, stated yesterday that the man will be arraigned today and that he is still in custody. Attorney Tom O'Brien, retained by Mrs. Mallaby, who also sought to see her husband yesterday, indicated that he will swear out a writ of habeas corpus unless he is able to see his client. After a conference with Mr. Thoms, in which Mr. O'Brien was told he could see Mallaby if he could find him, it was indicated the writ will not be taken out.

Judge Turney was preparing yesterday to go before Dep. Dist.-Atty. Murray with Deputy City Prosecutor Higgins to lay new revelations before him for grand-jury presentation. The new developments in the present expose are said to center upon A. H. Mauer, an attorney with offices at 907 South Spring street, who was brought

INDIAN BLOOD

Mrs. Stillman is very magnanimous in that she is willing to stand for a little Indian blood on the part of her new daughter-in-law.

But the Iroquois have not been interviewed on the subject. Possibly they might not be so complacent.

INDIAN LAND

As usual, the white men who are trying to steal an Indian reservation are excused with a gentle pat on the wrist.

No one blessed with human intelligence believes for one instant that the cattle strayed "by accident onto the Modoc reservation in Northern California—nearly starting another Indian war in the process.

Incidentally, these are bad babies with which to monkey. In the Modoc war Capt. Jack made the army look foolish. He contributed an uncomfortable chapter to the military history of the United States.

A very unusual accomplishment by the way.

Our civilization is hooked up to such a terrific pace that we have forgotten how to relax.

That is why golf is the greatest boon that ever came to America; it gives American men a kind of play that is made of purposeful effort and calculation. It is folly to expect them to find amusement in just doing nothing.

Bishop Here to Extend Drive for Hospital

Bishop Charles Wesley Burns of the San Francisco area of the Methodist Episcopal Church met yesterday with the cabinet of the Southern California conference and the board of directors of the local Methodist Hospital and officially extended the hospital financial campaign, which has been carried on during the summer.

Although the drive for funds was closed Wednesday, the board of directors of the hospital deemed it necessary that it be extended to accommodate persons interested in the local institution, who are now on vacations.

It was brought out by Superintendent Reynolds of the Methodist Hospital that the recent campaign has provided funds sufficient to meet emergency summer accounts.

WAS SHE DRUNK? YES, SAY POLICE

Mrs. Irvine So Accused by Motorcycle Officers

Derisive Waggle of Fingers Offered as Evidence

Others Say Leg Outside Car Convinced Them

To the mind of the constabulary of Orange county if a lady waggles her fingers at a policeman in a certain traditional gesture, why she must be intoxicated.

This much, at least, was established yesterday at proceedings before Judge Guerin in the bitter divorce contest in his court between James Irvine, Jr., and his wife, Madeline Irvine.

There was very little talk about co-respondents and such items yesterday, although the pleadings of the case are replete with references to such personages, but a great deal of conversation around the question, "When is a lady drunk?" For Mrs. Irvine's case having been rested at noon, Irvine proceeded to put on testimony in support of his cross-complaint for divorce. From the character of the testimony he adduced it was evident that his answer to the moot question of the day provided the lady in question was his wife, would be "Always."

THE HIGH SIGN

Motorcycle policemen were the star witnesses of the session—traffic cops from Los Angeles and Orange counties. Unanimously they reported having seen Mrs. Irvine in various stages of what they interpreted as intoxication. Attorney Louis Pink, counsel for Mrs. Irvine, in turn subjected each to a searching examination of his qualifications as an expert detector of intoxication. To the stand came Officer Peterkin, stalwart preserver of the peace and decorum on the highways of Orange county.

"And what makes you think Mrs. Irvine was drunk?" demanded Counselor Ping suavely.

"Well, counselor, here's what makes me sure she was drunk," replied Officer Peterkin. "She was driving wild. Lots of folks do that, of course, without being drunk, I know that. So I caught up with her and signaled her to stop. She did this."

Thereupon Officer Peterkin placed a somewhat oily thumb firmly against a nose ruddy from exposure to the rays of the Orange county sun, spread his fingers out, then waggled them briskly.

"That proves to me she was drunk. Anyone that does that to a traffic officer has to be drunk," opined Officer Peterkin dryly.

LEG OUT OF AUTO

There were two traffic officers from Santa Monica who swore Mrs. Irvine was drunk in their jurisdiction the night before New Year's day of 1924. They thought so because they had spied her riding in a coupe with her husband, and arguing with him. Her leg was hanging out of the right-hand door, they said, and she was debating on the negative side of the proposition, "Resolved, That we go home." These circumstances, combined with a certain display of truculence, persuaded them she was drunk, they said.

In the morning Attorney Pink who, in Mrs. Irvine's complaint had refrained from naming any names, filed a bill of particulars in support of her charges that her spouse had been "cheating," in which he named no fewer than five, which is just one more than the number of men named by Irvine in his cross-complaint. These persons whom Mrs. Irvine alleges to have tampered with Irvine's affections were named as Mrs. Schuyler, Miss Ruth Robinson, Miss Lucille Johnsonbaugh, Miss Ruth Baldwin and Miss Athelie Richardson.

Much of the morning session was taken up with discussion of the size of Irvine's fortune and the financial needs of Mrs. Irvine. She maintained stoutly that she could get along on nothing less than $1000 per month, and that Irvine is well able to provide her with this much out of an estate she contends is worth $5,000,000. Trial of the case will continue today, when Irvine's case will be resumed.

WAITING FOR HOME SOMEWHERE

Her Mother Couldn't Care for Her

GOLDIE, they named her out at Children's Home Society where a young mother left her one gray morning. And Goldie she is, in truth, as precious as the metal whose name she bears. There is gold in her hair, the blue of the sky in her eyes and her cheeks are like the petals of a pink rose.

Above her crib in the nursery of the Community Chest agency hangs a cage with a golden canary, the gift of the little mother who found life's burden too heavy to carry for two. So, one day at dawn, she took the babe to the home.

"I can't go on any longer," the young mother sobbed. "I want the baby to have a good home where they will love her and bring her up right."

HAROLD LLOYD SUED FOR CRASH DAMAGES

Suit for $8105 against Harold Lloyd and another defendant named only as John Doe, was filed yesterday in Superior Court by Maria C. Tuffs of Santa Monica. She suffered cuts and bruises which necessitated $605 worth of medical treatment, and asks $2500 damages in addition.

EXPERIMENT FATAL

Man's Death Believed Due to Medicine of His Own Making

While in search of a new formula intended to relieve stomach trouble, J. Kendrick Parks, 1725 Park avenue and formerly of Edna, Tex., died last night after an experiment with his own medicine, police announced after they had been called to that address by his landlady, Mrs. Maud Allen.

Investigating officers reported that Mrs. Allen grew suspicious when Parks remained locked in a room several hours after telling her of his experiment. When Detective Lieutenants Condaffer and Hickey broke down the door they found Park dead with his mouth full of a solution identical with that filling a wash-pan on the floor. An autopsy will be performed today.

CINDERELLA SOUGHT FOR KNIGHTS' CIRCUS

preparation yesterday as the receivers of the Julian Petroleum Corporation struck out again in their effort to recover the vast sums received by pool operators.

Adolph Ramish, millionaire capitalist and theater magnate, whose activities as a money lender in the crash of the corporation brought him an indictment from the grand jury, will be made the target for the largest civil suit to be filed by the receivers, it was reported.

In all, a civil suit demanding the return of $3,865,136 to the Julian corporation will be filed against him shortly, it was reliably reported, unless he makes arrangements to pay without facing a civil trial. The sum to be demanded of Ramish in the suit, according to reliable sources, represents a bonus of $1,400,000 which he is said to have received from his pool operations and another $2,800,000 on top of that which the law permits in cases where usury is proved in a civil action. In addition, the action also will demand the return of 278,000 shares of Julian stock which Ramish is said to have in his possession at the present time.

AWAIT REFUNDS

At the office of the Julian receivers, Joseph Scott and H. L. Carnahan, it was admitted that three of the largest civil actions yet undertaken in the effort to recover usurious interest were planned. These suits, it was stated, will not be filed if the defendants come in and make refunds of the money thus obtained. Otherwise, the courts will be requested to settle them in legal fashion and to impose the penalties to which usurers are liable.

However, S. C. Lewis, resigned and indicted president of the corporation, frankly admitted that the suit against Ramish was in preparation and that he was sending over all checks and other records covering Ramish's activities to the receivers for use in the preparation of the complaint.

Two other usury complaints, each running to the $300,000 mark, also are under consideration by the receivers, they admitted. These also, however, will be withheld should those accused appear to make voluntary restitution.

At the same time, City Prosecutor Lickley announced that fifteen new misdemeanor complaints, all charging usury, were being rapidly completed in his office and will probably be filed today before Municipal Judge Wilson. They are all aimed at the smaller fry in the Julian debacle, he stated.

STUDY REHABILITATION

In the meantime, satisfactory progress was reported in the study of the program for the financial rehabilitation of the Julian corporation as outlined by Lewis. The latter conferred most of the afternoon yesterday with the three members of the special committee appointed by the directors of the California-Eastern Oil Company to study the plan and expressed himself as quite satisfied with its work and the progress it was making.

In response to the publication of grand jury testimony in which Lewis declared that the Julian corporation had secured a loan through Herbert Fleishacker and Paul Shoup, Mr. Shoup issued a statement at Klamath Falls, Or., in which he denied the assertion in substance.

Mr. Shoup stated that the only loan to the Julian corporation with which he had any connection was incident to the sale of stock of the Marine Oil Corporation by the Associated Oil Company to the Julian corporation. The Associated had a substantial holding of stock of the Marine corporation and Mr. Shoup is president of the Associated.

The loan, he added, was a normal business transaction, adequately secured by mortgage on the Julian property. No officer or employee of the Associated received any compensation for this loan.

TESTIFY TO MAYER'S ANGER OVER SUM OF $65,000

Further perusal of the grand-jury transcript taken during the official investigation of the Julian stock overissue hearing discloses a number of financial tilts in the loan and pool operations.

Louis B. Mayer, motion-picture producer, threw considerable consternation into the ranks of the financiers in Pool No. 1 when he demanded $65,000 which he claimed was owing to him from the agreement. Alvin H. Frank, broker, said that he and Joe Toplitzky and others had withdrawn from the pool and aroused Mr. Mayer's anger, whereupon the latter made a demand upon Lewis for his $65,000.

Lewis called in Toplitzky, according to the testimony, and told him of Mr. Mayer's anger and a threat that the moving-picture man was going to withdraw his money from a local bank, against which he also was angered.

After many futile attempts to obtain the loan of the $65,000 to pacify Mayer, Frank testified a loan was arranged. Later the money was paid over to Mayer, who, according to Frank's testimony, said "that there really was more due him but that he was perfectly satisfied to take that because he wanted to get out."

"Did you afterward pay off all the money that you borrowed?" Frank was asked.

In answer Frank stated the loan was paid, but admitted that Jack Bennett left him and Toplitzky in the lurch for $10,000 unpaid when Bennett suddenly departed a few days before the crash.

BARNESON ON STAND

Harold Barneson, a broker, before the grand jury denied he had any knowledge of an overissue of Julian stock, but admitted that his firm, of which C. C. Streeter is a partner, dealt heavily in the securities. In his testimony he disclosed that his firm came in possession of a fifty-share certificate of "bum" stock which led to a suit with Bennett.

In discussing the volume of stock handled by the Barneson-Streeter partnership, Barneson was asked:

"But isn't it a fact that there were larger blocks of stock being sold than you bought through the exchange? You were aware of that fact?"

"No, no, no," Barneson replied.

"It didn't occur to you?"

"No."

"When you were getting large blocks of stock over from Bennett?"

"No."

A Juror: "Innocents Abroad!"

"Mr. Barneson, it has been reported to this jury that your firm made something over $1,000,000 in less than a year dealing in Julian stock."

"Well, if they did I didn't get my 'cut.'"

HACKEL TESTIFIES

A. W. Hackel, 752 South Bronson avenue, offered the following sidelight on his dealings with Bennett in grand jury testimony:

Question: And how many times have you loaned Bennett money; how many different transactions?

Answer: Well, in the last three or four months I have exchanged checks with Mr. Bennett a number of times.

Q.: That is to say Bennett would date his check ahead of date—?

A.: No, he would get me on the phone and beg me to come down to try to buy stock from him or go into certain pools, which I refused. So, being as he couldn't do anything with me that way, he has asked me to loan him $25,000 for a day or so, or something like that, and he would give me his check in return, until he finally 'hooked' me for $92,000 before he left.

In an effort to reach the golden source of the pool operations and the profits derived therefrom, the grand jury asked I. L. Rouse, a banker, concerning the source of the reported excess profits of $12,000,000 to $18,000,000 as reported to the jury.

"I don't know," he replied, according to the transcript, "Lewis always informed me he had a number of associates who could dig up several million dollars any time it was needed, but that he wanted to run things without calling on those associates, if he could.

Q.: Well, that represents more than 600,000 shares of stock at an average price, doesn't it?—$18,000,000. And do you imagine that that money was paid out in profit and went back again into the stock market?

A.: Well, that is a mystery to me, where the money did go. I never knew anything outside of the pools I handled. My mind was ruffled enough in handling what pools I did.

Q.: Did not that money, in your opinion, come from the public?

TWO ARRESTS IN BAIL-BOND WAR

to the notice of authorities by the stories of three men sentenced Wednesday by Judge Turney for Wright Act violations.

"FIXING" FEE MOOTED

According to Judge Turney the new developments occurred when Max Ayres came before the court on liquor-law charges and was sentenced to one year and ninety days and in addition fined $500 or twenty-five days. When sentence was passed, Judge Turney said, the defendant told the court that he had paid, together with his brother and one other defendant, $750 to Attorney Mauer to "fix" the case. The attorney never appeared before the court in any of the three cases, Judge Turney said yesterday.

Fred Ayres, the brother, and Harry Blanch were given sentences of seventy days in jail and $500 or fifty days respectively. Blanch paid his fine and yesterday appeared before Judge Turney and Prosecutor Higgins to verify Max Ayres's statements made in open court. Blanch further said, that acting on advice of Maurice Jones, bondsman with C. A. Jones & Co., who told him the cases could not be fixed, he returned to the attorney's office and was given back $600 of the $750.

Wellington, one of the two men arrested on vagrancy charges yesterday, is said to have admitted to the arresting officers that he had been out of work for some time and that he was hanging around the courts looking for business for the detective firm by which he was formerly employed. Officers said they found a gun holster under his coat and pawn tickets for a gun and a ring in his possession.

Brown protested his arrest, saying that he is in business here and was legitimately in the Hall of Justice when arrested. Later he said that he had a defendant in one of the courts and was bound by his company to report disposition of all cases.

NEW EVIDENCE EXPECTED

New testimony implicating numerous bail-bond houses is expected to be placed before the grand jury at its next meeting, Monday morning, according to Dep. Dist.-Atty. Forrest Murray, who is in charge of the investigation.

Murray is taking advantage of the brief grand-jury recess to obtain statements from witnesses and preparing the evidence, the nature of which he refused to disclose.

"I know that I am on the verge of one of the most sensational exposes of the District Attorney's office," Murray said. "I am going to the bottom of this proposition and will not give quarter to anyone. We will not stop until the guilty ones are prosecuted."

LONG BEACH LAUNCHES BAIL-BOND INQUIRY

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

LONG BEACH, July 28.—An investigation of the methods practiced by bail-bond brokers in Long Beach was launched today by City Manager Callahan, following complaints lodged with his office by one bail-bond representative of asserted graft and unprofessional conduct, on the part of competitors.

"If there is any graft going on involving any member of the police department and the shyster type of bail-bond broker, we are going to know all about it and put an end to it," City Manager Callahan declared today, following a conference with a representative of one of the local bail-bond companies who had made complaint. "I do not know that such conditions exist but complaints received at my office have caused me to order a thorough investigation. I wish the judges here would bar bondsmen from their courtrooms," he said.

One complaint intimated that a member of the police department was "splitting" fees with a certain bail-bond broker doing business here. No formal affidavit to that effect has been filed with the City Manager, however, it was said.

(3.) Make such additional findings and orders, issue such further certificates and grant such other and further relief in furtherance of the relief herein asked for as the commission may find to be just and equitable and in the public interest.

Dated at Los Angeles, California, this 26th day of July, 1927. City of Los Angeles. By Jess E. Stephens, City Attorney. By Milton Bryan, Deputy City Attorney. Max Thelen, special counsel.

The railroads are expected to file with the Interstate Commerce Commission an answer opposing the granting of the union depot order asked for by the city. In view of the commission's union depot decision of 1925, it is predicted that the railroads will lose before the commission. The railroads then may either take the case to the Supreme Court of the United States for a final decision, as threatened, or bow to the will of the people of the city, and to the California and Federal commissions and proceed with their surveys and plans for a depot as outlined in the State and Federal commission's orders.

HONEYMOON TOUR ENDS IN ARREST

Angeleno Accused of Financing Costly Wedding With Fictitious Checks

A whirlwind courtship followed by lavish wedding gifts and an expensive wedding tour brought grief to Carleton W. Adler, 28 years of age, of Los Angeles, yesterday, with his arrest in Red Fork, Okla., charged with paying for his luxurious honeymoon with fictitious checks.

According to Deputy Sheriffs King and Shafer, Adler started his spending spurge in Los Angeles, where he bought an expensive diamond engagement ring and wedding ring for his bride, from Kinsey & Elliott, jewelers. He also bought a select dinner set as a wedding gift and paid for the lot with a check for $550 which was dishonored by the bank the officers assert.

Next, according to officers, he purchased an expensive sedan from Louis Englehart, automobile dealer. He obtained possession of the car by presenting a check for $350, which Deputy Sheriffs King and Shafer declare remains unpaid.

Then, prepared for his honeymoon, Adler paid his rent in an exclusive apartment-house at Third and Olive streets, with a check for $180.

That night he left Los Angeles with his bride and went to Riverside, where they were married at the Mission Inn. An elaborate wedding feast followed. The groom paid the bill the following morning with a check for $119, and departed on a honeymoon tour of the United States.

BULLOCK'S AUGUST CLEARANCE

"The One Sale of the Year"

Expressive of the Spirit of Bullock's August Clearance

The following is a reprint of the letter from Mr. John G. Bullock, to the members of Bullock's organization, prior to the commencement of Bullock's August Clearance—Monday, August 1.

"IT may be that some of you who read this have never been with Bullock's during August. If this is so, I hope you will gather all the inspiration you can from those around you—from whatever meetings may be held—in fact, in every way that you can, so that when Monday morning, August 1, arrives, you will be ready—prepared to render service the Bullock Way, to satisfy customers and to make friends for yourself and this business.

"If you have never been at Bullock's in August, and have never known Bullock's August Clearance from the standpoint of a customer, you are probably destined to be surprised --- for this month assumes volume importance in the annals of this business, second only to December, and it has reached this volume after twenty years of keeping faith with Bullock principles upon which it was founded in August, 1907.

" 'The One Sale of the Year' is as insistent upon standards as is every other period of Bullock's calendar.

"There are many things that Bullock's will not do to secure volume, nor will Bullock's August Clearance do these things.

"No matter how low the price, there is a quality minimum below which August will not go.

" 'The Ideals of this business must not be sacrificed to gain.'

"While Bullock's August Clearance has been a consistent builder of sales in increasing volume as the years have gone by, it has, at the same time consistently made and kept friends for Bullock's.

"This has been due to the outpouring of real sincerity, and personality and heart interest of our store organization that has accompanied the outpouring of values.

"I hope that this year will reach a new climax in the effectiveness with which Bullock's will supplement sales with Service in this great event, causing it to become better known than it has ever been as a source of courtesy and real friendship, as well as a treasure house of merchandise offerings and opportunities.

"This can be, if every member of our organization will recognize that each one of us has a very definite and particular responsibility for---as well as interest in---success.

"I can ask you all for nothing that is easier to give, and yet for nothing that will mean more towards making this August just the kind of month we all want it to be---than that we make up our own minds, individually and collectively, to let no act of attention or courtesy to a customer be too small for willing and eager performance---a demonstration of 'The Bullock Way' of Friendship and of Service---an exemplification of the Bullock ideal, which is:

" 'To build a business that will never know completion but that will advance continually to meet advancing conditions—

" 'To develop stocks and service to a notable degree—

" 'To create a personality that will be known for its strength and friendliness.

" 'To arrange and co-ordinate activities to the end of winning confidence by meriting it—

THE CUP RUNNING OVER

What a pleasure it is to carry a message from California to other parts of the United States and even to foreign countries! There are in such a message no "buts" nor "ifs," but only "ands" and more "ands"—it is a story with no apologies and every eagerly told truth is a proud boast. It is a privilege to travel among American neighbors and to unfold for them the bright picture of an empire more beautiful than a dream, more fruitful than the cornucopia of Ceres and Pomona, more industrious than an army of Herculean youths engaged in 200 times twelve great labors.

Go forth, lovers of the Southland, and tell the world all that you have written down in your catalogue of California realities and promises. Say to your hosts and their friends that you have found the living romance of the South Seas, Venice, the Riviera from Nice to Spezia, Naples on the purple bay and America's own Hawaiian isles wrapped into one golden parcel of glad sunstrewn days and moonstruck nights.

Do not forget to disclose to them the threading of all these gifts of nature with the sturdy cables of man's industry which have firmly anchored here all the best things of modern life not to be found in other scenes of fabled romance.

In short, Southland brothers and sisters, make them all envious without making them jealous. Pile one truth upon another until their desire to visit Southern California is so intense that they ache all over. Tell them that this Golden State is the gateway to a new era of blessed civilization around the shores of the grand Pacific that hugs the richest, fairest lands man's eyes have ever seen. Prove, as you can, that this Pacific era is already in full sway and that not only does California lie closely held on the lap of the gods, but men have built between its lordly ranges and along its sunny strand a realm of industry and progress that challenges while it invites.

THE PUBLIC WINS

The extent to which labor unionism has been reduced in importance in the formerly union-ridden city of New York was shown when the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employees backed down the other day after a short talk with Mayor Walker and agreed not to call a strike that threatened to paralyze the city's transportation system.

What the Mayor said to the union leaders that caused this prompt about-face was not made public, but it can be guessed: He told them that the police would permit no violence.

Certainly the concessions made by the employing companies at the Mayor's behest were not sufficient to bring about the abandonment of the strike. All the amalgamated got was the reinstatement of half a dozen of its members who had been discharged for insubordination and it had to agree in return not to attempt any interference with the "company unions" into which many, if not most, of the street railway, elevated and subway employees are organized. These company unions are not affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

For years New York struggled along under the burden of strike after strike, while the policy of the governing forces was to let employer and employee fight it out and not to interfere to preserve order unless violence involved others than the actually contending parties. Then—the occasion was a big strike of Brooklyn street-car employees—there was a sudden change of policy. Somebody suddenly decided that the protection of life and property under all circumstances was, after all, the paramount duty of the police department; the street cars were sent out with an adequate blue-coat guard, and the strike collapsed within a week.

It was demonstrated then and there that a strike without violence simply could not be won by the strikers. The policy then adopted was kept in force and was found to work, with even such a rough-neck crowd as the members of the longshoremen's union. New York has not had a really serious strike since.

A STRIKING PERSONALITY

One of the most interesting figures in Continental Europe is Thomas Garrigue Masaryk, recently re-elected President of of Czecho-Slovakia," will remain at the helm seven years this striking personage, called by his compatriots "the George Washington of Czecho-Slovakia," will remain at the helm of state, that is, if he lives through his term of office, which he says he will do, though he is 77 years old and is beginning to show signs of official wear and tear.

President Masaryk is probably the best-educated of all the chief officials of the continent. He is the author of brilliant historical essays, an authority on philosophic and political systems, a connoisseur of classic literature and an all-round scholar and statesman. He is not a fluent, but slow and exceedingly effective speaker, evincing great tolerance on all political questions, and is fair to his adversaries. He always presents both sides of a subject and makes due allowance for their good points. At the same time his deductions are clear and generally impressive. He is a commoner and is said to be the only President of a European republic who does not wear a silk hat.

One readily can understand what makes this high official so popular with his countrymen, for everywhere there is a growing dislike of intolerance and official pomp. All Americans would not approve of him, for after a first-hand study of this country, in which he was educated, he holds that we are too intent upon material affairs and too little interested in the spiritual side of life. But as this is a criticism which our native idealists often make of us it is only another evidence of Masaryk's scholarly discernment, and what we need to do is not to condemn his views of us, but to profit by them.

FOREIGN TRADE INDICATIONS

Sponsors of foreign loans as investment outlets for American funds have cited among other declared advantages the probability of increase in American exports due to the foreign borrower's inclination to buy where he has credit. However, the current figures do not appear to bear this out.

Conservative estimates are that American foreign loans have run recently at the rate of roughly $1,000,000,000 a year. Gigantic loans have been made in 1927. In June American exports were $60,000,000 less than in January. Up to March of the last fiscal year monthly excesses of $60,000,000 were the rule. Since March export excesses have averaged less than $30,000,000 a month, until in June there was no excess at all. A continuance of this situation would prove serious for the American exporter. There has been no change in the loan practice. The difference may be accounted for by domestic gains abroad.

Britain was harassed for a considerable part of the fiscal year ending June 30 by the disastrous coal strike. At the same time France was badly off in the exchange rate. With these economic problems facing England and France, American exports for the year reached an excess of $715,000,000, better than the previous year by a margin of $428,000,000. Unsatisfactory economic conditions abroad had resulted in the decrease of American imports and an accompanying increase in exports. Foreign loans in recent months have been heavy enough to bring results if the theory that foreign loans increase exports is sound.

American business should be grateful that it has the tariff barrier to fall back upon now that Europe has been financed by American capital in the billions. American money will be used abroad to build up the economic structure and with prevailing low-level European wages it would not be long before cheap foreign products would begin to pour into America to throw domestic workers out of their employment were there no tariff wall standing between the American worker and the rejuvenated industries of Europe. Britain's coal strike is over. France's franc has risen.

When the United States settles down to the business of collecting interest on loans and instead of sending billions abroad annually gets millions due in payments it is unlikely that there will be any considerable excess in exports. The tariff will be the salvation of the American worker's good job and high wages, menaced by the cheaper products made by cheaper foreign labor.

The protective tariff is not only an established American economic principle which has contributed greatly to the upbuilding of the industrial structure of the United States, but it is so well fitted to conditions in this country that every period has found it proper and necessary. Recently some old-time adherents of the protective policy have carelessly suggested that it might no longer be needed, by reason of our prosperity.

It will be needed very shortly much more than now, but even at the present moment it is one of the fundamentals of the American standard of living. And because our capitalists have been busy financing keen competition abroad with surplus earnings of American labor American labor cannot afford to consider any withdrawal whatever from the principle of industrial protection afforded by the tariff. If Americans see fit not to protect their surpluses by American investment they need all the more the protection of new income.

USEFULNESS OF BEARS

S. C. Lewis, former head of the now defunct Julian Petroleum Corporation, complained before the grand jury, according to testimony just received, that a certain firm of stockbrokers had started a bear campaign against that company and had brought about its collapse in spite of every effort to sustain the market and thus defeated the various bull pool operations.

Mr. Lewis seemed to think the grand jury should do something about it. What the grand jury should do is plain; it should give the brokers a vote of thanks. Had their operations been successful earlier the public would have been saved a vast amount of money.

There is public prejudice against bears. But here is a case where their usefulness is apparent. At the time the campaign set in in earnest, Lewis said, there was no more than an overissue of some 200,000 shares of Julian Preferred. The collapse of the company at that time and exposure of the overissue would have prevented the subsequent overissues and permitted a reorganization with small loss to the stockholders. As it was, the collapse came too late to save thousands.

Lewis's irritation at the bear brokers is understandable if naïve. Had they, or some other bear operators, not intervened Lewis and Berman might still have been putting out freshly printed Julian stock at high prices and the losses of the public might have been still greater.

The overissue of Julian stock by Julian officials was the major cause of the company's financial difficulties and beside this all the other unlawful things that were done were but peccadilloes.

NEW BUILDING NEEDED

The grand jury's annual denunciation of the inadequate and disgraceful central police building on First street has reached the City Hall. The Mayor and the new City Council are thus furnished with an opportunity to do something constructive for the city.

The new City Hall is scheduled to be in complete use by next February 1, and the present City Hall will then be empty. A suggestion worthy of consideration is that the city should sell the old City Hall and the police station on First street and with the proceeds buy a site in the civic center and build thereon a modern central police station and jail. Half of such a building could be used for the health department and its clinics, which, most properly, should not be housed in the new City Hall. With the health department occupying one-half of the police administration building, with separate entrances, the International Building at Temple and Spring streets, now occupied by the health depart tment, could be torn down. This building is now an obstacle to the civic center plans and entirely blocks the north side of the new City Hall.

By this method of financing the city could secure a modern, adequate central police administration and health department building without the necessity of a bond issue.

GIVING THE BEST

He who withholds his best for tomorrow will find opportunity shying at him. The world wants to get what it sees. It looks askance at what is down behind or "just as good." It wants what it finds on the bargain counter, whether it be the decoy or not. If goods are juggled custom oozes out.

A farmer sorted his apples over each week and his family ate the rotten ones. As a result they never ate anything else during the entire winter. He who always holds back his best until it has decayed and become the worst always gives his worst.

The orange peddler or realtor who always gives his best always has his best to give. His seconds become his best in time. The customer appreciates that he always gets the best in stock and is satisfied. And a satisfied customer is the highest asset in business.

The orator who saves his best for another occasion soon finds himself without an audience for his best when he gets around to it. Holding too many reserves has defeated many a campaign. It is poor strategy. Grant was always rushing into positions where he had nothing but victory as a way of escape. He was criticised; but he won.

Who lets seconds become his rule lets down a notch. Ideas and meat unused spoil. Sermons and milk carried over sour. Dealing in seconds secures seconds in clientele.

POCKETS

By James J. Montague

If you believe a lad of ten
Has got a reasoning mind,
Turn out his pockets now and then
And probably you'll find
A dozen shingle nails, a top,
A roll of frazzled string—
A somewhat humid lemon drop,
A battered napkin ring,
An angle worm, extremely dead—
Some bits of broken rock,
A knife, a spool of dirty thread—
And fragments of a clock.

If you believe in woman's chance
To rival man in brains
Just through her handbag cast a glance;
It probably contains:
A letter, six or eight weeks old,
A postage stamp or two,
Some scraps of dress goods, tightly rolled
Of many a modish hue,
A make up box, a novelette,
A bill for last week's gas,
A tiny manicuring set,
Six buttons and a glass.

To prove that man is wise and bright
And keen in intellect—
Just turn his pockets out some night
And shortly you'll collect:
A fountain pen, completely dry,
A knife that will not cut—
A recipe for Scotch and Rye,
A book called "How to Putt."
Four keys to locks long gone to rust,
Five crumpled dollar bills—
A handkerchief, extremely mussed,
And seven pepsin pills!

Preferred Stock

SAN PEDRO, July 26.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Your editorial in reference to the Julian Petroleum Corporation and the overissue of stock is well taken. There is also another question of great importance to thousands of stockholders in other corporations that deserves consideration.

It is generally held by financiers and responsible brokers that preferred stock in any corporation is similar to a first mortgage and that in case of dissolution, forced or voluntary, after the legal authorized debts are paid the preferred stock receives its share and if there is anything left it goes to the common stock. The Julian preferred stock is not entitled to any dividends, only 5 per cent interest; it has no voting power and no voice in the management. It is held by corporation lawyers that the overissue in Julian stock is the same as a creditor, therefore, if the holders of overissued stock file damage suits based on what they paid for their stock and interest they would be entitled to collect from the assets of the corporation. Accordingly in case of dissolution the legal claims being paid first, the damage claims of overissued would next be paid and if anything is left it would go to the preferred. How can the preferred, having no voice in the management, be held responsible for the misdeed of the officials of the corporation? This is, as stated, an important question which should be made clear for the benefit of all of those who invest in corporation stock.

Preferred stock is generally favored by investors on account of its security, but if it is held to be responsible for the misdeeds of the officials whom it has no voice in electing, why invest in preferred?

Individually, Collectively

LOS ANGELES, July 25.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Suppose nobody cared.

Then all Los Angeles would look like:

The trash-strewn vacant lots.
The shabby street parkings.
The Southwest Museum hill.
The Los Angeles and Pacific Electric railway private rights of way.
Our parks on Monday morning.
The grade school grounds (nearly all.)

Individually Los Angeles has been made a city beautiful. Collectively, in all cases publicly controlled, it is a city hideous.

Let's all care.

Judge Lindsey Radioed

SOUTH PASADENA, July 25.—[To the Editor of The Times:] While tuned in to KMTR last night I was amazed to hear the announcement that they proposed to broadcast Judge Lindsey's proposal to have trial marriages—his talk will take place next Sunday night.

We know that in the mind of the young people today marriage is not considered even a serious thing, to say nothing of being sacred. Is a great newspaper like The Times going to stand by and permit a talk like this to be put over and lower standards still more?

It should be stopped, even if it has to be done by a legal injunction on the grounds of contributing to the delinquency of the young people, not by a few as is done in dives, but by the thousands who listen to what comes over the radio. I am not a religious crank—I do not even belong to church and seldom attend church. But I have been living with my one and only wife for many, many years and do not consider marriage an incident, a convenience or a fight to a finish, but a sacred obligation.

The Film Colony

HOLLYWOOD, July 24.—[To the Editor of The Times:] "Inside Facts," a Hollywood screen publication, stated recently that film companies were thinking of moving away from Hollywood on account of the power exercised by Mr. Joseph M. Schenck, whom it calls the "new Hollywood Czar." This is crass sensationalism. The much-discussed problem of cutting down film production without spoiling the quality of the pictures has caused some irritation in the film colony. The idea that the studios are leaving Hollywood to escape Schenck's rule is a pipe dream. Real estate values have more than trebled in Hollywood and new studio sites being in demand they must be sought in more distant parts of Los Angeles. The picture, like any other industry, must be regulated by financial considerations.

HOT-DOGLESS VILLAGE

When a boy doesn't bite a hot dog it's news.

The boys of Scarsdale will bite no more "weenies," will stuff themselves no longer with peanuts and never again will top off these in-between meals with cooling drinks of lemon soda. The village board recently passed an ordinance, without a dissenting vote, banning forever from their village hot dog stands, peanut venders and kindred purveyors of digestive dynamite to the splendid youth of Scarsdale.

Mrs. Ruth Johnson, only woman trustee of the board, loosed the hot dogs of war at a recent meeting. As her trump, Mrs. Johnson presented testimony from Coach Clinton Leonard, in charge of physical training at the high school, that hot dogs and cold drinks after practice were ruining the training of his teams.

Village Engineer Arthur Boniface argued that there were hardships enough in childhood as it is, but Mrs. Johnson countered that boys didn't know what was good for them anyway.—[New York World.

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

Hiccoughs

By putting the blade of a table knife on the tongue and leaving it there for a few minutes, obstinate hiccoughs will invariably be checked.

Fuller's Earth

Fuller's earth sprinkled on the grease stain on the silk dress and allowed to stay there overnight will frequently take out the stain and no further treatment is necessary.

The Tea Towels

A little borax added to the water in which tea towels are washed will remove dirt and grease and act as a disinfectant.

Without the Lids

Never put saucepans away with their lids on. Let them air or they are apt to smell musty when you want to use them.

Not a Chance

Why take a chance when it is not necessary? When combining tomatoes with milk, such as in tomato bisque, first put a pinch of bicarbonate of soda in with the tomatoes, then add the milk. This will prevent curdling.

HEALTH and DIET ADVICE

by Dr. Frank McCoy

Questions relating to health and diet will be answered by Dr. McCoy, who can be addressed in care of The Los Angeles Times. Inclose large stamped self-addressed envelope for reply.

THE ONION FAMILY

Patients coming to me for advice often state that they cannot use onions although they like them. Onions seem to cause gas, and others report having to peel a few minutes after eating other onion, garlic, leeks or chives. These people who complain of onions well ill perhaps are interested in such experiments. It is not likely that many readers of this article believe they ought to be in perfect health. Accordingly, my readers should be interested in the overwhelming evidence for the onion family.

Onions are used for food, is the onion bulb which is a member of the lily family, and has been cultivated for centuries. It grows in Western Asia, and was used by the ancient Egyptians and Israelites. Doubtless, because the onion is not well, just the onion as well, or as an object of worship before the Christian era. It is said that nine tons of onions were spent in buying onions for the workmen who built the pyramids.

There is any healthful effect from onions, it can only be because of their laxative effect. The volatile, oily substance of which it contains is irritating to the mucous membrane of the stomach and intestines, and stimulates the flow of digestive juices. Onions are also filled with large quantities of carbonic gas from the chemical changes produced by the digestive juices which change the sugar into sugar dioxide gas.

Some persons are often made that the onion is especially good blood-purifier, but its composition is not to about the same as that of other vegetables, and it is not that it does not contain the nutritive properties which the human stomach in the body can use. It could be received from the kidneys, string beans, lettuce, or any other green vegetable.

Those who like the flavor of onions eat them in halves and cook with a cupful of sugar, and the sugar the peaches are tender, then add a cupful of syrup. Sift the flour and baking powder; add the butter, rubbing sugar and eggs, and mix thoroughly with the milk and remaining syrup. Pour the batter over the peaches and bake in a moderate oven for one-half an hour, hot, with or without cream.

VEAL CUTLETS

One and one-half pounds of veal cutlets, fine dry bread crumbs, eggs, salt and pepper.

Order the veal cutlets cut one inch thick and pound it well. Season with salt and pepper, dip in egg, then in bread crumbs, then in egg again and fry in deep shortening heated very hot. Drain on absorbent paper and serve with cream gravy garnished with parsley.

FRENCH ICE CREAM

Three cupfuls of milk, one and one-half cupfuls of sugar, one and one-half cupfuls of cream, two tablespoonfuls of vanilla, two egg yolks, five grains of salt, one and one-half tablespoonfuls of flour, one cupful of sugar, one cupful of cream, one-half cupful of milk and one-half teaspoonful of salt. Scald the milk and cream in a double boiler. Mix the cornstarch with the cold milk and add to the scalded milk and cream, stirring constantly. Add the sugar and cook for twenty minutes. Add the salt and vanilla and cool. Add the egg yolks, which have been beaten until thick and lemon colored, and cook for two minutes. Remove from the fire and add the cream. Freeze as usual. Serves eight persons.

For Better Waffles

A waffle iron should be washed with soap and water, dried off well after each using with a cloth or brush to preserve and then put away. The iron will much better if never washed.

Cake Tester

Toothpicks are taken when a cake is done to test whether it is done. If any of the batter adheres to the toothpick, the cake needs further baking.

Can Be Used Twice

If you wish to save cooking for another pillowcase, try this method when making. Sew down rack braid on the under side of the hem, letting the points extend beyond the hem far enough to catch a hook instead of hooking into the pillowcase. Then when the pillowcase is washed for probate by a son, Gillette, 4154 South [illegible] street, as heir of his mother.

YOUR BABY AND MINE

By Myrtle Meyer Eldred

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope, forwarded to this office, will bring a personal reply.

Milk Formula Depends on Age and Weight of Baby

Mrs. S. B. writes: Will you please publish the answers to these questions in your column, which I read daily:

(1.) Why does a baby get hiccoughs so often? What shall I do to stop them?

(2.) What causes baby to be constipated and what shall I do for its? She is 7 weeks of age. Is camomile tea good?

(3.) How much milk should I give her and how much water?

ANSWER

One wishes there was as concise an answer to each of these questions as this seven weeks' mother expects, but each question is contingent upon so many things that each one could have two pages written about it and still not cover the subject.

All babies hiccough. I am sure no one knows just why. Probably because gas accumulates in the stomach so soon as food is taken, or because a bottle baby swallows air in taking his bottle. One gives a teaspoonful or so of water or changes the baby's position so that he belches and gets rid of the gas and stops hiccoughing.

Too little food, the wrong food, too rich a food, a weak sphincter muscle may all contribute to constipation. You can see how impossible it is to set down a reason for it.

Camomile tea is good to relieve colic.

The formula is figured according to the baby's age and weight. She needs at this age one to one and one-half ounces of milk for each pound of her weight daily. She needs enough water to make up the amount she will get at each meal and enough sugar so that she will have one ounce per day for each ten pounds of weight.

For a baby this young the doctor should figure the right formula and watch its effect. Such small babies should be nursed and not artificially fed.

At three months the constipated or bottle-fed baby can be given orange juice. She may be given prune juice even earlier for constipation. That is better than syrupy constipation remedies.

Cough Hangs on After Whooping Cough

Mrs. R.: When a baby can have lots of air and sunlight, as is possible in the summer, the cough following whooping cough should disappear. Babies usually do perspire when taking a warm bottle, especially in winter, when they are also bundled in warm woolen garments. Excessive perspiring may be a symptom of rickets in a child fed as is yours. Write for the leaflets on feeding, cod liver oil and orange juice.

The LAST WORD

By ALMA WHITAKER

TOO LATE TO BE ANY GOOD

Hannah Ayres, 79, died last week, survived by her husband and three married daughters. For the past three years Hannah has been reckless and "wasteful" in her generosity, as her husband frequently reminded her.

Hannah would give her young grandchildren, in their late teens, $20 at a time for spending money and tell them to buy something they really wanted with it and not account for a penny to anyone. Of course, they could put it in the bank if they wanted to, but even so it should be strictly in their own name and be where they could get it at once if they ever wanted to.

And both grandpa and their own parents chided her on this attitude. She was going to "ruin" the children's characters, they told her. They would lose all sense of the value of money and become wasteful and extravagant. But Hannah would smile and say she didn't think so, but anyway she enjoyed doing it that way.

One day Hannah told me a little bit about this disapproved exemption of hers. She had married her Odwald when she was 16. All her life until she was 76 years of age, she had never had a penny of her very own. Odwald had been a good man according to his lights, but he had always sternly regarded himself as the "head of the family." He had kept the purse strings firmly in his hands. If Hannah really needed anything, anything that was not foolish and wasteful, she could have the money to buy it—if she asked for it. If she explained why she wanted it, if she accounted for what she had spent, and gave Odwald back the change.

If Hannah went out with friends in those days when she was young enough to go out with friends, she would ask Odwald to give her some spending money. Odwald would compute what he considered was necessary. When she returned she had to explain to Odwald just how much and for what and why she had spent the money, and return any change to him.

When Hannah was 76, her sister died and left her $10,000. It took ten months to straighten out the estate and for Hannah to receive her money—her very own money. In the interval, Hannah, who had dreamt dreams and planned plans had a paralytic stroke. So when the money was finally paid Odwald received and put it in his own name. All of which was perfectly proper and legal. But by and by Hannah was about again, and she asked just one thing of Odwald. Please, please, put that money into her, Hannah's name and let her spend it how she liked. Very reluctantly and after much wise argument Odwald complied. Hannah received her own check book, and tremblingly, excitedly, signed her first check. And nothing, positively nothing would induce her to tell Odwald how or for what she had spent the money.

"As a matter of fact" said Hannah, laughing naughtily, "I spent it for new and ridiculously pretty underwear." At 77! Of course, it was foolish and wasteful. But I revelled in it. However, I soon had the sense to know that money had come too late to do me any good. But oh, I wanted my grandchildren, growing into young men and women, to have the joy of buying something in a way without having to explain and justify every penny, without having to ask for it, to account for it afterward. I wanted to establish that right in their minds. But at that I have only spent very little of the capital. Odwald had invested some of it so sensibly while it was in his name and I haven't disturbed much of it.

Well, it is all back in Odwald's name now, Hannah is dead. And Odwald sighs and says perhaps it is just as well for he had suspected her brain was seriously affected for some time—ever since that paralytic stroke three years ago.

Report Shows City Heads List in Advertising

Los Angeles is spending $300,000 more for community advertising than any other city in the United States, according to compilations of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association made public yesterday. The total amount appropriated is $700,000, San Francisco ranging second with $400,000.

Only a portion of the amount of community advertising appropriations for 1927 is shown in the list compiled by the association, but a total of fifty-one cities shows a gross amount appropriated of $4,703,320, with California towns leading by a big margin.

PARADE of FASHION

HERE AND ABROAD

POLKA DOTS APPEAR ON NEW MILLINERY

PARIS, (AP)—Embroidered dots on the crowns of small hats are one of the recent manifestations of activity in the millinery shops. Some of the prettiest polka-dot hats are of natural-colored straw embroidered in navy blue, black or other dark colors.

When the hat itself is plain the polka-dot design is often introduced in a simple band embroidered with dots. A pretty hat recently seen at a fashionable restaurant was dark brown straw with a wide brim and a simple velvet band studded regularly with small straw beads.

VOGUE OF YELLOW EXPECTED FOR FALL

PARIS, (AP)—After hovering on the verge of a yellow vogue for six months Paris is expected to topple over this fall.

The anticipated popularity of brown may prove the turning point in yellow's favor. Banana yellow has some devotees this summer.

A rich maize yellow is the shade predicted for fall, as it tones better with the mellow Havana brown and dark chestnut which leading manufacturers of fabric, notably Bodier, are stressing.

AUTUMN STYLES SHOW DECLINE OF SATIN

PARIS, (AP)—At least one of the important style makers expresses himself as tired of satin and declares he will use none of it in his fall and winter models.

Its shimmer makes it monotonous, he says, and its rich collection dull materials with metal thread will be largely substituted for satin in afternoon and evening dresses. This same dressmaker is advocating brocaded chiffon velvet of small pattern.

VELVET SHOE VOGUE PREDICTED FOR WINTER

PARIS, (AP)—Velvet shoes in shades to match gowns are expected to have immense popularity this winter for wear with the velvet evening dresses Paris is designing.

The softness of velvet for shoes, which is their weakness as well as their greatest charm, is causing some opposition to the fashion.

COLORED TABLECLOTH PREFERRED BY PARIS

PARIS, (AP)—Color has invaded the dining-room and snow-white napery is no longer necessary in Paris.

The most fashionable hostesses prefer damasks of yellow or pale green. Many select such table coverings as the heavy Basque cloths of natural color, which Hodier shows richly embroidered with self-colored thread or gayly worked in cross-stitch.

GILLETTE'S WIDOW IN WILL FIGHT

Petition Filed by Second Wife, Ignored in Testaments Offered for Probate

Contest of the will of the late Luther E. Gillette was opposed yesterday in a petition filed by his second wife, Lillian Curtis Gillette, on the ground that she was not mentioned for probate by a son, Gillette, 4154 South [illegible] street, as heir of his mother.

Through Mrs. Gillette presently Mrs. [illegible] defendant in a suit against Dr. Martha M. R. Callahan, for $250,000 to compensate for the asserted theft of her husband, John J. Gillette, who died December [illegible], was reported to be wealthy, but whose estate has been valued at $1000 in the probate proceedings.

Funeral Today of Well-Known Club Worker

A death that comes as a great shock to her many friends in Los Angeles and the Bay District is that of Mrs. Myrtle Scherer, wife of Luther E. Scherer, prominent Los Angeles business man, who passed away early Wednesday.

MRS. MYRTLE SCHERER

Mrs. Scherer was taken ill about fifteen days ago but her condition was not considered serious until Sunday. She was operated on at the Good Samaritan Hospital. Complications set in as the result of blood poisoning from an infected throat.

Up to the time of her illness, Mrs. Scherer was active in club and social work and before her marriage was well known as a screen artist. Her brother, Millard Webb, director for First National, stopped work on his picture to remain at his sister's side.

She leaves her husband and daughter, Lolly, 8 years of age, her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. William Webb of Los Angeles, two sisters, Mrs. Harry Kregg of Long Beach and Mrs. Ry Hoffman of San Diego; two brothers, Bob Webb of Hollywood, and Millard Webb.

Funeral services will be this afternoon at 3 o'clock at Forest Lawn. Interment will take place at the mausoleum.

KEYES AIDE WILL PUSH DEATH QUIZ

Inquisition Into Carson Poisoning Case Will be Conducted by Dennison

In an effort to learn exactly how John H. Carson, Glendale inventor, came to his death through arsenic poisoning, Dep. Dist.-Atty. Dennison announced yesterday that he will begin a personal investigation in Glendale today.

Carson died on the 11th inst. after being ill four days. An autopsy revealed the presence of arsenic in his vital organs. A Coroner's jury returned an open verdict, and recommended further investigation. Dennison has eliminated the theory that the inventor may have accidentally been poisoned by drinking irrigation water from a ditch near an oil well in Santa Fe Springs, where he was working. At the inquest the widow, Mrs. Mae Carson, told of throwing away a box of candy given to her because she feared it might be poisoned.

SPECTATORS INCREASE AT DRILLS OF GUARD

Steadily increasing interest is being shown in National Guard affairs, according to a statement just issued by Col. Harcourt Hervey, commanding the One Hundred and Sixtieth Infantry, Los Angeles' own regiment. He states that each week sees larger attendance of spectators at the Tuesday night drills. Lieut.-Col. Walter O. Boswell, recently of the army general staff at Washington, witnessed the review of the First Battalion at the last drill night, and was guest of honor at the officer's dinner.

LIONS LUNCHEON TODAY

District Governor W. B. (Billy) Wells of Lions International, fourth district, which includes California, Nevada, Hawaii and China, will be the honor guest and speaker at the regular weekly luncheon meeting of the Los Angeles Lions Club today in the Music Room of the Biltmore. Jean Enoh's Talented Tots will entertain. President Samuel L. Carpenter, Jr., will preside.

CLUB GROOM HURT IN AUTO ACCIDENT

William MacIndoe, 66 years of age, a groom at the Breakfast Club, suffered a possible skull fracture, concussion and a broken collar bone yesterday when his car was in collision at Sunset Boulevard and Western avenue with one driven by H. L. Goldberg, 22, of 1066½ North Ardmore street. Goldberg suffered a broken wrist. Both were taken to the Receiving Hospital and MacIndoe later to the General Hospital. His condition is serious.

CLARIFIED RADIO LAW PROPOSED

Amendments to Be Offered to 1927 Measure

Provision to Curb Slander Will Be Sought

New Composer Introduced in KHJ Program

BY DR. RALPH L. POWER

Various legislators and organizations are getting ready to offer amendments to the 1927 radio law in hopes of making it a little more specific on mooted points.

At the next session of Congress several bills will be submitted with this in mind. It is understood that Representative Dickstein of New York will offer an amendment tending to curb radio slander by making the station owners of record responsible for whatever goes over their studio microphone. That this is a much-needed legislative remedy is unquestioned.

According to Paul Klugh, the National Association of Broadcasters "intends to co-operate in any amendments offered, just as it did when the bill was being framed last year." Just what all this really means remains a matter of conjecture.

HEARINGS FAVORED

One of the proposed amendments is well worthy of passing. It would require public hearings before the issuing of construction permits for new stations. When the commissioners issue a construction permit they are obligated later to issue an operating license.

In many cases residents near the site selected would raise definite objections if legally possible and a hearing ought to be held just as before the issuance of public-utility franchises by cities.

The introduction of one proposed amendment would make the Radio Commission permanent without letting the authority revert to the Department of Commerce. Still another would like to include all radio affairs in the hands of the present commission, while a third proposes to extend the clause to include telephone and telegraph operation, as well as radio used in interstate commerce.

YEAR TOO SHORT

It is apparently the opinion of the commissioners that a continuing clause to extend the activities of the group over the year would be welcome as they do not believe they will complete their work in the twelve-month period.

None of the members, however, will come out flat with the statement for it might be in poor taste and be construed as an effort to retain their jobs for an indefinite period as $10,000 per annum, instead of the mere $30 a day now authorized by law after April 23, 1928, and then only when actually working or traveling, and an expense account while on the road.

One thing is certain, however, if any commissioner resigns after the first year expires the President will experience considerable difficulty in inducing a qualified man to fill the place at $30 a day and then only for such periods as when actually meeting. Two of the present incumbents, by the way, are serving on executive appointments and have never received Senate approval.

PROBATION IRKSOME

I think there is a definite sentiment for two or three well-balanced amendments to clear up hazy points of the 1927 radio legislation. Likewise, the radio stations themselves are tired of the sixty-day probationary period and its renewal every two months.

The instability of wave lengths, time division and power assignments after each two sixty-day periods makes it impossible for a station to put its heart into the program work or to spend money in improving transmission and planning far in advance. No station will have any feeling of security until licenses are for more than a sixty-day period of time.

At KHJ last night the Zoellner quartet brought to the radio audience a composer new to broadcast, Reinhold Gliere, one of the outstanding personalities of the younger Russian composers.

The quartet played his Theme and Variations opus 2, a work demanding skill of interpretation and technic. It was given a scintillating performance and was followed by the Handel Sonate in G minor for two violins and piano. The Zoellners' program, including other selections also, was a program of rare delight.

WILEY NUMBERS GIVEN

Prof. Charles P. Lindsley of Occidental College interspersed the instrumental numbers with selected readings. Vocal solos also interspersed the string music. Ruth Pinto, soprano, accompanied by Alice Lee Wiley, offered a radio recital of Wiley manuscript numbers in three groups, including "Song of the Southland," "My Heart Is a Rose," "Song of the Sea" and other compositions.

On the child radio hour Lorin Norgrove played violin solos by Kreisler and Primi; Nelita Bennett, "Gingerbread Girl," sang popular airs; Barbara Ann Neale contributed readings; Alma Muskat, 14-year-old pianist, played some Chopin numbers, and Rosetta Lewin, "Curly Locks," gave recitations.

The Annandale Trio made its second radio program on the juvenile hour: Howard Gallagher, violinist; Walter Gallagher, 'cellist, and Graham Edmondson, pianist. Besides the trio numbers the members also offered solo selections in pleasing style.

WARNER WITH CRUZE

"THE OLD ARMY MULE" ASSIGNED TO STAR

BY GRACE KINGSLEY

If nothing happens to prevent between now and the time that James Cruze takes up his contract with Cecil B. De Mille's organization, H. B. Warner will play the leading masculine role in "The Old Army Mule," which Cruze is to produce.

H. B. Warner is now in England playing the leading role in "Sorrell and Son." He expects to return in about six weeks.

"The Old Army Mule" is to be something of an epic along the line of war drama, according to our meager information; and it is known that it is expected to beat even "The Covered Wagon." Cruze has a genius for doing this sort of thing, and the film world will watch the result of this big effort with great interest.

Jessel May Switch Companies

There is every possibility in the world that when Georgie Jessel finishes his contract with Warner Brothers, he will switch his professional allegiance by signing with First National.

GEORGE JESSEL

Word of this reaching us, we inquired of Jessel about the matter. He acknowledged that negotiations were under way, but declared that nothing definite in the matter has yet been done.

Jessel has long been a vaudeville and musical comedy star. Two seasons ago he stepped into the brightest limelight by making a smashing hit on the stage in New York in "The Jazz Singer."

Mary McAllister With M.-G.-M.

MARY McALISTER

Miss McAllister signed yesterday with the above company to play a flapper role in "Mixed Marriages," written by Florence Ryerson and Colin Clemens, in which Lew Cody and Aileen Pringlee are to be featured.

Virginia Lee Corbin Busy

Virginia Lee Corbin is going to be an exceptionally busy girl during the next two months.

She will start work next week as the ingenue lead in "No Place to Go," and she will also play the important role of Hermione, the daughter of Helen and Menelaus, in "The Private Life of Helen of Troy," which will soon go into production with Alexander Korda at the megaphone, and with Maria Corda as Helen, while Lewis Stone is to play the King of Sparta.

VIRGINIA LEE CORBIN

Claire Adams Returns

Claire Adams, whose beauty and talents used to thrill us in the pictures which Benjamin Hampton made, and who rounded out her career by marrying producer Hampton, has returned to town after a long stay in New York with her husband.

It is quite possible that we may have a chance to see Miss Adams on the screen again in the near future, as several companies are offering her parts in the pictures.

Lamont Leaves for San Diego

Charles Lamont, director of Educational comedies, sailed yesterday for San Diego, and will go thence to San Francisco with a company of twenty-five headed by Clem Beauchamp and Estelle Bradley.

The company will work on board the Emma Alexander during the trip. Jack White is supervising. The supporting cast includes Anita Garvin, Robert Graves, Bobby Higgins and Tom Shirley.

"COLLEGE" NEEDY OF EDUCATION

Buster Keaton Also Takes Up Higher Learning in New Comedy

BY MARQUIS BUSBY

Now that most of the comedians have got around to making college pictures, we can safely expect a new theme in next season's crop of ribtickling films.

Buster Keaton calls his contribution to scholastic entertainment "College," and it is the current attraction at the Metropolitan Theater.

"College" is not without its laughs, and there are a number of really clever sequences. However, in spite of the fact that much of the action transpires on a local campus, and a number of well-known athletes of Southern California appear in the picture, "College" is not in the least collegiate in the proper sense of the word—no, not even in the wildest flight of imagination.

While "College" will undoubtedly prove a more popular vehicle for the frozen-faced comedian than "The General," I am not so sure it is a better picture. "The General" at least had some thrills, but "College" is not particularly exciting.

Giving the picture its due, the scenes where Keaton goes out for athletics are amusing. He is pained because the pitcher can't hit his bat with the baseball; when he tries to vault the pole breaks; he knocks the dean's hat off with the discus the hurdles fall over and little children run merrily past him while he is running the hundred. But he covers himself with glory as coxswain in the boat race, wins the girl, wallops the villain, and gets expelled from college.

The closing shots of the picture are decidedly clever. There is a flash of the young pair leaving the church, later, married, and with a family; still later, an old couple dozing by the fire, fading into two tombstones, and "The End."

Keaton does some excellent work in "College." It is too bad that the situations were not better. His pantomime cannot fail to amuse particularly during the track scenes. With Buster Keaton the picture passes as mildly entertaining, without him it would be terrible.

Ann Cornwall has very little to do as the leading lady, but she makes a very lovely coed. Harold Goodwin is the villain, while there are mere glimpses of Grant Withers, Snita Edwards and Florence Turner.

"College" is a United Artists feature, directed by Buster Keaton and James W. Horne. Harry Brand supervised the production.

"Dancelogue" is a particularly diverting Fanchon and Marco presentation. These prologues at the Metropolitan have been very good of late. There is a Chinese boy who fairly walks off with the show. He sings nicely and has a flair for dancing. The Dancing Octet illustrates all the popular steps of the day from the classical toe dance to jazz stepped off to the rhythm of "The Doll Dance."

The orchestral feature of the week is "At Sundown."

Double-voiced Rose Valyda is at the Metropolitan for a second week. I am sure you will all be relieved to know that Rose does not disappoint her followers by failing to carry Rube Wolf from the stage. Personally I would be crushed, simply crushed, if some husky lady didn't carry Rube around the stage every week.

'Merry Widow' to Have Coast Presentation

Homer Curran and L. C. Wiswell have just completed arrangements for the revival on the Pacific Coast of the Lehar operetta, "The Merry Widow." It is planned to produce the musical fantasy on a "magnificent scale." The first performance is scheduled to be given at the Curran Theater, San Francisco, on September 12. Following its run there the operetta will be brought to Los Angeles for an extended engagement.

The production is to be built in Los Angeles and the chorus organized here. One of the most famous light-opera prima donnas on the American stage is being negotiated with for the title role, it is said.

Rehearsals will begin here about August 6, next, and will be under the direction of Jefferson de Angelis, who staged the revival in New York and appeared in the leading comedy role.

MILITARY PERIOD IS RECREATED FOR FILM

Filming the most militaristic period in Germany without a single war scene is the feat of Clarence Brown in directing "Flesh and the Devil," which opens today at the Rialto. This lavish adaptation of Sudermann's classic, "The Undying Past," is a tense drama of Germany before the war, with a theme that goes deep into the heart of European sociological conditions.

Greta Garbo has an emotional role as the sinister siren in this Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer feature. John Gilbert is the young German officer. Lars Hanson is the third in a strange triangle.

Other well-known characters in "Flesh and the Devil" are George Fawcett, Barbara Kent, Marc MacDermott, William Orlamond and Eugenie Besserer.

MARIKA, SISTER OF VIOLINIST, TO PLAY

Duci de Kerekjarto has become an accredited violin virtuoso. Now he is preparing to introduce his younger sister, Marika de Kerekjarto, who will be his accompanist when he comes to the Orpheum Sunday matinee as one of the headliners on the quadruple headline bill. Marika de Kerekjarto has had the same thorough training at the piano as Duci on the violin, it is said.

ADDITIONS TO EVENT

"Warner Brothers-Universal-Christie Night" will be officially observed at the Saturday midnight performance of Will Morrissey's "Exposures," now playing at Macloon's Music Box Theater. A galaxy of stars will attend the special performance and will participate in the impromptu program which is being arranged in addition to the regular show, the management reports.

Stage Classic Reaches Screen

Dolores Costello and Jason Robards

Leading players of Warner Brothers' picturization of "The Heart of Maryland," in which Mrs. Leslie Carter scored years ago, will be the film piece de resistance at the Uptown, beginning today.

GREATER SEASON IS PROSPECT

West Coast Theaters Will Celebrate Annual Event in Formal Manner

Inauguration of West Coast Theaters' Greater Movie Season has been announced by Harold B. Franklin, president of West Coast Theaters, Inc. The official opening dates will be August 18, 19 and 20. On each of these three days, when West Coast Theaters change their respective programs, the season will be ushered in.

In addition to the entertainment which is to be offered with the new era, the value of the screen as an instrument of education—such as it is at the current time—will be stressed. The season will be conducted in all of the cities and towns between San Diego on the south and Seattle on the north, in which West Coast Theaters are represented. Complete co-operation of all branches of the motion-picture industry, together with the support of civic and community associations, in each of the cities, has already been pledged, Franklin asserts.

To illustrate the widespread interest in American pictures, Franklin quotes the London Morning Post: "All over the world today, the American film is doing the work that was formerly accomplished by the British Navy."

Worthy of mention among the many productions promised for West Coast Theaters next season are: "The Big Parade," "Beau Geste," "Ben Hur," "Chang," Jannings' "Way of All Flesh," Lillian Gish in "Annie Laurie," King Vidor's "The Crowd," John Gilbert in "The Cossacks," "Rose Marie."

"Firemen, Save My Child," with Wallace Beery and Raymond Hatton, follows "Beau Geste" into the Million Dollar on August 12.

LONG CAREER MARKS LIFE OF MARY WORTH

Mary Worth, who is playing the role of the Mary Mother in the Pilgrimage Play this season after a year's absence, began her stage career as a child with Maude Adams in "Chanticleer," in the whimsical part of the Little Grey Hen.

She was Nichette in Ethel Barrymore's production of "Camilla," with the late John Drew in "Pendennis," playing the part of Fanny Bolton, the cockney girl, and spent several years in Australia, where she created a variety of character ingenue parts.

In the spring of 1924 she was visiting in Los Angeles and met Henry Herbert, who was to portray the part of the Christus in the Pilgrimage Play that season. He immediately engaged her to play the Mary Mother. She appeared again in this part during 1925, winning praises for the rare dignity and devotion she gave her interpretation. Then followed her marriage and retirement from the stage.

This summer, however, the old longing returned and Miss Worth signed again with the cast of the Pilgrimage Play.

SCENARIST DEVELOPS DRAMATIC SITUATIONS

Roxie Hart, the reporter, sob-sister, judge, attorneys, in fact, all the characters in the stage play, "Chicago," are being closely scrutinized. Lenore J. Coffee, who is engaged in writing the adaptation and continuity of this opus for Cecil B. De Mille, is herself a former newspaper woman and out of the book of her past experiences, while engaged in this profession, is selecting vivid incidents which may enhance the striking situations which abound in the play.

The knowledge that Phyllis Haver has been selected for the role of Roxy has pleased Miss Coffee, as this actress's versatility is potential assurance to the scenarist that her ideas will be carried out on the screen.

EASTERN ORGANIST IN DEDICATORY RECITAL

John Doane, eminent organist and choir master of the Church of the Incarnation of New York City, will give the dedicatory organ recital of the new Kimball organ of the First Baptist Church of Los Angeles, Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Doane ranks high among the leading organists of America, and the privilege of hearing him under such favorable auspices is one of rare opportunity.

Mr. Doane will be assisted by Mildred Ware, contralto soloist of the First Baptist Church, in a program of classic and modern organ compositions, including a number of novelties not before heard in Los Angeles.

Gridley, Tenor Featured With 'Scheherazade'

The initial appearance of Dan Gridley, tenor soloist and the presentation of the Rimsky-Korsakoff ballet symphonic suite, "Scheherazade," are two features of the third concert of the week at the Hollywood Bowl tonight by Pierre Monteux, the French conductor.

Gridley is the young Los Angeles musician chosen from among more than 100 aspirants by the Bowl audition board for tonight's concert. He will sing "Once O'er the Azure Fields" from "Andrea Chenier" by Giordano, and "Lend Me Your Aid" from "The Queen of Sheba" by Gounod.

The "Scheherazade" number holds particular interest because it was Monteux who introduced it to America eleven years ago when he came from the continent to New York as leader of the Russian ballet. It is a colorful poetic number, full of rhythm and atmosphere of the Orient from which inspiration for its composition was derived by Rimsky-Korsakoff.

Other numbers on the program will include the ballet suite "Cephale et Procris" by Gretry-Mottl, and "Wald Weben" from Wagner's "Siegfried."

DIRECTOR MINIMIZES VALUE OF CLOSE-UPS

Close-ups that break the continuity of an action are not only odious, but one of the worst crimes in motion pictures, maintains Wesley Ruggles, among others. Reared in the school of comedy-making, where action must have no interruptions, Ruggles is not liberal with his close-ups.

Unless they explain something they are superfluous, he says. All they do is to add extra footage to the scene when the action, more closely knitted, would make an impression. Their multiplicity is old stuff prepetrated in the early epoch of picture-making.

TO SEE "SEVENTH HEAVEN"

More than twenty-five members of the Four Hundred and Seventy-seventh Pursuit Squadron, United States Army Air Service, and their families, with Lieut. Wilson, adjutant in charge of the squadron, will attend this evening's performance of "7th Heaven" as the special guests of Mr. Fred A. Miller, managing director of Carthay Circle Theater.

MONTEUX RECEIVES PLAUDITS OF CROWD

BY ISABEL MORSE JONES

Pierre Monteux appeared before a large Bowl audience again last night in a program predominantly French and piquant. A symphony by Ernest Chausson was the chief item of interest because it has never been done here and for that matter rarely anywhere.

Debussy's "Iberia," "Till Eulenspiegel" and Wagner's "Flying Dutchman" completed the concert list.

The symphony is of three movements, the last of which was infinitely more to my liking than either of the other two, although the second had rare moments of melancholy. It has unusual melodic interest for a work of this caliber. At times its sweetness and beauty were such as to make one forget the weighty symphonic structure of its form. It has rhythmic delights also and a lightness and charm, not in the least superficial.

It is written that Chausson was a disciple of Cesar Franck. It is not immediately apparent in the symphony. For the Franck influence is not felt save in certain wood-wind chorales and a definite feeling of aspiration in the last movement. Chausson was evidently a fluent, smooth music writer but not always seeking the depths as Franck did. There are moods almost operatic in this symphony and regrettable alkali spots where he says nothing especially important.

It is not fair to Chausson or to Monteux, however, to judge his symphony upon this performance. The orchestra was not at its best and it had only part of one rehearsal for an entirely new work. It is not possible for any conductor to produce perfection from such lack.

Debussy's "Iberia" was enjoyable in its musical content but not particularly so in point of performance. It was not clear, although, here again, it would be unfair to blame the conductor.

In my humble opinion, it is worse than cruel to invite world-renowned conductors to come out here and present new works or even known works of exceptional worth with only one rehearsal the day of the concert. The men are far from their best in the middle of the Bowl season anyway, with so many conductors and much new music wearing down their morale and added to that, the natural tension of the conductor, be he ever so great, due to his unfamiliarity with the players and the audience, militates against his giving of his best.

The Monteux musical personality, as expressed last night, is suave, gracious, conciliatory, making the best of a bad situation, a bit conservative and occasionally given to staid and unvaried tempo. Would that we could learn the real measure of this eminent man.

Mrs. Leland Atherton Irish shared the hopes and regrets of the Bowl management with the audience in a short talk which crystallized the feeling of neighborliness and intimacy which has ever been a Bowl characteristic.

Third Musicale to be Given on Sunday Evening

Old beloved favorites of grand opera once more will predominate at the third Sunday evening musicale and pipe organ recital which Sid Grauman will stage at 7:30 o'clock Sunday night just preceding the performance of Cecil B. De Mille's "The King of Kings" in the Chinese Theater.

The audience again will hear Albert Hay Malotte on the Chinese organ playing Schubert's "Marche Militaire" and Waldteufel's barcarole waltz, while Cora Bird will sing the principal aria from "La Traviata" by Verdi.

PUBLIC TO VIEW ART TREASURES

Famous Huntington Library Open October 1

Most Beautiful and Valuable in America

Tuesdays and Fridays to be Visiting Days

PASADENA, July 28.—The world-famous treasures of the Henry E. Huntington Art Gallery at San Marino will be accessible to the general public for the first time in history about October 1, next, according to the report filed today with the trustees of the Huntington Library and Art Gallery by James F. McCabe, superintendent of the Chicago Art Institute.

McCabe left Pasadena today for Chicago, after spending six days in planning the alterations which will be necessary before the Huntington residence, where the late financier and philanthropist hung his unparalleled collection, can be converted to use as a public museum.

The Chicago authority on museums declared that the Huntington home will be the most beautiful and valuable museum in America when it is opened to the public.

Mr. McCabe said that few changes will be necessary in the mansion on the ground floor and that the lighting arrangement is ideal for museum purposes. Alterations will be made on the second floor, and precautions will be taken to secure the pictures and other art objects in the house against theft or damage.

The setting of both the house and the library, about 250 feet away, is ideal, he said, adding that it will be an advantage to have the two buildings separated. No arcade between them will be constructed.

The only exhibition problem at the library will be to protect the rare manuscripts and documents against damage by handling. A large force of guards will be employed, inasmuch as the art gallery contains the finest collection of English paintings in the world, and the library is acknowledged to be second only to the British Museum in the importance of its rare books and letters.

McCabe said that at first the art gallery will probably be opened to the public on Tuesdays and Fridays. Inasmuch as the pictures always hung in the residence of Mr. Huntington, it has been only his personal friends who have been privileged to see the collection up to this time.

Mexican Held for Death of Auto Victim

SAN DIEGO, July 28. (AP)—Rosendo Aguinades, a Mexican chauffeur, this afternoon was held responsible by a Coroner's jury for the death of Mrs. J. B. Molina of Brawley last Tuesday evening at Jacumba.

Aguinades, under the verdict returned by the jury, was declared to have been driving in a careless manner and with having poor brakes on the automobile. Immediately following the return of the verdict the chauffeur was arrested and taken to the City Jail where he was booked on a charge of manslaughter.

Aguinades last Tuesday evening was driving through Jacumba at what witnesses declared to be a high rate of speed. The small baby of Mr. and Mrs. Molina was in the street and Mrs. Molina, in an effort to prevent the child being run down by Aguinades was herself struck by the car and fatally injured. Aguinades was employed as chauffeur by Dr. Enrique Osorino of Mexicali who, with Dr. Manuel Montes, also of Mexicali, was in the automobile at the time of the accident.

The series will be especially arranged for school children, as it was last season.

JURY DISAGREES IN KIDNAPING CASE

CORCORAN, July 28.—Deadlocked after four and a half hours' deliberation, the jury in the case of Guy Wattley and Oscar Edenburg, jointly charged with enticing Ruby, 14, and Leona, 14, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lockhard of Corcoran, from their home for a trip to Los Angeles, was discharged by Judge K. Vanmate.

The jury stood 9 for acquittal to 3 for conviction. The testimony failed to establish definitely the age of the girls, who appeared to have acquiesced in the arrangement, having packed their clothes by prearrangement and cut a wire window screen by which they made their exit while their parents were asleep.

GRANTS DIVORCE TO AZORES MARRIAGE

HANFORD, July 28.—A marriage made in the Azores was unmade in Kings county yesterday when Judge Lansanate granted divorce to Amadeo Garcia from Maria Dorosario Garcia on the ground of desertion. The plaintiff waived property rights in a house and lot in Portugal and to the custody of a minor child. The defendant refused to come to the United States despite the fact that the plaintiff sent her money to do so.

PREACHER HELD FOR MURDER

Pastor of Negro Baptist Church to Answer in Superior Court

LONG BEACH, July 28.—After preliminary hearings lasting five days, Rev. W. H. Hardy, pastor of the Negro Baptist Church here, was held for trial in Department No. 28 of the Superior Court for the murder of Joe Dianey, a negro bootblack. This will be the first murder trial here since the department was established over two years ago.

Hardy is accused of shooting Dianey on the 9th inst., his victim dying on the 14th. Testimony at the hearings was to the effect that Hardy quarreled with Dianey in front of the latter's home, 1235 California street, a few minutes later shooting Dianey in the abdomen. When the wounded man turned to run, according to witnesses, the pastor fired two more bullets, one taking effect in Dianey's shoulder and the other in his neck.

Fire Destroys Old Landmark at Mexicali

MEXICALI, July 28. — Telephone service in this city was put out of commission and one of the best-known landmarks in Lower California destroyed at noon today when the old Cantu Capitol Building which for the past two years has served as central exchange for the telephone company of Lower California was burned to the ground. The loss, including building and contents, is estimated at $35,000.

Mexicali Fire Chief J. A. Robles expressed the opinion that the flames started from a short circuit. Operators working at the switchboard did not know the building was on fire until the fire truck arrived. Members of the truck company at the fire station, several blocks away, saw a column of smoke and rushed to the blaze before an alarm had been turned in.

The Calexico fire department responded to the call and aided the Mexicali firemen in saving the surrounding property.

The building, which is frame construction, served as political and administrative headquarters during many years of the Estaban Cantu reign as Governor. In 1922, a year after Cantu was forced to resign by the arrival of Federal troops, Gov. Lugo completed a new territorial palace, and the old structure was abandoned.

Headquarters for the telephone company, which now occupies the structure, are located at Tia Juana. Employees declared today that a new telephone exchange would be in operation within two weeks.

Let Contract for Rebuilding State Highway

BAKERSFIELD, July 28.—Contracts totalling $365,000 for widening and resurfacing 18.5 miles of the Golden State Highway in Kern county between Lerdo and Delano will be awarded Friday by the California Highway Commission, and within another sixty days work will be under way. Such was the official announcement received here today from Sacramento.

The reconstruction job, one of the largest contemplated this year by the commission, will be completed by January 1 of next year. The contracts will be awarded to two firms who last week were low bidders. One contract, to be awarded to the Valley Paving and Construction Company of Visalia, will call for widening and resurfacing the northern unit at a cost of $173,122. Work on the southern section will be done by Force, Corrigan & McLeod of Oakland, who bid $191,598.

Plans for the work call for widening of the highway from fifteen feet to twenty feet, and resurfacing the entire twenty-foot strip.

GOODCELL FUNERAL

Last Tribute to Be Paid Noted Lawyer Today

SAN BERNARDINO, July 28.—Funeral services for the late Henry Goodcell, famed for half a century as an attorney, who died late yesterday at his home here, will be held at 10 o'clock Friday morning.

Mr. Goodcell's death marked the passing of the State's foremost water attorney, he having become known through the West for his study of the water laws and his association in famous litigations involving water rights.

Mr. Goodcell was the father of Rex B., Roscoe and Fred Goodcell, the first named being a former Revenue Collector at Los Angeles. He was noted as a student of literature. In the '90s, he was awarded the first prize in an essay contest conducted by the Republican party to broadcast the party principles, defeating Jack London, who was awarded second honors.

Mr. Goodcell was born November 9, 1848, at Dover, Eng., and came to the United States in his youth. In 1867 he left Salt Lake City with a wagon train for California, arriving in the valley three months later.

NEWPORT BEACH, July 28.—The body of Maynard Taylor of South Pasadena, who was drowned in Newport Bay last Sunday, was found this afternoon by life guards, who have been searching for the remains since the drowning.

Maynard, who was in swimming in the bay with a group of friends Sunday, had complained that his legs were numb. His companions rubbed his legs and he had started to swim back to land when he suddenly disappeared from the surface. All efforts to locate him were unsuccessful until this afternoon. Coroner Charles Brown was notified of the finding of the body and he left at once for Newport Beach.

CELEBRATE FOURTH OF JULY IN ITALY

Stars and Stripes in Mussolini Land

Mr. and Mrs. G. Ferro host and hostess at palatial home in Italian Riviera on Independence Day.

VENTURA, July 28. — How a group of Californians, traveling abroad, celebrated the Fourth of July in Italy with a big barbecue a la Ventura, is narrated in a letter received today from G. Ferro, wealthy citizen of this city, who is spending a few months in his native land.

Among the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ferro at their Riviera villa at Varcaso were Chester and Louis Hartman, other wealthy Venturans, who are traveling in Europe.

Mr. Ferro, who until his departure in April was City Trustee of Ventura, writes:

"It was a wonderful Fourth of July celebration that we had in my villa here in the Italian Riviera, where I was able to gather for the occasion about a dozen stranded American citizens, mostly from California.

"Here, 6000 miles from home, in a place very similar to Ventura, we had a regular California barbecue, put up by Louis and Chester Hartman, myself and others.

"We had a glorious American flag, pierced by bullets on the Philippine battlefield, which flag is treasured by an American patriot living in Italy part of the time. We had speeches and many other things.

"I am sending you herewith some good pictures of the barbecue, taken by Chester Hartman, and also a picture of my villa, which is 600 years old and still in perfect condition.

"Yours, sincerely,

"G. FERRO."

DIES AT HUSBAND'S BIER

Aged Woman Succumbs as She Looks for Last Time on Face of Man She Married Fifty-four Years Ago

FRESNO, July 28.—Tottering forward to look for the last time on the features of her husband, with whom she had lived for fifty-four years, Mrs. Mary E. Bennett, 72, dropped dead today as funeral services were being concluded at her home for David A. Bennett, 76. Mrs. Bennett had been a semi-invalid for the last three years but had been tender in her care of her aged husband until his death this week. The shock of his death was too much for her weakened condition, according to physicians who were summoned when she swooned.

The Bennetts came to California thirteen years ago from Illinois, where Bennett was a school-teacher for many years.

They are survived by three sons, Robert F. Bennett of San Francisco, Walter E. Bennett of Fresno and Charles E. Bennett of Los Angeles.

Arrangements to have Bennett's body cremated were halted and double funeral services will be held.

BOY SCOUT TRAINING SAVES LIFE

Pasadena Youth Beats Out Fire That Enveloped Mother After Gas Explosion

PASADENA, July 28. — Charles Craig's Boy Scout training saved his mother from burns that probably would have proved fatal today when her dress caught fire after a gas oven exploded in their home at 1311 Stevenson avenue.

When his mother screamed, Charles rushed into the kitchen and beat out the flames with his hands. Then he gave her first aid while neighbors telephoned for a physician.

Charles is 12 years of age and the son of Charles I. Craig, insurance man and a director of the Pasadena Chamber of Commerce. He is a member of Troop 7 of the local Scouts.

"According to Scout methods I should have used a blanket," the boy said afterward, "but where was I to find a blanket in this kind of weather?"

Mrs. Craig suffered severe burns on her face, arms and throat, but will recover.

Long Beach Greets Ford Stout Plane

LONG BEACH, July 28.—Suggesting the luxury of a Pullman railway coach, the first Ford-Stout all metal plane, carrying Ford Motor Company officials, together with City Manager H. S. Callahan, and Walter Fleming, director of public service, arrived at the Long Beach municipal airport from Los Angeles, shortly before noon today. The visitors, who arrived in the plane at Los Angeles yesterday, spent the afternoon in this city, the Ford Company officials visiting the site of the proposed Pacific Coast plant of the Ford Company in Long Beach harbor.

The party was met at the airport by city officials and officers of the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce, who escorted the members to the Pacific Coast Club, where a luncheon was tendered them by the chamber. Crowds of Long Beach airplane enthusiasts swarmed the municipal field to greet the air passengers as they arrived here and a large crowd gathered at the Pacific Coast Club.

FATAL ACCIDENTS NEAR SAN DIEGO

SAN DIEGO, July 28. (AP)—Joe Stanley, an employee of the Stevenson Fur Company of Los Angeles, was instantly killed in an automobile accident on the Coast Highway eleven miles north of Oceanside last night. Details of the accident are unknown, except that the car driven by Stanley and with a Los Angeles man named Faulkner as a passenger collided with a car driven by Morris Ackerman of this city. Coroner S. C. Kelly ordered the body of Stanley brought to this city and will hold an inquest next Saturday morning.

George Howard, 25, a resident of Descanso, San Diego county, received fatal injuries when his auto upset this morning on a curve near Encanto. The accident is believed to have been caused when one of the front tires blew out.

CAR TURNS TURTLE; FALLS FROM BRIDGE

GLENDALE, July 28.—Failing to observe a pile of dirt on the side of the road, H. G. Ramage, 1390 Raymond, hit and swerved his car last night sufficiently to plunge over the Doran-street bridge. The car fell to the bottom upside down. Ramage suffered a badly shattered left arm and slight internal injuries.

The fruit this year in all deciduous varieties is said to be of exceptional quality and has been coming in in satisfactory quantity, and local canneries are running to capacity in order to take advantage of this condition.

There is a total of 4494 members in the two districts, 2702 in the southern and 1672 in the northern, with the largest colony at La Verne. TEN DOLLARS OUT

HUNTINGTON PARK, July 28.—C. S. Chase, owner of the Alcazar service station on Baker avenue, is short a $10 bill for his act of accommodating a stranger. Two men drove up in a car and one alighted, entered the station, asking for change for the bill, at the same time handing it to Chase. Chase gave the man the change, when the stranger grabbed the bill and jumped into the car, both making their escape. Chase noted the license-plate number of the car and reported it to the constable's office.

MERCHANT'S FUNERAL

HUNTINGTON BEACH, July 28.—Funeral services for R. J. Prescott, Huntington Beach hardware dealer, who shot himself accidentally yesterday morning, will be held Friday morning at 10 o'clock at the First Methodist Church, Huntington Beach, with Rev. S. J. Rogers officiating.

The body will be taken to Long Beach for cremation. Mr. Prescott had lived in Huntington Beach for nine years. He had been a resident of California for twenty-five years. The body is at the Dixson parlors in the beach city.

SEEK TO END TROUBLES

One Man Succeeds in Suicide Attempt in Pasadena; Another Will Recover

PASADENA, July 28.—Two men attempted to take their own lives in Pasadena today. One succeeded and the other will probably recover. Despondent over family troubles, Charles A. Arquette, 45 years of age, a barber, sat down on a bench in Central Park early this morning, scribbled a note, and blew out his brains with a revolver shot. The body was discovered at 6 a.m. by W. H. Clemons, who notified police.

The note read: "God forgive me for doing as I am. Being ignored by those of mine that I have loved, I have become despondent. I hope the brothers (the Elks) will write my faults upon the sands. Good-by."

Arquette's wife and two sons, who live at 331½ South Middleton avenue, Huntington Park, were notified by police. His body was taken to the Reynolds & Eberle undertaking rooms. The man had been living at 135 West Colorado street.

Failure to find employment after coming here from Seattle four days ago is reported to have been the reason why Marion F. Daniels, 23 years of age, a bricklayer, swallowed five bichloride-of-mercury tablets. He was seen staggering along the sidewalk on North Fair Oaks avenue, and was taken to the Emergency Hospital, where it was stated that he will probably recover. Daniels was taken to the County Hospital in Los Angeles.

Army Aviators Visit Visalia Flying Field

VISALIA, July 28.—Ten army flyers will arrive at the Visalia airport in the morning for a week-end vacation in the mountains as guests of the Visalia Chamber of Commerce, according to word received by the local booster body from Lieut. A. W. Marriner of Crissy Field, San Francisco.

The flyer group will include a number of army air officers, and it is believed they will make the trip here in the new twelve-passenger transport plane.

On Thursday, August 4, a squadron of army planes from Clover Field, Santa Monica, will arrive at the local airport for an overnight visit. They will be led by Lieut. E. F. M. Deeds, local pilot, flying in the Miss Visalia plane.

The Chamber of Commerce, invited the army flyers to visit the local airport to further acquaint them with the facilities at the Visalia field, and to personally see how quickly the high Sierras may be reached from here. A temporary hangar has been erected at the local airport, telephone service installed and the field placed in excellent condition. It is rapidly growing in popularity with aviators.

See Advent of Leisure Class in Crown City

PASADENA, July 28.—A new addition to the leisure class is looming on the Pasadena horizon. The Pasadena Building Trades Council has appealed to the Board of Education to establish a five-day week for all painters employed by the public schools.

Judge Raymond Thompson, president of the board, told R. E. Yoakum, secretary of the council, that the board will consider the request, but will be guided by the wishes of the painters themselves instead of merely by the wishes of the labor-union heads.

Business Manager Lehrbach of the board declares that many of the painters are not in favor of the five-day-week proposition, which would make Saturday a full holiday. He also pointed out that during the school year it is necessary for much of the work to be done on Saturdays in order to prevent interruption of classes on other days.

New Hostelry on Sixth Street Open to Public

Following its preview Wednesday night, the new St. Paul Hotel, 1021 West Sixth street, was officially opened to the public last night with a dinner at which Thomas B. Morrison, managing director, his son, Eugene Morrison, and Al Short, manager, were the hosts. There were more than 100 guests present, among them being most of those who had part in building the hotel.

After dinner the seventh and eighth floors were thrown open for inspection. A six-piece orchestra provided music.

The new hostelry is a ten-story fireproof structure of concrete and steel, designed by John V. Koester. Every modern device for efficiency, sanitation and comfort has been embodied in it and the chief aim of the management is to create an atmosphere of home.

The first guests to register were Lieut.-Gov. and Mrs. Buron Fitts, followed by State Senator and Mrs. Charles W. Lyon.

Window Ledge Performance Closes in Jail

Arthur Arbuckle, 45 years of age, who asserts he is a brother of Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle, is in the Hollywood jail because police say he tried to impersonate a human fly yesterday at a Hollywood hotel.

Arbuckle, according to Officers Rice and Rambeau, stopped traffic when he attempted to perform some gymnastic stunts on a window ledge of the sixth story. He was clad only in a pair of pajamas and one shoe.

Charges of drunkenness were preferred against Arbuckle by the two officers.

KILLED BY TRACTOR

DELANO, July 28.—Robert R. Gilbert, 40-year-old Delano rancher, was crushed to death last evening at the ranch when a heavy tractor crashed over backward, pinning him beneath it. Gilbert, according to reports from Delano, was working the tractor on a ranch three miles east of that city. The tractor went into a ditch and as the man started to drive it out the front end reared into the air, pitched over on its back and killed him instantly as he sat in the seat.

TRAFFIC ORDINANCE

LAGUNA BEACH, July 28.—Regulation of traffic is the object of the fifth Laguna ordinance passed by the Board of Trustees at a special meeting held last night. Fines were fixed by the board. Stops at boulevard intersections were made on two main thoroughfares, and parking regulations were included. Sixty-two streets which enter the Coast Highway on a grade have been made boulevard stops on both sides of the highway. Streets entering Forest avenue between the highway and First street have also been made boulevard stops.

INJURED AUTOIST'S CONDITION BETTER

TULARE, July 28.—Omar C. Larsen of Los Angeles, associated with the Roosevelt Real Estate Syndicate of that city, who sustained a concussion of the brain, severe skull abrasions and a fractured arm in a crash between the car he was driving and the rear end of an oil truck and trailer south of here yesterday, is reported in a favorable condition at the Tulare Hospital this afternoon.

He was in a semiconscious condition yesterday and grave fears were felt for his recovery. His wife and two brothers arrived from the south last night and are at his bedside today.

There were no direct witnesses to the accident, but Larsen is said to have been blinded by lights of an approaching automobile just as he swerved to go around the truck.

OLD RUNABOUT CAR LEADS TO TROUBLE

PORTERVILLE, July 28.—An old runabout car is declared responsible for the downfall of three local lads under seventeen years of age, arrested on charges of theft. Just recently the boys came into unfavorable limelight by theft of $80 from the clothing of William Talbot of Springville, while he bathed in the stream. Their confession and youth caused officials to deal lightly with them, but with the discovery a few days since that they were also responsible for thefts of large quantities of gasoline in various parts of the city, automobile pumps and tires, charges were placed against them. They are expected to be haled before the juvenile court of Tulare county.

DINUBA, July 28.—Depositors of the United States National Bank of Dinuba will meet at the Strand Theater here tomorrow afternoon for a full hearing on all matters relative to closing of the bank, according to Mayor J. They are asked to bring their pass books or other evidence that they are bona-fide depositors, as the meeting is held only for those closely concerned.

RELATIVES OF SUICIDE SOUGHT IN SOUTHLAND

Search is being conducted here by Detective Lieutenant Allen for relatives or friends of a man who recently ended his life in a Kansas City hotel. According to advices from the Missouri city, the suicide repeatedly murmured "717 South Alvarado" just before he died, but inquiries at that address failed to disclose anyone who knew him. The name on the hotel register was J. Kingston but police are of opinion that was not the dead man's real name. He is described as of distinguished appearance, 40 or 50 years of age, with gray eyes, light complexion and wearing a Vandyke beard.

Plaintiffs Conclude T... Weeks of Evidence

VENTURA, July 28.—A motion that the $3,000,000 Gosnell Lease rights suit be declared a mistrial and that the complaint of Ira Gosnell, Lecta Bowyer, son and daughter respectively, and guardians of Ira B. Gosnell, who are suing Edward Lloyd to recover royalties on Gosnell's twenty-fourth interest in the oil rights of the Ormond Beach, which he sold to Lloyd for $1,000,000, be dismissed was made this morning to Judge Edward Henderson, Superior Court by James R. Agnew, head of the counsel for the plaintiff.

This action of the defense followed the conclusion of the plaintiff's case, which had come to a noon. The plaintiffs, during three and one-half weeks they had been on trial, have placed twenty witnesses on the stand, including well-known geologists, petroleum engineers, personal friends and relatives of T. B. Gosnell, the majority of the three being as contending that Gosnell has been unsound of mind for some time.

The last witness for the plaintiffs was Lloyd. His testimony was concerned with the introduction various documents, letters and papers which were entered as evidence. Mr. Degnan, in his argument before the court today, in support his motion for a nonsuit, based his case chiefly on the point that while testimony has been given by plaintiffs' witnesses that Ira B. Gosnell is believed Gosnell to have been insane for a number of years, suits cannot be brought out by other than Gosnell or his guardians. Hartke, or any other witness, that Gosnell's actions were irrational or that his frailties were evident at the Pacific-Southwest Trust and Savings Bank in Los Angeles the hour on June 17, 1925, in which the transaction was signed by Gosnell turned over to Lloyd the rights for $72,000.

LIVE CARGO TAKEN OFF SHIP

Adventure of Girl Stowaways Halted

Sea Trip Short

HAD they not tarried to make love to the ship's cook, three fair Los Angeles stowaways might now be approaching San Francisco on the liner Harvard on a glorious adventure. As it is, they are in the hands of the juvenile authorities, but with spirits still bubbling.

The girls gave their names as Florence and Carol Clayton, twins, 15 years of age, of 3823 Walton avenue, and Naomi Matthews, 14, of 4152 Denker street.

Their ill-fated adventure began Wednesday, when the girls donned white sailor pants and rode a street car to the harbor. They slept all night on the beach at Terminal Island.

Far from chilling their ardor, however, the night sea breezes merely added zest, so the trio beamed their prettiest on the gangplank guard and clambered aboard the liner Harvard. They were right in the midst of vamping the cook into stowing them away and providing them with food when Police Officers Fickes, Henry and Boley thwarted proceedings.

All are students of Manual Arts High School, and are said to be of good family, "all except my twin sister; her's is terrible," confided one of the Clayton twins.

BOASTER MUST FACE TRIAL

Hindu Once Freed on Murder Charge Rearrested on Accusation of Slaying Countrymen

Mohammed Jack, whose asserted boasting of "getting away with murder" resulted in his being arrested for the second time, yesterday was ordered held to Superior Court by Municipal Judge Westover for trial on a charge of slaying two fellow-countrymen in a dispute over a fertilizer contract.

Jack was arrested last March and charged with slaying Mohammed Gulam and Mohammed Baksh as they slept in their ranch house at Glendora. The Hindu was given a preliminary hearing on the charge and the case dismissed because of insufficient evidence.

Once freed, Jack is said to have boasted of having killed the two men and gotten away with it. Four of his countrymen heard his boasts, it is asserted, and told of them to the District Attorney's office. The result is the second murder complaint.

The slaying, according to Dep. Dist.-Atty. Fisher, occurred after a dispute between the defendant and the two slain men, the former claiming they had defrauded him of $1000 in a fertilizer sale.

Prosecution testimony introduced before Judge Westover showed that Jack had purchased a revolver similar to the one used in the slaying of the two men a few days before the killing.

WAR MOTHER CHIEF GUEST AT MEETING

Mrs. Margaret McCluer Lauds Southland in Speech at Luncheon

Mrs. Margaret McCluer, national president of American War Mothers, paid glowing tribute to the beauty of the Southland and the hospitality of its people in an address yesterday at the Hotel Clark at a luncheon given in her honor by the five Southern California chapters. The luncheon was attended by forty representatives of the organization, among them being Mrs. Isabella Richards, president of the California American War Mothers; Mrs. Grace Kitt, president, and Mrs. Ida Baker, past president of the Los Angeles Loyal Chapter; Mrs. M. E. Dodge, past State president and Mrs. Sylvia Schofield, State corresponding secretary.

Speakers included J. S. Joplin, president of the Better America Federation, who made a plea for adequate national defense, speaking especially in favor of the military training camps, which he said conduce to the best development of manhood. Another speaker was W. J. Shirley, Commander of Quentin Roosevelt Post, who pleaded for tolerance in judging political opponents.

Mrs. McCluer will leave Los Angeles today to visit chapters of the American War Mothers at San Francisco. While in office Mrs. McCluer has obtained for her organization a national charter from the Federal government, and has been largely instrumental in the building of the National War Mothers' Home at Denver, an institution at which free room and board is provided for relatives visiting disabled soldiers at the Livermore Hospital.

Silver Lake Boulevard Plan Backed

Approval of Silver Lake Boulevard as originally laid out and opposition to efforts to reopen the controversy over its location were voiced in a report given out yesterday by the Northwest Chamber of Commerce on the status of the project. The report declared that the project, approved by three city engineers, the City Planning Commission, two City Councils and the Automobile Club, should not, after nearly four years, be taken up again merely because a new City Council has been elected, and said there already had been too much delay.

"In view of the fact," the report continued, "that a major project cannot begin with one Council and be consummated during the term of office as set out in the Los Angeles city charter, we recommend that said charter be amended to the effect that a Councilman be elected for four years instead of two, as at present."

SEA RAIDERS OF WAR DAY AT BANQUET

Count von Luckner With Former Captain of Emden Entertained at Dinner

Count Felix von Luckner and his wife, Countess von Luckner, were guests at a dinner party in the main dining-room of the Victor Hugo last evening. Leon Kutner, financier from San Francisco, was host, and included in the party of six was Capt. Lauterbach, who commanded the German raider Emden during the war at the time that Count Von Luckner was in command of the Seadler.

The Count expressed the greatest admiration for the American trait which enables men of lowliest birth who start in life in poverty, to climb to the heights of accomplishment, fame and wealth. America's heroes, Washington, Lincoln, Roosevelt, and now young Lindbergh, are also his heroes, he said.

Countess von Luckner met a large number of feminine members of the film colony yesterday afternoon at a tea in the Palm Room of the Biltmore at which Mrs. Tod Browning presided. Among the notables were Priscilla Dean, Ruth Roland, Helen Klump, Eileen Percy, Gertrude Olmstead, Norma Shearer, Dorothy Hollubar, Mrs. William S. Hart, Mrs. Harry Carey, Mrs. Louis B. Mayer, Mrs. Hunt Stromberg, Mrs. Harry Rapf, Mrs. Benjamin Glazer, Mrs. Maurice De Monde, Mrs. John Ford, Alma Rubens, Mrs. Victor Scherzinger, Marie Prevost, Mabel Normand, Phyllis Haver, Zasu Pitts, Lillian Tashman, Agnes Christie Johnson and Anna Q. Nilsson. Nearly 100 women were presented to Countess von Luckner during the afternoon.

The morning was spent driving through the Los Feliz and Hollywood Hills and the early part of the afternoon in the shops, while Count von Luckner and his host, Leon Kutner, were engaged in the business section.

Last night the party attended the Dempsey dinner at the Breakfast Club, and this morning will be entertained there and later attend a luncheon at Universal City, where Sigmund Moos will be the host.

Hawaii Getting Travel Habit, Editor States

"The people of Hawaii are acquiring a new habit," said Joseph R. Farrington, managing editor of the Honolulu Star-Bulletin, who has been taking a vacation around California and is in Los Angeles for a few days. It is the Los Angeles habit, and is one result of the recent tremendous increase in facilities of travel between the Islands and California.

"Our people find it easy now, and a lot of pleasure, to come here for a few days, to see a big city, get in a traffic jam and go to the shows. You will see a great growth in the number of such visitors in the coming months.

"We expect also a welcome increase of visitors to Hawaii, what with the addition of the steamer City of Honolulu and that of the Malolo in the fall to the list of ships, and the opening last February of our new Royal Hawaiian Hotel. Moreover, we are going to have new facilities for interisland travel, with the impending organization of an aeroplane taxi service."

Mr. Farrington is stopping at the Biltmore, and will sail for home on the City of Honolulu tomorrow.

MRS. M'PHERSON TO QUIT TEMPLE

build up permanent Four Square Gospel temples, she said.

WILL GO ABROAD

Less than a week ago Mrs. McPherson announced the affiliation with Angelus Temple of a number of eastern churches coming under the new name of Angelus Temple Lighthouses. It is a continuation of this plan that the evangelist expects to carry out when she vacates the local temple pulpit, she said.

From this country, Mrs. McPherson announced, she would carry her work into England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales.

When Mrs. McPherson yesterday told Times reporters of her future plans, she said she had not at that time revealed them to her mother, her congregation, or the church committee which has backed Mrs. McPherson in the recent temple trouble. She announced she would do so today.

A new mystery entered into the temple controversy last night, when William Whittebeck, an engineer on a Hudson River steamer, vehemently and emphatically denied yesterday in New York City that he had ever been married to Mrs. Kennedy.

The written statement that Mrs. Kennedy was still the wife of Mr. Whittebeck was released by Mrs. McPherson's representatives at her home, 353 South Manhattan Place, Wednesday night, and were declared to have been made by D. V. Alderman, chairman of the committee backing Mrs. McPherson. The announcement, which was the first revelation here made publicly that Mrs. Kennedy was supposed to have been married since her first husband's death, was contained in a list of four "suggestions" for the deposed temple manager's future.

When questioned Wednesday night in reference to the statement, Mrs. Kennedy admitted that she had not been divorced from her second husband, but refused to give enlightening details. Yesterday she declared:

NEVER SAW MRS. KENNEDY

"I will not make any statements regarding that until the proper time, which is not now. I do not know by who, or why, that statement was issued, but it will be heard from later on."

Mr. Whittebeck, who was interviewed in New York yesterday, declared: "I never saw the woman and know nothing more about her than what I have read in the papers. I am married to Mrs. Mabel Archer Whittebeck, we have a home in Catskill, N. Y., and I am a grandfather. I cannot understand how such reports can start." Whittebeck has been engineer on the Claremont, a river steamer, sixteen years. He has two grown children.

When questioned last night Mrs. Kennedy would not admit that her second husband's name was Whittebeck.

However, Roberta Star Semple, Mrs. McPherson's 16-year-old daughter by her first husband, an evangelist, was not so reticent.

"Grandmother married William Whittebeck, an engineer on a Hudson River boat, but I do not know just when," the young girl declared. When asked if she remembered the boat he worked on she said she could not exactly remember, but thought it was the Claremont.

"Just let them go on and have all the rope they want," Mrs. Kennedy said, "they'll soon get enough to hang themselves and then they will hear from me."

EXPOSE EFFORTS DENIED

Mrs. Lorraine Wiseman Sielaff's statement in San Francisco yesterday to the effect that a conference between Mrs. Sielaff, Mrs. McPherson and her mother and attorneys had been held in Glendale several days ago in an effort to expose Mrs. McPherson's story of her kidnaping as a fabrication, was denied by all parties.

Mrs. Wiseman Sielaff was exposed by The Times early in the McPherson case as a fraud and hoax perpetrator.

A final effort by Mrs. McPherson and her mother to settle their differences over control of the temple had reached a deadlock at the conference yesterday afternoon between the mother, daughter, and attorneys representing each side. In a frantic effort to stem the tide of publications concerning the rift within the religious organization, the "gag rule" which forbade statements by either side was made the order of the day.

"Our conference was entirely informal," Mrs. Kennedy said. "No efforts to make a detailed settlement of our affairs will be made until tomorrow when we will meet again."

Mrs. McPherson issued a verbal statement after the conference, the gist of which was practically the same as that made by her mother.

COMMITTEE RETAINS BOTH

Mrs. McPherson also revealed that she had left the conference before its conclusion, but both she and her mother denied that any part of the discussion had caused the evangelist to take her voluntary dismissal.

It was also learned that when Attorney Lester Roth, who is said to represent the committee composed of 150 church leaders, arrived at the temple mansion for the conference, Mrs. Kennedy refused to allow him to enter the former joint home of the mother and daughter.

The church committee, which has backed Mrs. McPherson in ousting her mother as business manager of Angelus Temple, has retained Mr. Roth, Mrs. McPherson said yesterday, and added that she is represented by him only to the extent that interests of the committee, which was nominated by the church and its fifty affiliated branches, will be cared for to its satisfaction.

No other person was allowed to enter the temple homestead except the principals, and for nearly four hours the conference, which apparently netted little toward settling the war between mother and daughter, was carried on.

An attempt to throw a new bombshell into the temple rift yesterday was made by Gladwyn N. Nichols, deposed band leader of the church, and recent organizer of a new church with nearly 300 temple secessionists, who demanded that the temple call Mrs. McPherson before it to stand trial before a church jury on her recent kidnaping charge.

IGNORES NICHOLS'S DEMAND

While the church as a whole gave little attention to Nichols's demand, Mrs. McPherson ignored it altogether, apparently awaiting the pleasure of her church.

When informed of Nichols's demand, the evangelist displayed little interest in it and indicated that she would abide by any move her church as a whole desired to make.

A complete departure from the attitude of bitterness she had previously displayed against her daughter was apparent in Mrs. Kennedy yesterday following the conference. The ousted mother apparently had adopted a policy of watchful waiting of future events.

While rumors were rife around the temple that the main point of discussion during yesterday's conference revolved around a settlement of financial matters, both of the principals denied that finances were discussed at the meeting.

"We are only talking over my future," Mrs. Kennedy said.

NO RESIGNATION YET

"Her future," which Mrs. McPherson had previously suggested as constituting a trip to Alaska or China, or some other point, to be followed by an independent social work by the mother, was still in doubt last night.

Although Mrs. Kennedy is obviously actively out of the temple management, she has not at this time offered her resignation and will not do so until the present scheduled series of conferences are ended, she said last night.

Yesterday's events at the temple presented highlights of the revelation of letters purported to have passed between mother and daughter, one paragraph of one letter emanating contrition and sorrow, the next hurling fresh charges and uttering new recriminations.

When the temple committee appeared at the temple home yesterday apparently seeking admission to the conference, Mrs. Kennedy declared she did not recognize the committee and would meet with none but her daughter and attorneys, Mrs. McPherson reported.

WAR VETERAN WOOS SWIFTLY

Couple Meet Monday, Wed Thursday

FREDERICK LANDEAU

MRS. MARGARET LANDEAU

SANTA MONICA, July 28. (Exclusive)—A marriage marked by every evidence of affection on the part of the elderly participants, who met only last Monday, was celebrated this noon when Margaret Klickner, 70 years of age, became the wife of Frederick Landeau, Civil War veteran who is in his eighty-first year.

Smilingly the bride and groom related how mutual friends, J. D. Hogue and W. Frisell, introduced them less than a week ago. Frankly they revealed that Landeau needed a nurse while his bride was in financial circumstances making the match desirable from a practical standpoint. But the friends say that during their brief acquaintance a wonderful attachment has developed, and all happiness for them was predicted.

POWER PETITION CHECKED

Referendum Against Bureau's Borrowing Ordinance Upheld and Names Will Be Certified

City Attorney Stephens yesterday advised City Clerk Domingues to proceed with the checking of the referendary petition bearing 29,000 signatures filed against the Power Bureau's ordinance authorizing the bureau to borrow money independently in the money market. Under the provisions of the ordinance the Water and Power Department could borrow $7,500,000 this year without the voters having anything to say as to whether the loan should be obtained, and the obligation incurred with the municipal power and water properties and their revenues, in effect, mortgaged as security for the loan.

When the Power Bureau obtained this ordinance from the former City Council, the refendary petitions were circulated. So low was the standing of the Power Bureau in the opinion of the voters of Los Angeles, as shown by the defeat of the Power Bureau "grab" Propositions 3 and 4 at the June 7 election, and so lacking was public confidence in the Power Bureau, that signatures to the petition were quickly obtained. The petition was filed by R. P. Benton on the 21st inst. with the City Clerk.

The Power Bureau had the City Council ask the City Attorney if the petition was legal, asserting that the matter of the Power Bureau's borrowing money on its own certificates or notes was not subject to the referendum. City Attorney Stephens decided against the Power Bureau's contentions yesterday.

The City Clerk will proceed at once to check the petitions. If they are found to bear the signatures of 16,000 registered voters, as it seems certain will be the case, then the Power Bureau's scheme to borrow money in the market will be blocked until the voters can vote on the question of giving the Power Bureau this authority. The first election at which the question can be submitted is the State primary election in May, next year.

Foreseeing that its scheme to conduct its financing independent of the voters was to be blocked by the referendum, the Power Bureau this week asked the City Council to sell $1,000,000 power bonds of issues authorized but not sold.

STUDIOS DROP SLASHING PLAN

came to help us. Out of this has grown a spirit of sympathy, understanding and co-operation which places the industry in an enviable light. If we work shoulder to shoulder there can be no question of the outcome.

"However, you must spread your good intentions and ideas throughout the industry and it must be realized that your problems are our problems and what affects us affects you."

Then, Mr. De Mille read the pledges of the various branches of the industry enrolled in the academy. Briefly, the technicians' branch pledged itself to create the finest possible productions commensurate with predetermined costs; to co-operate to the fullest extent with the other branches of the industry and to create nothing that does not have a direct production value.

Summed up, the writers pledged to complete treatments and scripts within a reasonable length of time and to meet the requirements of producers. The actors gave their word to refrain from any display of that "unreasonable or unnecessary type of temperament that makes only for delay, expense and discomfort to all concerned, to co-operate with producers and directors and to "realize to the fullest extent the responsibility of their position, both in the industry and before the public."

—MORE—

Directors promised the fullest possible co-operation with producers and writers, pledged themselves to refrain from taking arbitrary stands, to aid in the careful planning of each production, to refrain from photographing scenes for which there can be no practical use or need.

PRODUCERS' PLEDGE

Lastly, the producers pledged their group to establish a research institute to perfect every conceivable appliance tending toward improvement of production, to maintain a large research library for the benefit of the entire academy so that scientific inquiry might be facilitated and individual research libraries in the various studios eliminated and to support a central clearing house to receive and file synopsis of all stories, novels and plays, to maintain and make available a list of all the stories owned by the producers and to aid in effecting other economies.

In conclusion, Mr. De Mille declares that to accomplish the major purpose of the academy, "we must each pledge ourselves to closer collaboration and closer comradeship.

"We must recognize that the welfare and happiness of all of us will be increased by such collaboration and comradeship. Therefore all members of the academy must pledge themselves to close and loyal co-operation, each with the other, so that from this time forward the profession of which we are a part may find greater vitality, greater power and greater achievement as a result of our co-ordinated labors."

Without a single dissenting vote, the academy adopted the program outlined by the producers and the projected salary cut went into the discard. The producers at the same time announced that a uniform contract for all engaged in the industry is being drawn and will be presented shortly.

Douglas Fairbanks, president of the academy, presided and declared that a new chapter has been written in the history of the films as a result of the academy's work to date.

Other speakers were Conrad Nagel, for the actors, Waldemar Young, for the writers, James M. Leison for the technicians and Fred Niblo for the directors.

GRAND STAG® TO FEATURE CONFERENCE

Local Junior Chamber Prepares Park Barbecue for Visitors Tomorrow

A mammoth stag barbecue and free-for-all sports carnival arranged by the Los Angeles Junior Chamber of Commerce will be the opening feature of the State conference of the junior chambers of commerce, which starts here tomorrow.

Delegates from all over the State have been invited to participate.

Glen Oaks Park in the northeast corner of Glendale has been donated by Guy Rush for the occasion, and festivities will start shortly after noon and last through the evening, according to Everett L. Grubb, president of the local junior chamber.

Plans for the barbecue and sports program were completed by the board of directors at a buffet-supper and meeting given by President Grubb in his home, 660 Crenshaw Boulevard, Tuesday evening.

A real feast was promised by Dr. Alexander Linck, chairman of the barbecue committee, and competitive sports events outlined, included almost every type of athletics imaginable, with a number of impromptu surprise stunts as added attractions.

Brief directions as to how to reach Glen Oaks Park by automobile were announced as follows:

Drive to intersection of San Fernando Road and Los Feliz Boulevard, east on Los Feliz to Glendale avenue, north on Glendale avenue to Colorado, east on Colorado to Chevy Chase, follow Chevy Chase to Glen Oaks Boulevard and east on Glen Oaks to the barbecue.

Cliff Rawson, secretary-manager of the junior chamber, states further information can be obtained by getting in touch with him at the junior chamber offices in the Chamber of Commerce.

FORD SHIP HOPS TO LONG BEACH

Airplane Party Guests at Chamber Luncheon

Hundred-Passenger Craft Forecast by Mayo

Engineer and Maddux Fly Today to San Diego

Residents of Long Beach were treated to a view of the Ford all-metal airplane, which arrived here Wednesday from Detroit, as it flew around that section yesterday morning. After a short flight the giant silver plane glided down to the municipal airport. The entire Ford party were guests of Mayor Hauge and the Long Beach Chamber of Commerce at luncheon at the Pacific Coast Club.

Airships capable of carrying up to 100 passengers and equipped like a Pullman car, flying from coast to coast in twenty hours and from Mexico to Canada in ten hours, are possibilities of the near future, W. B. Mayo, chief engineer of the Ford Motor Company, predicted at the luncheon. He said that air liners will give California another item in its long list of advantages, because its beauties can be appreciated far better when viewed from above.

Plans for the 100-passenger liners described by the speaker have been drafted and have received the tentative approval of Mr. Ford, Mr. Mayo stated, quoting figures showing the success of air lines now being operated by the Ford company.

The Ford airplane will fly about 10 a.m. today to San Diego, where there is to be a reception for Mayo and J. L. Maddux by the Chamber of Commerce and the Scions. It will return to Rogers Airport here about 4:30 p.m.

Saturday morning the plane will be flown to Santa Ana, where there will be a similar reception by the Greater Orange County Chamber of Commerce. It will return to Los Angeles about 1:45 p.m. and leave at once for Inglewood, where sites for the proposed Maddux airport will be inspected. The plane will remain at Rogers Airport for public inspection all day Sunday and Monday. On Tuesday or Wednesday the plane will make its first trip to San Francisco, returning the same day.

A regular service between San Francisco and El Paso is planned by Maddux and his associates, who expect to have twelve planes in all in service.

FIRESTONE SITE DEAL SEEN NEAR

Rubber Man Believed on Way Here for Purchase of Tract Under Option

Harvey S. Firestone, president of the Firestone Tire and Rubber Company, and C. S. Myers, director of engineering for the same organization, were scheduled to leave Akron, O., last night for Los Angeles to finish negotiations for the purchase of their proposed forty-acre factory site here, according to word received by local men interested in the deal.

Plans for the purchase of the site and the erection of a tire factory here, estimated to involve $7,000,000, were announced about two weeks ago, when Myers, representing Firestone, took an option on the factory site bounded by Alameda street, Manchester and Santa Fe avenues. The option expires next Monday, and it is expected definite purchase will be concluded on that day. Robert B. Mason of Mason, Cole & Co., is handling the real estate transaction.

SOVIET CONCESSIONS

Alarmed by the failure of the German Mologa Timber Com- pany, which has turned its grant back to Moscow after heavy losses, they have canceled the re- quirement in Mr. Harriman's manganese contract in Georgia compelling him to broaden the gauge of the railway from the mines to tidewater, and have promised to equalize competitive conditions between these mines and the government-operated Ni- kopol mines. In general they have announced a new and more lib- eral concession policy than hith- erto.

According to the report of the Russia State Bank, the soviet union now has as much land under cultivation as in 1916, and the grain crop has reached 97 per cent of the average prewar figure. Cattle have actually in- creased since 1913, though there has been a falling off of one- fifth or more in the number of horses.

While the outputs of coal and petroleum are rapidly approach- ing the 1913 level, less than one- half as much iron is made as be- fore the war.—[Living Age.

One of the little-known curi- osities of Boston is the "hidden house" in an angle formed by two streets on Beacon Hill. Entrance is through a low doorway into a long covered passageway.

QUIZ DISCLOSES JAIL INTIMACIES

Men Prisoners Had Access to Women's Ward

Special Jury Investigates Santa Ana Prison

Witness Tells of Parties Given by Matron

SANTA ANA, July 28. (Exclusive)—Charges that prisoners in the Orange County Jail had access to women prisoner's quarters through a ventilator shaft leading from the men's department were made today before a special grand jury impaneled here to investigate the administration of prison affairs and conditions within the institution for the past few years.

The witness who is said to have told of visits by men prisoners to the women's wing, was C. C. Collins of Orange, a prisoner facing grand larceny charges. Collins some time ago made a statement in which he named two men and a woman. These men are now in San Quentin. They escaped from jail but later were re- captured. Collins, it was said, tes- tified that Mrs. Jernigan as jail ma- tron had discovered the use of the ventilator by the prisoners.

PARTIES ARRANGED

Lloyd Hatch and his wife, Bessie Phares Hatch, were witnesses also. The latter was a trusty in the wom- en's ward and testified, it is said, that Mrs. Jernigan had her arrange de- tails of parties at the jail given for Mrs. Jernigan's friends. Mrs. Hatch is quoted as saying that she had had possession of the jail keys several times and that one special deputy jailer and one Federal prisoner had keys to the women's quarters.

Hatch was a cellmate of "Dr." Rex Herrick William Albrextondare, im- prisoned for practicing medicine without a license, and is said to have told the grand jury Albrextondare was given a severe beating by Jailer Orin Moncrief on one occasion and the "water cure" on several others, to make him talk. The grand jury, it is understood, will investigate charges of Albrextondare that he was kid- naped in Tia Juana and rushed across the line to San Diego where he was arrested. In the asserted kidnaping Albrextondare was knocked out by a gun butt, according to his story, when efforts to stupefy him with drugged food failed.

PRIVILEGED PRISONER

A witness to be called soon, it was expected, is John Delocqua of Los Angeles, who was a trusty at the jail. He will testify, it is said, that he was allowed to go out shooting pi- geons on Sundays, that he made fre- quent trips with prisoners and trus- ties to Los Angeles, and that he was allowed to receive women visitors late at night.

At a previous session, it was re- ported, Edward Grafton, a Los Ange- les publisher, testified he was denied the use of a telephone, was struck in the mouth by a jailer, was not al- lowed to post bail and was subjected to other indignities when he was arrested on a speeding charge. Graf- ton is a brother of William Grafton, former member of the Anaheim City Council.

Deputy Jailer Joe Irvine, former Deputy Sheriff James Smith, and Joe Buchta, are expected to be witnesses in the inquiry tomorrow.

Lecturer Gives Final Talk on Slavs Tuesday

The life, art and personalities of Poland, Czecho-Slovakia and Jugo- Slavia will be discussed by Alexander Kaun of the University of California at the State summer session in Los Angeles, August 2, next, at 3:30 o'clock in Berkeley Hall. This is the last of the series of popular illustrated lectures which Prof. Kaun has been offering at the university, on Rus- sian and Balkan life and art.

Prof. Kaun, a Russian by birth, has traveled recently through Slavic Eu- rope and bases his lecture on per- sonal observation of conditions.

While in Prague, he met most of the parliamentary leaders and also had many talks with ministers and workers throughout the country. He was the guest of President Masaryk in whose home, Prof. Kaun states, American customs and the American language are very much in evidence. The wife of President Masaryk is an American and his daughter has at- tended the University of Chicago.

Prof. Frans X. Schaffer, interna- tional scientist of Vienna, visiting instructor at the summer session, will lecture on "Java," August 1, next, at 3 p.m. in 102 Fine Arts Building. This is the last of a special series of lectures which Prof. Schaffer will offer in the field of geography, and is open free of charge to the pub- lic.

STUDENTS TO GIVE PLAY

The installation of ornamental lighting posts on Hillcrest Road from Franklin avenue to Camrose Drive has been recommended to the City Council by the Board of Public Works.

WOMEN TELL WHAT HE DID

Husband's Deeds Recounted by Wife and Two Daughters; Judge Grants Divorce

Antonio Salami's women folks "did for him" in Judge Falk's court yesterday. In rapid succession Mrs. Francesca Sa- lami, his wife, and Betty and Patsy Salami, his daughters, told the court:

That he brought a woman home with him.

That he got drunk and smashed the dishes.

And that he pawned their jewelry and left them.

MARRIAGE ENDS WITH LITTLE ADO

Girl's Two-Year Union Terminated as Father Says She Lacked His Consent

It took Dorothy Cox just two minutes and forty-five seconds yesterday to clear herself of the errors she got into when she ran away to Santa Ana in 1925 and married Raymond Cox. Judge Falk, in one of the briefest proceedings on record, annulled the marriage.

Mrs. Cox did not even have to take the stand. Her attorney, Jack Greenberg, simply called upon her father, S. C. Campbell, to testify.

"Was your daughter 18 years of age when she married?" Greenberg asked.

"No."

"Did she have the consent of her parents?"

"No."

And that was all there was to it. A complete legal case having been established.

Ten Buildings in Heart of City Swept by Blaze in Early Morning

Red Mill and Coronado Hotel With Numerous Bars on Casualty List

SAN DIEGO, July 29. (Exclusive) Breaking out at 2:30 o'clock this morning, a fire at Tia Juana destroyed ten buildings, occupying two city blocks, and caused losses estimated at $500,000 before being brought under control at 5 o'clock.

The buildings destroyed were the Coronado Hotel, the Red Mill, the Honeydew Bar, the San Diego Cafe and Bar and the Anchor Bar on Main street; the Cuevas Building, a confectionery and fruit store, the Detroit Hotel, the Oasis Bar and the retail branch of Cather's distillery on Second street.

The fire started in a rubbish heap in the rear of the San Diego Cafe and had attacked and obtained a good start on the rear of the Coronado Hotel before being discovered. No wind was blowing and the fire burned slowly, but inadequate water supply made saving the buildings impossible.

An adobe building was the means of checking the fire on Main street, while an alley aided the Chula Vista fire department, which rushed to the border city to lend assistance, to check the fire on the Second-street side.

All structures which were consumed were of wood. The Palais Royal, the only adobe structure in the entire block, proved nearly fireproof and when reached by the flames enabled fighters to gain control of the fire.

Inquiry Ordered by Trade Body

Relation of General Motors, United States Steel and De Nemours Studied

Commission Declares Fusion of Industrial Giants to be Ticklish Issue

WASHINGTON, July 29. (AP)—A sweeping inquiry into the relationships between the E. I. Dupont De Nemours Company, the General Motors Corporation and the United States Steel Corporation was ordered today by the Federal Trade Commission.

The investigation will be conducted by the chief economist and will go directly to the question of the probable economic consequences of a community of interest among the three largest industrial corporations in the United States. On the report of the economist will depend future action by the commission.

The move of the commission, which came wholly unexpectedly, was on motion of Commissioner Myers, the newest member of the trade regulatory body. In its resolution directing the inquiry, the commission called attention that the published financial reports of the Dupont Company show that it has a large investment in the stock of the General Motors Corporation.

REPORTS CITED

The resolution also recited that it has been currently reported in the press that the Dupont concern recently has acquired a large holding in the capital stock of the steel corporation with the expectation of having a number of directors in that organization as it now has in General Motors.

The establishment of a community of interest among these three corporations was declared to be "a matter of public concern." The commission then called attention to its authority of law to inquire into the organization, business, conduct, practices and management of corporations generally.

This inquiry promises to be the most extensive the commission has conducted since it investigated the "big five" meat packers several years ago by direction of President Wilson. As a result of that inquiry the packers finally entered into a consent decree with the government whereby they agreed to divest themselves of unrelated lines of business which they had acquired or built up over a series of years.

RESOLUTION GIVEN

The resolution adopted by the commission follows:

"Whereas it appears from published financial reports of the E. I. Du Pont De Nemours Company that it has a large investment in the stock of the General Motors Corporation, and

"Whereas it is currently reported in the press that the said Du Pont company has recently acquired in the capital stock of the United States Steel Corporation, that it expects to have a number of directors representing its interests elected to the board of the latter company, and in other ways to develop a close corporate connection among them, and

"Whereas, the establishment of a community of interests among these three corporations, which are reputed to be among the largest industrial corporations in this country, is a matter of public concern, and

"Whereas, the act creating this commission authorizing it to inquire into the organization, business, conduct, practices and management of the said corporations; now therefore be it,

"Resolved, that the chief economist of this commission be directed to cause an inquiry to be made into the relationships, direct or indirect, among the United States Steel Corporation, the General Motors Company and the E. I. Du Pont De Nemours Company, tending to bring them or any other important industrial corporation under a common ownership, control of management, with information as to the economic consequences of such community of intrest and to report the facts to this commission."

SUIT CHARGES FILM TRUST

Companies Owning 5000 Theaters Named Defendants; Design to Control Business Asserted

CHICAGO, July 29. (Exclusive)—Suit to enjoin the organization of a motion-picture trust which it is charged is planning to control an annual business of between $90,000,000 and $130,000,000 was filed in the Superior Court today by Leroy Myron Fulton, stockholder in E. E. Fulton Company, manufacturer and distributor of theater machinery, equipment and supplies.

Leading theater owners of America, interested in approximately 5000 cinema houses, are among the defendants.

They are: Paramount Famous Lasky Corporation; Universal Film Manufacturing Company; Loew's, Inc.; Publix Theaters, Inc.; Orpheum Circuit; Balaban and Katz; Universal Film Exchange, Inc.; B. F. Keith's, Inc.; Stanley Company of America; Saenger Amusement Company; West Coast Theaters, Inc.; Kunsky Enterprises, and Marcus Loew's Western Booking Agency.

The principal defendants in the case, those against whom most of the litigation is directed, are Carl H. Fulton, president of the E. E. Fulton Company and brother of the plaintiff, and Albert G. Jarmin, vice-president of the company and father-in-law of the president. They are charged with trying to "freeze" the complainant out of the company before carrying out their asserted conspiracy with the other defendants to create a monopoly on the business of furnishing and supplying picture houses.

The suit, filed by the law firm of Jacobson, Herrick & Latter, asks the following relief:

1. That Carl H. Fulton and Albert G. Jarmin submit to an accounting of their company and be ordered to deliver any money shown to be due the plaintiff or other stockholders.

2. That officers of E. E. Fulton Company be restrained from transferring any stock to the defendants in the case.

3. That an injunction be issued restraining anything which will have the purpose and effect of lessening competition.

4. That the defendants be enjoined from any conspiracy or understanding regarding the control or direction of moving pictures.

The bill refers to the ruling of the Federal Trade Commission of July 9, saying that the commission found that a motion picture trust exists "and was continuing, and will continue unless restrained by some process not now in force."

New York Fight Against Liquor to be Pushed

WASHINGTON, July 29. (AP)—Regardless of handicaps, the Federal authorities will not relax their efforts in any way "for full and complete enforcement" of the prohibition law in New York, declared Assistant Secretary Lowman today.

Recognizing that rigid enforcement is impossible because of the fact New York has no State prohibition law, limited Federal court facilities and an enforcement unit small in comparison with the area to which it is assigned, Lowman asserted that these factors will not hinder efforts of enforcement.

Both Lowman and Commissioner Doran declared conditions are improving in New York despite the enforcement difficulties. They pointed out that since June 20, thirty-seven distilleries and wildcat breweries had been suppressed in Buffalo.

The week-end will be spent at an unannounced spot several miles from Buffalo where the flyer will be free to do as he wishes.

Ritchie Refuses to Debate With Wayne Wheeler

DETROIT, July 29. (AP)—Charges that Wayne B. Wheeler of the Anti-Saloon League is a paid protagonist of a cause that is "becoming a menace to this country" are contained in a letter by Gov. "I can see no possible reason for debating with him unless it be to give publicity to him," the Governor said.

Recess Taken by Parliament

LONDON, July 29.—The British Parliament adjourned today for the summer recess until November 8 after a dull, featureless session, not characterized by any important legislation except the passage of the trades-union bill. This bill was passed over violent Labor opposition and is designed to put the brakes on general strikes and curb picketing activities.

The session has, however, been marked by violent scenes over industrial questions and has devoted many hours to bitter bickering over soviet propaganda, having gone on record as indorsing the breaking off of relations with Russia.

COOLIDGE, HITTING BRITISH PLAN, INSISTS ON NAVY CUT

President Won't Agree to Increase; Hopeful London's Proposals May Still be Modified

RAPID CITY (S. D.) July 29. (AP)—Proposals of great Britain at the troubled Geneva naval armaments conference call for a larger navy than President Coolidge will sanction. That is the main obstacle in the conference, in the opinion of the President, who will not agree to the program calling for construction of a greater navy when he had hoped the conference would bring about an understanding for reduction of armaments.

Still hopeful that further discussions may bring about modifications in the British proposal, Mr. Coolidge is plainly determined not to accept the terms now presented by that country.

It was recalled today at the executive office that the President invited Great Britain and Japan into conference for the purpose of eventually bringing about a reduction in the size of the navies of the nations involved and a consequent saving in expense.

More important, he thought, would be the development of peace, good will and better understanding among the nations which in turn naturally would aid in the reduction of armaments and in the burden of taxes.

HAS NO FUTURE PLANS

But so far, Mr. Coolidge interprets the expressed desires of Great Britain as calling for construction of a larger navy than this nation is willing to build. If no agreement is reached at the parley, which reports indicate are on its dying legs, the President has no plans for the future. He regards the situation as unchanged.

Disagreements in the conference about tonnages of cruisers and caliber of guns are considered by Mr. Coolidge as only collateral to the main issue about the size of a navy which England would require this country to build, under its proposals.

This is the first time that anything but expressions of optimism has come from the summer White House since the naval parley opened more than a month ago. It seems as the conference appears to be heading toward a break-up, with Great Britain and this country deadlocked.

WASHINGTON PLAYLE OPPOSES BRITISH PLAN

WASHINGTON, July 29. (Exclusive) Flat rejection of the latest proposal for limitation of naval armament was decided on by Washington officials today.

Following an all-day conference attended by Secretary of State Kellogg, Secretary of the Navy Wilbur and high State and Navy Department officials, it was stated that the British proposal has been found even more objectionable from this American viewpoint than previous proposals submitted by that government.

It was also stated by administration officials that the work of outlining the American objections to the provisions of the British proposal was begun at today's conference and will be continued during the next few days. Several dispatches containing Ambassador Hugh Gibson's recommendations for answering the various points in the proposal have already been received from Geneva. The conclusions reached by Washington officials and the Geneva delegation will be made public in a speech to be delivered by Ambassador Gibson at the next and probably final plenary session.

HIGH TONNAGE PROVIDED

Officials contend that the latest British proposal not only refuses to allow the United States to build and arm its cruisers for the best interests of national defense but also permits a total tonnage for auxiliary craft amounting actually to 737,500 tons for the United States and Great Britain. It is pointed out that Great Britain, if she desired, could devote 647,500 tons of her total to the construction of cruisers.

"Of this 147,500 tons would be in the so-called obsolete class to be built up as modern ships reached certain age limits," a naval expert pointed out. "The effect would be that this proposal would be worthless to the United States because we have no obsolete cruisers to put in this class and will have none until 1939. Great Britain, on the other hand, would be able to transfer to this special class at once her cruisers completed in 1911 under the sixteen-year age limit for this class of ship, and at once lay down a replacement program.

"The cost in the necessary cruiser construction for the United States to get in equality with Great Britain

Will Rogers Remarks:

BEVERLY HILLS, July 29.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Lindbergh is doing great work. He is visiting one town each day trying to interest people in aviation. When he gets through it wouldn't be bad to have him visit Washington for at least a week and try and interest them.

Don't get the idea because three of our planes flew to Europe and made it that we are ahead in aviation. It's not how far can three men fly, but what have you got for the other 110,000,000 to fly in, and where are they to land when they come down.

Yours,

WILL ROGERS.

P.S.—August 2, which is Tuesday, don't forget the national anniversary celebration of Walter Johnson at Washington, D. C. He is the other Swede that Lindbergh copied in showing the world how to be great and still be modest. Do something to help round out a great sportsman's career. Remember next Tuesday, the only man in America that stayed a hero for twenty years.

SOVIET CONCESSIONS

Alarmed by the failure of the German Mologa Timber Company, which has turned its grant back to Moscow after heavy losses, they have canceled the requirement in Mr. Harriman's manganese contract in Georgia compelling him to broaden the gauge of the railway from the mines to tidewater, and have promised to equalize competitive conditions between these mines and the government-operated Nikopol mines. In general they have announced a new and more liberal concession policy than hitherto.

According to the report of the Russia State Bank, the soviet union now has as much land under cultivation as in 1916, and the grain crop has reached 97 per cent of the average prewar figure. Cattle have actually increased since 1913, though there has been a falling off of one-fifth or more in the number of horses.

While the outputs of coal and petroleum are rapidly approaching the 1913 level, less than one-half as much iron is made as before the war.—[Living Age.

QUIZ DISCLOSES JAIL INTIMACIES

Witness Tells of Parties Given by Matron

SANTA ANA, July 28. (Exclusive)—Charges that prisoners in the Orange County Jail had access to women prisoner's quarters through a ventilator shaft leading from the men's department were made today before a special grand jury impaneled here to investigate the administration of prison affairs and conditions within the institution for the past few years.

The witness who is said to have told of visits by men prisoners to the women's wing, was C. C. Collins of Orange, a prisoner facing grand larceny charges. Collins some time ago made a statement in which he named two men and a woman. These men are now in San Quentin. They escaped from jail but later were recaptured. Collins, it was said, testified that Mrs. Jernigan as jail matron had discovered the use of the ventilator by the prisoners.

PARTIES ARRANGED

Lloyd Hatch and his wife, Bessie Phares Hatch, were witnesses also. The latter was a trusty in the women's ward and testified, it is said, that Mrs. Jernigan had her arrange details of parties at the jail given for Mrs. Jernigan's friends. Mrs. Hatch is quoted as saying that she had had possession of the jail keys several times and that one special deputy jailer and one Federal prisoner had keys to the women's quarters.

Hatch was a cellmate of "Dr." Rex Herrick William Albrextondare, imprisoned for practicing medicine without a license, and is said to have told the grand jury Albrextondare was given a severe beating by Jailer Orin Moncrief on one occasion and the "water cure" on several others, to make him talk. The grand jury, it is understood, will investigate charges of Albrextondare that he was kidnaped in Tia Juana and rushed across the line to San Diego where he was arrested. In the asserted kidnaping Albrextondare was knocked out by a gun butt, according to his story, when efforts to stupefy him with drugged food failed.

PRIVILEGED PRISONER

A witness to be called soon, it was expected, is John Delocqua of Los Angeles, who was a trusty at the jail. He will testify, it is said, that he was allowed to go out shooting pigeons on Sundays, that he made frequent trips with prisoners and trusties to Los Angeles, and that he was allowed to receive women visitors late at night.

At a previous session, it was reported, Edward Grafton, a Los Angeles publisher, testified he was denied the use of a telephone, was struck in the mouth by a jailer, was not allowed to post bail and was subjected to other indignities when he was arrested on a speeding charge. Grafton is a brother of William Grafton, former member of the Anaheim City Council.

Deputy Jailer Joe Irvine, former Deputy Sheriff James Smith, and Joe Buchta, are expected to be witnesses in the inquiry tomorrow.
